Information for your report will appear on the following page. The village specified on the survey table on this section should be the village where a village committee was first established in the village group. If the name is important and not the person, note. Some countries list village committees in order by village in your page. The village number is not as useful since the numbering system is not always the same. The village can be "located" geographically by noting the village and the distance between village committees, which is the number on the survey.
