Would you like to know God's will more clearly? You want to follow God's will but sometimes knowing what that is seems hard to figure out. Here at last is a straightforward approach to being able to recognize God's will in your life to know with more certainty the good things He has for you, what He wants you to do, and how you can live your life with more purpose, joy, significance, and blessing. Daniel Kolenda has been actively serving the Lord since he was a teen. God has given him keen insights through Scripture and his own experiences that will help you discover and follow God's will. You'll discover practical truths that will enable you to hear His voice with more clarity and be able to make important decisions with more confidence and assurance. Start living in a way that lines up with God's favor. He WANTS TO BLESS YOU. With advice that is both practical and inspiring, Daniel reveals five secrets to discovering God's will: How to start moving in the right direction; What to do when God says wait; How to stay in the will of God. He also answers the following questions: How do I recognize God's will? What if God calls me to do something I don't want to do? What if I've already missed the will of God? If I encounter resistance, does that mean I'm out of God's will? How do I get from where I am now to where God wants me to be? What should I do now while seeking God's will? What if I've been waiting for a long time? How do I stay in the will of God? Whether your journey takes you to the mission field or medical school, whether you become a construction worker, stay at home mom, businessman, teacher, chef, or pastor, YOU can experience the wonder of God's will for your life and live His adventure for you. It's time to go for it.

The Generation of 1914 Robert WOHL, Robert Wohl, 2009-06-30 The generation of 1914 holds a special place in memory, affection, and myth. In this irresistible and moving book, Robert Wohl rescues it from the shadows of legend and brings it fully into the realm of understanding. He tells the story of the young men, the middle-class elite of five European countries: France, Germany, England, Spain, and Italy, to recreate the generational consciousness that united them as well as the unique national experience that made them different. These were men born at the end of the nineteenth century when the world of reason was disintegrating into a world of irrationality. They were destined to rule, but their lives were interrupted by the greatest of wars, leaving them searching for identity and historical continuity. Wohl recaptures this search through novels, poems, autobiographies, memoirs, sociological treatises, philosophical essays, university lectures, political speeches, conversations, when recorded, letters, personal notebooks, and newspaper articles. His book is a brilliant study of European mentalities, both collective and individual. Probing behind ideas to find the experience that inspired them, Wohl illuminates in unexpected ways the origins of World War I and its impact on its participants. His exploration of the consciousness of generational unity and the power of the generational bond enables him to place in a novel context the spread of pessimism and despair, the waning of liberal and humanitarian values, the rise of Communist and Fascist movements, and the sudden eruption of violence in Europe's progressive countries between the two world wars.

To Die in Cuba
Louis A. Pérez Jr., 2012-12-01 For much of the nineteenth century and all of the twentieth the per capita rate of suicide in Cuba was the highest in Latin America and among the highest in the world a condition made all the more extraordinary in light of Cuba's historic ties to the Catholic church In this richly illustrated social and cultural history of suicide in Cuba Louis A. Pérez Jr. explores the way suicide passed from the unthinkable to the unremarkable in Cuban society In a study that spans the experiences of enslaved Africans and indentured Chinese in the colony nationalists of the twentieth century republic and emigrants from Cuba to Florida following the 1959 revolution Pérez finds that the act of suicide was loaded with meanings that changed over time Analyzing the social context of suicide he argues that in addition to confirming despair suicide sometimes served as a way to consecrate patriotism affirm personal agency or protest injustice The act was often seen by suicidal persons and their contemporaries as an entirely reasonable response to circumstances of affliction whether economic political or social Bringing an important historical perspective to the study of suicide Perez offers a valuable new understanding of the strategies with which vast numbers of people made their way through life if only to choose to end it To Die in Cuba ultimately tells as much about Cubans lives culture and society as it does about their self inflicted deaths

