Stuart Saunders

Second Semester Courses Fort Hare:

Educational Systems of Africa Inez Sepmeyer, Martena Sasnett, 1966      Government Annual Report of the Republic of Venda Venda (South Africa), 1982      Bechuanaland Great Britain. Colonial Office, 1956      Shadow Libraries Joe Karaganis, 2018-05-04 How students get the materials they need as opportunities for higher education expand but funding shrinks From the top down Shadow Libraries explores the institutions that shape the provision of educational materials from the formal sector of universities and publishers to the broadly informal ones organized by faculty copy shops student unions and students themselves It looks at the history of policy battles over access to education in the post World War II era and at the narrower versions that have played out in relation to research and textbooks from library policies to book subsidies to more recently the several open publication models that have emerged in the higher education sector From the bottom up Shadow Libraries explores how simply students get the materials they need It maps the ubiquitous practice of photocopying and what are in many cases the more marginal ones of buying books visiting libraries and downloading from unauthorized sources It looks at the informal networks that emerge in many contexts to share materials from face to face student networks to Facebook groups and at the processes that lead to the consolidation of some of those efforts into more organized archives that circulate offline and sometimes online the shadow libraries of the title If Alexandra Elbakyan's Sci Hub is the largest of these efforts to date the more characteristic part of her story is the prologue the personal struggle to participate in global scientific and educational communities and the recourse to a wide array of ad hoc strategies and networks when formal authorized means are lacking If Elbakyan's story has struck a chord it is in part because it brings this contradiction in the academic project into sharp relief universalist in principle and unequal in practice Shadow Libraries is a study of that tension in the digital era Contributors Bal zs Bod Laura Czerniewicz Mirosław Filiciak Mariana Fossatti Jorge Gemetto Eve Gray Evelin Heidele Joe Karaganis Lawrence Liang Pedro Mizukami Jhessica Reia Alek Tarkowski      Student Resistance to Apartheid at the University of Fort Hare Rico Devara Chapman, 2016-05-12 The book explores forms of popular student resistance to apartheid education in South Africa particularly at the University of Fort Hare UFH by tracing student activism at UFH from 1970 to 2000 highlighting the factors that influenced the development of a culture of student resistance investigating the root causes that made Fort Hare exceptional in its stand against apartheid and chronicling the educational and social implications that resulted from students unparalleled and fearless actions against the apartheid system Student resistance at Fort Hare can be traced as far back as the 1940s however this book will primarily focus on the critical 1970 2000 period which was marked by increased student activism in South Africa The 1980s and 1990s were peak years for student activism in the country There is no doubt that student struggles during this period and thereafter helped dismantle apartheid and usher in a new South African government      This Is My Life Pamela Tumeke Koyana-Letlaka, 2014-11-26 This book is not about the political history of Apartheid South Africa it is about an extraordinary

South African woman's life It depicts where she was born and chronicles her courageous journey into exile to Lesotho Zambia Zaire and Britain culminating with a diplomatic assignment in the United States of America This is where the politics of the day intersects with personal lives making us all more deeply appreciative of how profoundly the personal is political
Fort Hare Papers, 1985     Basutoland Great Britain. Office of Commonwealth Relations, 1954     Ingxelo yenkqubo Ugunyaziwe Wamazwana Aseciskei Ciskeian Territorial Authority, 1969     A Life's Mosaic Phyllis Ntantala, 1993-01-01 Like Trotsky I did not leave home with the proverbial one and six in my pocket I come from a family of landed gentry and could have chosen the path of comfort and safety for even in apartheid South Africa there is still that path for those who will collaborate But I chose the path of struggle and uncertainty from the Preface Born into the small social elite of black South Africa Phyllis Ntantala did not face the grinding poverty so familiar to other South African blacks Instead her struggle was that of a creative articulate woman seeking fulfillment and justice in a land that tried to deny her both The widow of Xhosa writer and historian A C Jordan and mother of African National Congress leader Zallo Jordan she and her family experienced a period of tremendous change in South Africa and also in the United States where they moved during the 1960s She discovers similarities in the two countries including the arrogance of power Anchored in history and culture A Life's Mosaic sharply reveals the world and the people of South Africa As the story of a political exile it represents the dislocations that have caused universal suffering in the second half of the twentieth century Phyllis Ntantala discusses the cruelty of racism the cynicism of political solutions and the hopes of those who live in both a world of exile and a world of dreams

Mamelodi Politics Titus Mashaba, This book explores the rich historical background of Mamelodi a township located east of Pretoria It begins with the origins of the township in 1945 when it was still known as Vlakkfontein During the apartheid era starting in the 1950s through the 1960s many of Mamelodi's residents were forcibly removed from various white designated areas and relocated as part of the Group Areas Act of 1950 The book examines the struggles of these African populations as they were segregated in all aspects of life from social and political spheres to their economic opportunities It also delves into the impact of key events including the 1976 educational strike and continues to analyze the township's transformation through the democratic era offering a comprehensive view of its historical and cultural evolution

