What We All Long For:

Transnational Canadas Kit Dobson, 2009-08-04 Transnational Canadas marks the first sustained inquiry into the relationship between globalization and Canadian literature written in English. Tracking developments in the literature and its study from the centennial period to the present, it shows how current work in transnational studies can provide new insights for researchers and students. Arguing first that the dichotomy of Canadian nationalism and globalization is no longer valid in today's economic climate, Transnational Canadas explores the legacy of leftist nationalism in Canadian literature. It examines the interventions of multicultural writing in the 1980s and 1990s, investigating the cultural politics of the period and how they increasingly became part of Canada's state structure. Under globalization, the book concludes, we need to understand new forms of subjectivity and mobility as sites for cultural politics and look beyond received notions of belonging and being. An original contribution to the study of Canadian literature, Transnational Canadas seeks to invigorate discussion by challenging students and researchers to understand the national and the global simultaneously, to look at the politics of identity beyond the rubric of multiculturalism and to rethink the slippery notion of the political for the contemporary era.

Peeling Apart Aaron Zweig, 2006-04 Walter Smolin works as a line cook in the busiest restaurant in Eugene, Oregon. After rising from bed and going about his normal day, Walter must confront a battle between technology and chopping enough onions for 200 people after arriving at work. Computer systems fail before the busy Saturday night rush, and the restaurant is pinned against dire consequences when pencil and paper communication is all they are left with. After the Chef commits truancy and the acting manager loses his wits, Walter must fight through a chaotic kitchen, insomnia, illegible handwriting, and drunkenness to deliver sanity to co-workers and shrimp scampi to table 16. To be victorious, Walter must carry his comrades through conflict and himself through a struggle to resolve inner vulnerabilities. Diasporic Choices Renata

Seredynska-Abou Eid, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2013. This volume examines the complex and interdisciplinary issue of diaspora in the context of globalisation and contributing social, historical, and cultural factors of the modern world. Each chapter offers a distinct point of view and a particular way of understanding diasporas in numerous cultures and societies in different parts of the globe. The collection consists of a series of detailed analyses of aspects ranging from diasporic representations in the cinema, literature, and poetry to diasporic projections in current socio-political and international matters. Each chapter provides an individual examination of a particular aspect of diaspora in order to frame a bigger picture of modern diasporic choices. Emotion, Place and Culture Mick Smith, Liz

Bondi, 2016-05-06 Recent years have witnessed a rapid rise in engagement with emotion and affect across a broad range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, with geographers among others making a significant contribution by examining the emotional intersections between people and places. Building on the achievements of Emotional Geographies (2005), the editors have brought together leading scholars such as Nigel Thrift, Alphonso Lingis, and Frances Dyson, as well as young up and coming academics from a diverse range of disciplines to investigate feelings and affect in various spatial and social contexts environments and landscapes The book is divided into five sections covering the themes of remembering understanding mourning belonging and enchanting Precarious Flânerie and the Ethics of the Self in Contemporary Anglophone Fiction Eva Ries,2022-06-21 Even though the literary trope of the fl neur has been proclaimed dead on several occasions it still proves particularly lively in contemporary Anglophone fiction This study investigates how fl nerie takes a belated ethical turn in its more recent manifestations by negotiating models of ethical subjectivity Drawing on Michel Foucault s writings on the aesthetics of existence as well as Judith Butler s notion of precariousness as conditio humana it establishes a link between post sovereign models of subject formation and a paradoxical constellation of fl nerie which surfaces most prominently in the work of Walter Benjamin By means of detailed readings of Ian McEwan s Saturday Siri Hustvedt s The Blindfold Teju Cole s Open City Dionne Brand s What We All Long For and Robin Robertson s The Long Take Or a Way to Lose More Slowly this book traces how the ambivalence of fl nerie and its textual representation produces ethical norms while at the same time propagating the value of difference by means of disrupting societal norms of sameness Precarious Fl nerie and the Ethics of the Self in Contemporary Anglophone Fiction thus shows that the fl nerie text becomes a medium of ethical critique in post postmodern times Spiritual Warrior Part II B. T. Swami,2022-01-01 Spiritual Warrior Part II by author Bhakti Tirtha Swami continues the inspiring journey of a dedicated spiritual seeker turned leader This autobiographical work delves deeper into the author s spiritual evolution profound encounters with wisdom and tireless efforts in promoting unity and compassion Part II offers valuable insights into the transformative power of faith resilience and devotion inspiring readers to embark on their own spiritual quests with renewed vigor and purpose A Book of Evidence Nancy L. Kuehl,2013-03-08 Jesus was a Jew living in a Jewish culture and under Jewish laws laws that governed the people of Israel at a time of conflict with their Roman overlords A Book of Evidence takes into consideration the history of first century Jerusalem and is a unique presentation of the passion event written from a Jewish legal standpoint Find out why and how Jesus came to trial how the politics of the age and a corrupt government played a role in bringing him to death An examination of the numerous crimes of which Jesus was accused results in a reasonable explanation of the real blasphemy that caused him to be executed and an investigation into crucifixion as it was known during first century Jewish law Was the Jewish trial legal Was it a trial at all Was there a Roman trial or a simple hearing Where was the real execution site and burial tomb All these questions are answered in this gripping book Follow step by step along the path of Jesus during the Passover from the Garden of Gethsemane through the trials to the brutality of the execution and on to the garden tomb at Bethphage from which he was resurrected The Urban Condition: Literary Trajectories through Canada's Postmetropolis Eva Darias-Beautell,2019-04-30 Examining the centrality of the city in Canadian literary production post 1960 this collection of critical essays presents an interdisciplinary representation of the urban from a variety of backgrounds and perspectives By analysing contemporary Canadian literature in English the contributors intend to produce not only an alternative picture of the national literary traditions but also fresh articulations of the relationship between Canadian identity citizenship and nation Since the 1960s metropolitan regions across the world have experienced radical transformation For critical urban studies scholars this phenomenon has been described as a restructuring This study argues that in Canada this restructuring has been accompanied by a literary rearrangement of its canon consisting of a gradual shift of focus from the wild or rural to the urban Alluding to the changes within contemporary Canadian cities the term postmetropolis locates the contributors shared theoretical framework within a critical postmodern paradigm Centered on a particular selection of poetic or fictional texts each essay pushes the theoretical framework further suggesting the need for new tools of interpretation and analysis This book presents an urban literary portrait of Canada that is both thematically and conceptually coherent Using a range of interdisciplinary methodologies it adeptly navigates a range of urban issues such as surveillance asylum diaspora mobility the queer and the post political This book will be of interest to those studying or working on Canadian literature both in Canada and internationally as well as to those scholars engaged in investigations that intersect literature and urban studies
