McKenna and the Photon Chariots

McKenna awoke from a dream of butterfly's fluttering over roads of infinite color. Today was special, and her glowing face showed it; today she was going to see Lux. McKenna had never visited Lux but knew it was the place where all letters were sent to and from the people of Orbis. This was perfect; McKenna had a very special letter to send. McKenna heard her mother call for her, so she quickly gathered her travel bag, ensuring her letter was safely inside, and ran outside to find her father, mother, brother, and sister were already packed, and waiting for her to arrive. She quickly climbed into their family carriage, and her brother Conner asked, What took you so long? McKenna explained that she ... Show more content on HelpWriting.net ... Lux is a very exciting place, and they were happy to have any reason to visit.

McKenna and her family had been traveling for what seemed like forever. To try and pass the time, she and her siblings were playing games they brought from home, while her father and mother talked in the front of the carriage. During a pause in their game, McKenna called to the front of the carriage. Daddy, you go to Lux all the time. What are you doing there today that we could come as well? Her dad replied, I have a business meetings with clients at Lux and I thought it would be nice to take the whole family along for the trip. Plus, while I'm in meetings, I have arranged a special tour of Lux for all of you. McKenna, Conner and their little sister Kellan all screamed in excitement. McKenna asked, What type of special tour? Her dad looked back with a smile on his face and said, Oh, this one is the best tour of all. I know you guys have always tried to see an IB, but can never seem to catch them picking up your letters. The children nodded in agreement. Have you ever wondered why, or how they move so fast? Well, not to give too much of your tour away, but it's because the IBs ride on very special carriages, and these carriages move faster than your eyes can see. Faster than we can see? pondered McKenna. What could possibly move that quickly?

As the family carriage hovered into the city, the children were glued to the
