Importance of Patients' Satisfaction

As you join our reputable Health Facility, I would like to bring you to your attention to the importance of patients' satisfaction. You should know that if you satisfy one patient needs the information reaches others and eventually builds our patient's loyalty.

Having proper communication and courtesy to our patients also leads to improved patient retention. They are will definitely come back or refer their colleagues, friends or relatives. If your treat the customer poorly, they are likely to spread the bad experience to others.

As medical professionals, I would also like to remind you that at all times, you should prioritize handling our customers with the utmost hospitality so that we emerge the winners in the price war. When a patient is handled well we are likely to command higher prices without losing them to our competitors.

Handling the customer with professional satisfaction creates a friendly working environment where the nurse is happy the patient is happy too and this creates a personal level of trust.

Finally, I would like to bring to your attention that customer satisfaction is our number one rule as health practitioners. Hence, we handle our clients in directly linked to reimbursements within our health facility. Our business, therefore, depends on patients' satisfaction.

Thank you
