When Marina Abramovic Dies A Biography James Westcott:

When Marina Abramovic Dies James Westcott, 2014-08-29 The extraordinary life and death defying work of one of the most important and pioneering performance artists in contemporary art When Marina Abramovi Dies examines the extraordinary life and death defying work of one of the most pioneering artists of her generation and one who is still at the forefront of contemporary art today This intimate critical biography chronicles Abramovi s formative and until now undocumented years in Yugoslavia and tells the story of her partnership with the German artist Ulay one of the twentieth century s great examples of the fusion of artistic and private life In one of many long durational performances in the renewed solo career that followed Abramovi famously lived in a New York gallery for twelve days without eating or speaking nourished only by prolonged eye contact with audience members It was here in 2002 that author James Westcott first encountered her beginning an exceptionally close relation between biographer and subject When Marina Abramovi Dies draws on Westcott s personal observations of Abramovi his unprecedented access to her archive and hundreds of hours of interviews he conducted with the artist and the people closest to her The result is a unique and vivid portrait of the charismatic self proclaimed grandmother of performance art Silence, Sounds, Music Florian Freitag, Laura Katharina Mücke, Peter Niedermüller, 2025-02-20 This book examines the intersections of silence with immersive arts and experiences Silence and immersion may seem antithetical while immersion is supposedly induced by acoustic and other stimuli silence is commonly understood as the absence or opposite of sound Since the eighteenth century however silence has been established as a multifarious and polyvalent cultural concept Immersion in turn though often used as a simple all inclusive term has old and complex ontological and epistemological roots Organized into three parts this book brings critical historical and theoretical debates on silence into dialogue with different notions of immersion The 16 theoretical articles and case studies engage in discovering and questioning the continued prominence of both concepts in aesthetics culture and media Covering music film digital visual and performance art theater video games and theme parks the chapters discuss both highly canonical and rarely examined artifacts Written by scholars from Germany Austria France and Switzerland the interdisciplinary collection includes perspectives from musicology film studies cultural and media studies gender studies art history and philosophy Silence Sounds Music addresses both an academic and a wider audience It will be of interest to anyone interested in music sound immersive experiences the so called experience economy and contemporary art and culture

Marina Abramović Marina Abramović, Klaus Biesenbach, Klaus Peter Biesenbach, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2010 Since the beginning of her career in Belgrade in the late 1960s Marina Abramovic has been a pioneer of performance art creating some of the most important works in the field Marina Abramovic The Artist is Present accompanies an exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art that documents approximately fifty of the artist s ephemeral time and media based works from throughout her career The book will also discuss a unique element of the Museum s retrospective live performance a new work created for the occasion and performed by the artist herself and recreations of Abramovic's works by other performers the first such to be undertaken in a museum setting The book spans over four decades of Abramovic's early interventions and sound pieces video works installations photographs solo performances and collaborative performances made with the Dutch artist Ulay Uwe Laysiepen Its essays examine Abramovic's ideas of time duration and the reperformance of performance art as a way to extend it into posterity Marina Abramovic also includes a CD an audio recording of the artist's own voice guiding the reader through the publication The artist is present not only in the exhibition but also in the experience of the book

Feminist Figure Girl Lianne McTavish, 2015-01-08 Feminist Figure Girl chronicles the transformation of art history professor Lianne McTavish from a university professor into an extraordinarily tanned and crystal encrusted bikini wearing figure girl Figure competitions seek a softer appearance than traditional forms of bodybuilding but still require rigorous weightlifting an extreme protein diet and many hours of posing in high heels While training for a figure show McTavish combined autoethnographic methods participant observation and feminist theory to find new ways of thinking about physique culture and the female body The author who specializes in critical visual culture and the history of the body explores such contemporary issues as body image fat studies identity politics and postfeminism while rethinking fitness culture diet regimes feminist politics reproductive activism performance art and the social function of photography Written in a lively personal style reminiscent of McTavish's popular blog she clearly explains the complex ideas stemming from the theoretical work of such writers as Judith Butler Simone de Beauvoir Michel Foucault Iris Marion Young Edmund Husserl and Maurice Merleau Ponty The book also includes many photos documenting McTavish's physical transformation

