What Makes A Book A Touchstone Text:

Mentor Texts Rose Cappelli, 2023-10-10 In their first edition of Mentor Texts authors Lynne Dorfman and Rose Cappelli helped teachers across the country make the most of high quality children's literature in their writing instruction. Mentor Texts Teaching Writing Through Children's Literature K-6 2nd Edition the authors continue to show teachers how to help students become confident accomplished writers by using literature as their foundation. The second edition includes brand new Your Turn Lessons built around the gradual release of responsibility model offering suggestions for demonstrations and shared or guided writing. Reflection is emphasized as a necessary component to understanding why mentor authors chose certain strategies literary devices sentence structures and words. Dorfman and Cappelli offer new children's book titles in each chapter and in a carefully curated and annotated Treasure Chest. At the end of each chapter a Think About It sTalk About It sWrite About It section invites reflection and conversation with colleagues. The book is organized around the characteristics of good writing focus content organization style and conventions. The authors write in a friendly and conversational style employing numerous anecdotes to help teachers visualize the process and offer strategies that can be immediately implemented in the classroom. This practical resource demonstrates the power of learning to read like writers.

Nonfiction Mentor Texts Lynne R. Dorfman, Rose Cappelli, 2009 Guides teachers through a variety of projects samples and classroom anecdotes that demonstrate how teachers can help students become more effective writers of good nonfiction.

Craft Moves Stacey Shubitz, 2023-10-10 How do you choose mentor texts for your students? How do you mine them for the craft lessons you want your students to learn? In Craft Moves Lesson Sets for Teaching Writing with Mentor Texts Stacey Shubitz co-founder of the Two Writing Teachers website uses twenty recently published picture books to create more than 180 lessons to teach various craft moves that will help your students become better writers. Each of the 184 lessons in the book includes a publisher's summary a rationale or explanation of the craft move demonstrated in the book and a procedure that takes teachers and students back into the mentor text to deepen their understanding of the selected craft move. A step by step guide demonstrates how to analyze a picture book for multiple craft moves. Shubitz introduces picture books as teaching tools and offers ways to integrate them into your curriculum and classroom discussions. She then shares different routines and classroom procedures designed to help students focus on their writing during the writer's workshop as well as focusing how teachers can prepare for small group instruction. Using picture books as mentor texts will help your students not only read as writers and write with joy but also become writers who can effectively communicate meaning structure their writing write with detail and give their writing their own unique voice.

Using Mentor Texts to Teach 6 + 1 Writing Traits Beverly A. DeVries, 2022-12-30 In this book you'll find a wealth of mini lessons designed to improve the quality of students writing. Each lesson uses a key mentor text and spotlights one of the 6 + 1 Writing Traits to allow students to focus on the essential aspects of good writing content organization word choice voice sentence fluency conventions and presentation. Inviting and practical the lessons are concise and follow a consistent model for easy implementation With seven lessons per chapter each includes step by step guidance open ended prompts and suggestions for additional suitable mentor texts The chapters are organized by genre including fiction informational texts and poetry and feature graphic novels and graphic informational mentor texts to inspire and engage students Aligned with the Common Core State Standards this resource is essential for any K 8 or pre service teacher who wants to instill in their students the skills to become independent confident writers

Identity-Focused ELA Teaching Richard Beach,Anthony Johnston,Amanda Haertling Thein,2015-03-05 Countering the increased standardization of English language arts instruction requires recognizing and fostering students unique identity construction across different social and cultural contexts Drawing on current sociocultural theories of identity construction this book posits that students construct multiple identities through use of five identity practices adopting alternative perspectives exploring connections across people and texts negotiating identities across social worlds developing agency through critical analysis and reflecting on long term identity trajectories Identity Focused ELA Teaching features classroom activities teachers can use to put these practices into action in ways that re center implementing the Common Core State Standards case study profiles of students and classrooms from urban suburban and rural schools adopting these practices and descriptions of how teachers both support students with this instructional approach and share their own identity construction experiences with their students It demonstrates how as students acquire identity focused practices through engagements with literature writing drama and digital texts they gain awareness of the ways exposure to different narratives beliefs and perspectives serves to mediate their own and others identities leading to different ways of being and becoming over time

