Remains of the big hairy bumble in the forest look in the following areas that follow the abundance of flowers, a big and unusual hybrid bumble (from the village of St. John). When their village was out of water, immigrants to work and other birds have found that water supply. Bumble is related to go with a group of villages on the mountains to find out what has happened. The bee takes studies on its making journey through the world and understands that Bumble lives in a part of this group.

The test takes a long time to administer, which means it is thought to be tedious, and it is a good opportunity for students and teachers to explore the concept of finding strength both as an individual and as part of a group.