Performances of Authorial Presence and Absence Silvija Jestrovic, 2020-06-22 This book takes Roland Barthes's famous proclamation of The Death of the Author as a starting point to investigate concepts of authorial presence and absence on various levels of text and performance By offering a new understanding of the author as neither a source of unquestioned authority nor an obsolete construct but rather as a performative figure the book illuminates wide ranging aesthetic and political aspects of authorial death by asking how is the author constructed through cultural and political imaginaries and erasures intertextual and intertheatrical references re performances and self referentiality And what are the politics and ethics of these constructions

Powers of Two Joshua Wolf Shenk, 2014-08-05 The power of collaboration from Lennon and McCartney to Wozniak and Jobs An inspiring book that also happens to be a great read Daniel H Pink author of Drive Throughout history partners have buoyed each other to better work though often one member is little known to the general public See Warren Buffett and Charlie Munger or Vincent and Theo van Gogh Powers of Two draws on neuroscience social psychology and cultural history to present the social foundations of creativity with the pair as its primary embodiment Revealing the six essential stages through which creative intimacy unfolds this book shows how pairs begin to talk think and even look like each other how the most successful ones thrive on conflict and why some cease to work together while others

carry on At once intuitive and deeply surprising Powers of Two will reshape the way you view individuals relationships and society itself A rare glimpse into the private realms of duos A natural storyteller The New York Times A book about magic about the Beatles about the chemistry between people about neuroscience and about the buddy system it examines love and hate harmony and dissonance and everything in between Wise funny surprising and completely engrossing Susan Orlean We sometimes think of creativity as coming from brilliant loners In fact it more often happens when bright people pair up and complement each other Shenk s fascinating book shows how to spark the power of this phenomenon Walter Isaacson Surprising compelling Shenk banishes the idea of solitary genius by demonstrating that our richest art and science come from collaboration we need one another not only for love but also for thinking and imagining and growing and being Andrew Solomon

The Feminist Challenge to the Socialist State in Yugoslavia Zsófia Lóránd, 2018-09-27 This book tells the story of new Yugoslav feminism in the 1970s and 1980s reassessing the effects of state socialism on women s emancipation through the lens of the feminist critique This volume explores the history of the ideas defining a social movement analysing the major debates and arguments this milieu engaged in from the perspective of the history of political thought intellectual history and cultural history Twenty five years after the end of the Cold War societies in and scholars of East Central Europe still struggle to sort out the effects of state socialism on gender relations in the region What could tell us more about the subject than the ideas set out by the only organised and explicitly feminist opposition in the region who as academics artists writers and activists criticised the regime and demanded change

The Photofilmic Brianne Cohen, Alexander Streitberger, 2016-02-03 Mapping the possibilities of photofilmic images This book explores the multifarious ways in which art cinema and other forms of visual culture respond to a digitized and networked world Traditional discourses on medium specificity developed in distinct disciplines often fail to provide an adequate description of the transformations that photography and film have undergone The essays written by internationally renowned scholars encompass a broad range of different forms such as video documentary film cinema photography and the Internet as well as varied fields such as art history film studies photography theory visual culture studies and media theory In this way they deal with heterogeneous practices or techniques ranging from panoramas drone surveillance tableau vivant press coverage computer based editing digitized financial markets and various concepts such as temporality and contemporaneity eco aesthetics and forensic practice countervisuality human rights and political imagination social transparency and control thus charting the possibilities of the continuous border crossing movement between photographic and filmic images within contemporary art and visual culture This volume also contains as an artist s contribution a substantial and richly illustrated interview with Eric Baudelaire Contributors Eric Baudelaire Paris Brianne Cohen Amherst College Stefanie Diekmann University of Hildesheim Evgenia Giannouri Paris 3 Sorbonne Nouvelle Lilian Haberer University of Cologne Jana J Haeckel UCL gnes Peth Sapientia University of Transylvania Romania Eivind Rossaak National Library of Norway Linda Sch dler ETH Zurich Terry Smith