Take Me to Your Readers Larry Swartz,2017-09-22 This thoughtful book is rooted in the belief that teachers can lead their students to develop their reading tastes and grow in their love of reading at the same time as supporting and stretching students in their meaning making experiences This practical resource highlights more than 50 instructional strategies that invite students to work inside and outside a book through reading writing talk and arts experiences It highlights the work of guest voices that include classroom teachers occasional teachers special education teachers and librarians who share their best literacy practices Take Me to Your Readers uses 5 essential areas to structure classroom experiences through children s literature Motivation Theme Connections Genre Connections Cross Curricular Connections and Response Extensive booklists teaching tips a wide range of activities and reproducible pages provide practical support Ultimately this book is designed to take teachers to their readers and start them on a lifelong journey through great books

Nonfiction Writing Strategies Using Content-Area Mentor Texts Marcia S. Freeman,2013-08 This book shows teachers how to use mentor texts in an integrative approach for teaching both content and informational writing As you explore the pages of this book you ll find strategies for teaching writing craft fundamentals with step by step instructions that make writing instruction come alive in content area classes suggests a process for using children's books to explore four key aspects of literacy: predictable structures, nonfiction comprehension, and imagination and language play.

Writing Thief Ruth Culham, 2023-10-10 Mediocre writers borrow. Great writers steal. T. S. Eliot. Writing thieves read widely, dive deeply into texts, and steal bits and pieces from great texts as models for their own writing. Author Ruth Culham admits to being a writing thief, and she wants you and your students to become writing thieves too. In The Writing Thief: Using Mentor Texts to Teach the Craft of Writing, Culham demonstrates that a major part of good writing instruction is finding the right mentor texts to share with students. Within this book, you'll discover more than 90 excellent mentor texts along with straightforward activities that incorporate the traits of writing across informational, narrative, and argument modes. Chapters also include brief essays from beloved writing thieves such as Lester Laminack, David L. Harrison, Lisa Yee, Nicola Davies, Ralph Fletcher, Toni Buzzeo, Lola Schaefer, and Kate Messner, detailing the reading that has influenced their own writing. Culham's renowned easygoing style and friendly tone make this a book you'll turn to again and again as you coach your students to reach their full potential as deep, thoughtful readers and great writers. There's a writing thief in each of us when we learn how to read with a writer's eye.

Interpreting Literature With Children Shelby A. Wolf, 2014-04-04 Clearly organized and beautifully written, Interpreting Literature With Children is a remarkable book that stands on the edge of two textbook genres: the survey of literature text and the literary criticism text. Neither approach, however, says enough about how children respond to literature in everyday classroom situations. That is the mission of this book. It begins by providing a solid foundation in both approaches and then examines multiple ways of developing children's literary interpretation through talk, through culture, class, and gender, as well as through creative modes of expression, including writing, the visual arts, and drama. The result is a balanced resource for teachers who want to deepen their understanding of literature and literary engagement. Because of its modest length and price and its ongoing focus on how to increase student engagement with literature, either pre-service or practicing teachers can use this text in children's literature, language arts, or literacy and language courses.

Poetry Mentor Texts Lynne Dorfman, Rose Cappelli, 2023-10-10 Building on the success of Mentor Texts and Nonfiction Mentor Texts, authors Lynne R. Dorfman and Rose Cappelli now turn their attention to poetry. In Poetry Mentor Texts, Lynne and Rose show teachers how to use poems in both reading and writing workshops and across content areas. Written in a friendly, conversational tone, this practical book explores a variety of poetic forms, including poems that inspire response, list poems, acrostic poems, persona poems, and poems for two voices, versatile forms of poetry that can be used in every grade. Each of these poetic forms has its own chapter featuring five poems with applications for both reading and writing classrooms. Reading connections present skills and strategies to move students forward as readers, helping them to build fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, phonemic awareness, and phonics. Writing connections help students and teachers discover their own voices and grow as poets and wordsmiths as they try out many poetic forms. Poems help students at all grade levels learn to better address complex reading texts, offering them a chance to dig deeper and use higher order thinking skills Additionally Your Turn writing lessons provide a scaffold for seamlessly moving from modeling to the shared or guided experience and the transfer to independent work The Treasure Chest offers a brief annotation of the poems discussed in each chapter as well as companion pieces that extend and enhance the work of the reading and writing classroom Poetry Mentor Texts helps teachers across the curriculum guide their students to become not only skilled readers and writers but also more empathetic human beings
