Solutions for Business, Culture and Religion in Eastern Europe and Beyond Sebastian Văduva, Ioan Ș. Fotea, Andrew R. Thomas, 2017-10-26 This book explores the increased necessity of organizations to encourage human talent in the globalized economy with particular emphasis on the impact in Eastern Europe Featuring contributions presented at the 7th Annual Griffiths School of Management International Conference on Business and Ethics GSMAC organized by Emanuel University of Oradea this book presents in depth analysis of the economic social and religious implications of the transition from low cost of labor to increased human talent in Eastern Europe and offers multiple theoretical and practical solutions In 2004 Klaus Schwab president and founder of the World Economic Forum stated that the old era of capitalism and socialism is being replaced by a new era of talentism The true competitive advantage of organizations and nations is increasingly becoming human talent defined as the ability to have new ideas that have value Nations and organizations are exploring ways to reform their education systems and organizational structures in order to train foster and encourage human talent In Eastern Europe since the fall of communism in 1989 the competitive advantage of the region has been low cost of labor However since the integration within the European Union millions of Eastern Europeans have left their home countries rendering the low wage competitive advantage almost obsolete In addition the migration of able working individuals has left behind mainly children and pensioners placing a disproportionately heavy burden upon public and government services It is within this context that the contents of this book explore the impact of the increased need of high human talent on Eastern European countries Featuring contributions around topics such as poverty healthcare management cross border cooperation education systems and religious influence on economic development this book will be of interest of scholars researchers students and policy makers interested in the business development and economic growth of Eastern Europe Diverse Issues in Higher Education ,2006 Economica ,1994 Who's who in Economics Mark Blaug, 1999 This standard reference text is a guide to economists both past and present who have made a substantial contribution to the subject It provides biographical bibliographical and critical information on over 1000 living economists and approximately 500 deceased economists Vietnam Economic Review ,2001 Silk Road to Belt Road Md. Nazrul Islam, 2018-11-30 This volume approaches China's Belt and Road Initiative as a process of culturalization one that started with the Silk Road and continued over the millennium In mainstream literature the Belt and Road Initiative BRI has been portrayed as the geo economic vision and geo political ambition of China's current leaders intended to shape the future of the world However this volume argues that although geo politics and geo economy may play their part the BRI more importantly creates a venue for the meeting of cultures by promoting people to people interaction and exchange This volume explores the journey from the Silk Road to Belt Road by analyzing topics ranging from history to religion from language to culture and from environment to health As such scholars academics researchers undergraduate and graduate students from the Humanities Social Sciences and Business will find an alternative approach to the Belt and Road Initiative The Portuguese Economy Towards 1992 João Ferreira do Amaral, Diogo Lucena, António S. Mello, 2012-12-06 Proceedings of a Conference Sponsored by Junta Nacional de Investiga o Científica and Banco de Portugal The Economics of International Integration Miroslav N. Jovanović, 2007-01-01 International economic integration has played a significant part in economic policy decisions for most countries and regions throughout the world over decades This text looks at why the success of integration schemes has been so variable and what the prospects are for integration in the future The United States and Venezuela Janet Kelly de Escobar, Carlos A. Romero, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Agile Business Leadership Methods for Industry 4.0 Bülent Akkaya, 2020-10-05 Agile Business Leadership Methods for Industry 4.0 is a collection of innovative research on new leadership styles that will develop agile managers and business leaders who can improve company success in the fast paced environments created by Industry 4.0 Heterodox Challenges in Economics Sergio Cesaratto, 2020-11-12 This book discloses the economic foundations of European fiscal and monetary policies by introducing readers to an array of alternative approaches in economics It presents various heterodox theories put forward by classical economists Marx Sraffa and Keynes as a coherent challenge to neo classical theory The book underscores and critically assesses the analytical inconsistencies of European economic policy and the conservative nature of the current European governance In this light it examines the political obstacles to proposals to reform the European monetary union as well as those originating in the neo mercantilist German model Given its scope and format the book offers a valuable asset for researchers and members of the general public alike Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04 DHHS Publication , 1980 Journal of Economic Literature , 2005 America's Role in the World Coal Export Market United States.