The World and the Parish Willa Cather,1970-01-01 One of the few really helpful words I ever heard from an older writer Willa Cather declared in 1922 I had from Sarah Orne Jewett when she said to me Of course one day you will write about your own country In the meantime get all you can One must know the world so well before one can know the parish Although Cather s first novel about her own country O Pioneers did not appear until 1913 the process of knowing the world and of mastering her craft so far as it can be traced in her published writing already had been going on for some twenty years The World and the Parish Willa Cather s Articles and Reviews 1893 1902 is the fourth in a series collecting the work of these years of experiment and discovery More specifically it offers a representative collection of Cather s nonfiction writing for newspapers and periodicals during her first decade as a professional writer Selected from 520 articles and columns the text is divided into three parts corresponding to major developments in Cather s career the period from 1893 to 1896 when she first began to write regularly for Lincoln newspapers the years in Pittsburgh when she was working for the Home Monthly and the Leader and sending her famous Passing Show column back to Nebraska and the period from the spring of 1900 to 1903 when she freelanced in Pittsburgh and Washington taught in a Pittsburgh high school and made her first trip abroad The text has been edited with three main objectives 1 to enable the reader to trace Cather s development as a writer 2 to group the material so that the reader interested in a particular subject the theatre or music or literature for example can readily locate pertinent selections and 3 to provide a context sufficient to relate these pieces to Willa Cather s life and to the times and to suggest some of their connections with the body of her work Chronologies have been included for each of the three parts and the Bibliography is the most complete yet available for the for the nonfiction writing up to 1903 Not the least remarkable feature of this collection is the range and variety of forms and subject matter reviews of books plays operas concerts art exhibits lectures feature stories interviews straight reportage columns of miscellaneous comment and travel letters Seemingly with no apparent effort Willa Cather could adjust her sights to any assignment and any audience And if it is astonishing that she could write so much about so many matters at so many levels it is perhaps even more astonishing that so much of it was so good Undeniably however the chief interest to the general reader and the peculiar value to the scholar of these journalistic writings reside in their manifold and crucial connections with Cather s later work and in the unparalleled insights they afford into the process by which a gifted writer becomes a great artist 50 Masterpieces you have to read before you die Thomas Hardy,Emily Bronte,Lyman Frank Baum,Rudyard Kipling,Daniel Defoe,Leo Tolstoy,Robert Louis Stevenson,Charles Dickens,Homer,Aleksandr Pushkin,Arthur Conan Doyle,Herbert Wells,Oscar Wilde,William Shakespeare,Fyodor Dostoevsky,Nathaniel Hawthorne,Walter Scott,Frances Hodgson Burnett,Mark Twain,2020-01-14 50

Generation, 1950 Gathering the NeXt Generation Nathan Humphrey, 2000-06-26 This collection of essays was written by a group of priests that are relatively rare in the Episcopal Church priests under 35 years of age In 1997 only 296

Episcopal clergy were from the group commonly known as Generation X they comprise only 3.5% of the ordained people in full time ministry in the Church. Inspired by that statistic some GenX priests and seminarians organized a conference called Gathering the NeXt Generation which was held at Virginia Theological Seminary in June 1997. These essays while not the actual papers given at the conference are the result of that conversation and the ones that continue among GenX priests in the Episcopal Church. The range of issues for GenX priests and for their ministry into the new millennium are important ones for the whole church. As we approach a clergy shortage due to retirements in the Episcopal Church will we continue to discourage young men and women from entering the ordination process asking them to come back when they have some life experience. Some contributors also consider new models of ministry the return of the concept of curacy the possibilities for bivocational ministry and the renewal of campus ministry. Others help us look through the eyes of GenX priests and parishioners including those who are Black or pregnant and see the Church through a very different lens. For all who care about the future of the Episcopal Church this volume written in the voices of those who will be our future is a must read. Contributors include J. Scott Barker, Jennifer Lynn Baskerville, Daniel Emerson Hall, N. J. A. Humphrey, Richard Kew, Jamie L. Enfant, Christopher Martin, Beth Maynard, Kate Moorehead, Benjamin Shambaugh, Rock H. Schuler, Margaret K. Schwarzer and Nancy Vogeley.
