Helm, Sallee Beneke, 2003 This timely volume will help teachers on the front line to tackle the challenges they face in today's classrooms with children ages 3-8. The authors show how good project work can provide solutions to problems that seem overwhelming to many teachers of young children. They offer practical strategies with examples to maximize the benefits of project work in classrooms where teachers face these 5 key challenges: Overcoming the ill effects of poverty; Moving young children towards literacy; Responding to children's special needs; Helping children learn a second language; Meeting standards effectively. Teachers can respond to challenges and at the same time help to set the foundations for the children's future by incorporating good project work into the early childhood curriculum. Excerpt from chapter by Lilian G. Katz: Those committed to excellence in the teaching of young children will find the specific methods needed in this work. The teacher practices that increase achievement are all here. Martin Haberman, author of Star Teachers of Children in Poverty. Answer to the Pelagians Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1999 Augustine was writing the Unfinished Work in Answer to Julian published in this volume when he died in August 430. The Unfinished Work is a rebuttal of Julian of Eclanum's To Florus, an eight-book text in defense of Pelagianism which had by then been officially condemned by the Church. Augustine and Julian had previously written responses to excerpts of one another's work though not in direct correspondence. In Unfinished Work however Augustine writes as though speaking to Julian directly, making for an engaging and clear read. He quotes each point of To Florus to which he responds so the reader gains a comprehensive picture of his opponent's views. Once again Augustine defends grace as a gift from God and Jesus as the savior of all humanity.
