

As a counsellor you should work closely with the Royal Ambassadors Committee of the sponsoring organization. You will inform them about the needs of the chapter. This committee will help in planning activities of the chapter such as camping, sporting events, and other special events. They will also help to secure the materials needed for the work of the chapter.

The counsellor may want to let members of this committee help to examine the members to see if they have successfully passed their ranks and are ready to be recognized. This committee can be a valuable asset to the counsellor and to his work.

Some Suggested Books for RA Leaders and Members

The counsellor and the entire members of the Royal Ambassadors (Junior, Intermediate and Senior) may find help in some of the following books. Some of the books are about mission work in Nigeria, other African countries, and other countries of the world. They will particularly help a counsellor to properly understand the age group with whom he is working.

Some of these books may be purchased from the Baptist Bookstore or other bookstores; or borrowed from a public/Christian library, from a lending library of a church/a pastor/a missionary.