Studiegeleenthede Aan Universiteite Joan Roodt, 1994 This guide is a summary of approximately 550 study opportunities and possible occupations in the Republic of South Africa that can be pursued by persons with degrees diplomas or certificates The study opportunities are organized by field of study For each opportunity the following information is provided field of study possible occupation's name of degree diploma certificate where the study opportunity is available language medium of institution duration of study entry qualifications and subjects required subjects recommended selection basis and fees for courses The guide which is presented in English and Afrikaans also contains an alphabetical list of fields of study for which study opportunities exist the possible occupations that can be pursued by persons with degrees and a list of the universities and their addresses JDD      Ecological Effects of Fire in South African Ecosystems P. de V. Booysen, N. M. Tainton, 2012-12-06 This is a stimulating tale of the interplay of observation experimentation working hypotheses tentative conclusions niggling and weightier doubts and great aspirations on the part of some score of students on varied ecological and other aspects of the regime and role of fire in relevant biomes and ecosystem mainly in South Africa and on other pertinent features of fire ecology The impressive contents is a tribute to conveners and authors alike One can expect a profound range and depth of investigation and interpretation a close knit fabric of knowledge delicately interwoven with wisdom an exposition and quintessence of information Admirable is the collective vision responsible for selecting appropriate topics the wide sweeps of the brush picturing the nature of the biomes ably describing the fire regimes whether in grassland savanna fynbos or forest skillfully defining the effects of such regimes according to ecosystem upon aerial and edaphic factors of the habitat upon constituent biota individually specifically and as a biotic community elucidating the basic implications in the structure and dynamics of the plant aspect of that community and unravelling to some degree the tangled knot of the conservation and dissipation of moisture and nutrients Moreover gratitude is owed for efforts exerted to understand the interplay of fire and faunal behaviour and dynamics as well as composition together with the principle of adaptive responses of organisms of diverse kinds      Vice-chancellor on a Tightrope Stuart Saunders, 2000      The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow, 2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa's bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey's death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss

When I Said I Do Colleen Mapatwana, 2020-12-20 This is a story of endurance or less time to breath for ease for a young Christian couple who are leaders of a local church as Pastor and Lady Pastor of the Church The young couple Pastor Simphiwe Gambu and Nontle Madikizela met at church and made vows to each other the Antagonist Blessing Mthimkhulu a daughter of the Apostle who has been raised with Christian values and principles has vowed to become the Pastor's wife and gives the couple no time to rest Challenges emanates from inside the church where there are satanists given authority by Lucifer to fight and destroy their marriage because of the dangerous prayers of the Pastor and his wife while other women at church wants the Pastor to marry their daughters Children from outside marriage also bring a strain to the already sinking marriage Forces of darkness intensify the attacks as the warfare increases The couple loses almost everything they had Pastor Gambu is given an option to come out of their misery and poverty an option of joining a Christian cult by prophesying through evil spirits and divination to increase his church members and to make money leading people of God astray to satisfy his ambitions will he take that option Will their marriage survive these challenges Annual Military Obituary ,1854 The Story of an African Game André Odendaal,2003 THE STORY OF AN AFRICAN GAME is a ground breaking book the first to cover in detail the history and experiences of black African cricketers in South Africa It is long overdue coming 195 years after the first recorded game of cricket in this country was played at the Green Point Common Cape Town in 1808 This is a book that will forever change the way we look at South Africa s cricket history and help us understand where the game is heading in the future Southern Africa David J. Cranmer,Valerie A. Woolston,1980 In India and East Africa E-Indiya nase East Africa Davidson Don Tengo Jabavu,Tina Steiner,Mhlobo Jadezweni,Catherine Higgs,Evan M. Mwangi,2020-02-01 A politician s journey to bring home Mahatma Gandhi s teachings home to South Africa in the wake of WWII In November 1949 Davidson Don Tengo D D T Jabavu the South African politician Methodist lay preacher and retired professor of African languages and Latin at Fort Hare University in the Eastern Cape set out on a four month trip to attend the World Pacifist Meeting in India The conference brought together delegates from over thirty countries to reflect on how Mahatma Gandhi s life and teachings could inform pacifist work in the post World War II era Jabavu wrote an isiXhosa account of his journey up the east coast of Africa and to different parts of India which was first published in 1951 by Lovedale Press His narrative contains wide ranging reflections on the fauna and flora of the changing landscape on intriguing social interactions during his travels and on the conference itself where he considered what lessons Gandhian principles might yield for oppressed South Africans engaged in struggles for freedom and dignity He incorporates accounts of chance meetings with important figures of post independence India and of the anti colonial struggle in East Africa as well as with members of the American civil rights movement His commentary on non violent resistance and on the dangers of nationalism when coupled with militarism and racism enriches the existing archive of intellectual and political exchange between Africa and India from a black South African perspective This new edition includes Jabavu s travelogue in the original isiXhosa with an English translation by the late anthropologist Cecil Wele Manona Tina Steiner s introductory chapter examines the networks of international solidarity and friendship that Jabavu helped to strengthen in the course of his travels A chapter by Mhlobo W Jadezweni whose updating of the original isiXhosa orthography has made Jabavu s text accessible to new generations of readers considers the richness of Jabavu s isiXhosa style as a contribution to the archive of great African language literature

Catherine Higgs provides biographical sketches of D D T Jabavu and Cecil Wele Manona which situate this travelogue within the broader context of their lives Evan M Mwangi's Afterword is a reflection on the historical and political significance of making African language texts available to readers across Africa
