Revolution and Genocide Robert Melson,1996-06 In a study that compares the major attempts at genocide in world history Robert Melson creates a sophisticated framework that links genocide to revolution and war He focuses on the plights of Jews after the fall of Imperial Germany and of Armenians after the fall of the Ottoman as well as attempted genocides in the Soviet Union and Cambodia He argues that genocide often is the end result of a complex process that starts when revolutionaries smash an old regime and in its wake try to construct a society that is pure according to ideological standards Handbook of Globalisation and Tourism Dallen J.

Timothy,2019-12-27 Globalization entails the world becoming a smaller place through political socio cultural and economic processes These processes have salient implications for tourism and tourism itself is one of the driving forces behind globalization This book is a collection of conceptual treatises by international scholars about the dynamics and reach of globalization and its relationships with tourism It anatomizes and deconstructs the global forces processes and challenges that face the world of tourism It is international in scope encyclopedic in its conceptual depth empirically evocative and contemporary in its coverage
