were in the Rat Pack Who wrote the first computer program What is unique about the Trump presidency If History doesn't repeat itself but it often rhymes as Mark Twain is reputed to have said then The Handy History Answer Book is a lyrical and poetic treat Clear concise and straightforward this informative primer is a resource for brushing up on the events terms and history makers many of us remember from school but can't completely recall Wide ranging and comprehensive with nearly 250 illustrations this information rich tome also includes a helpful bibliography and an extensive index adding to its usefulness A perfect companion for history buffs of all ages Telling America's Story to the World Harilaos Stecopoulos, 2022-10-06 Telling America's Story to the World argues that state and state affiliated cultural diplomacy contributed to the making of postwar US literature Highlighting the role of liberal internationalism in US cultural outreach Harilaos Stecopoulos contends that the state mainly sent authors like Ralph Ellison Robert Frost William Faulkner Langston Hughes and Maxine Hong Kingston overseas not just to demonstrate the achievements of US civilization but also to broadcast an American commitment to international cross cultural connection Those writers cum ambassadors may not have helped the state achieve its propaganda goals indeed this rarely proved the case but they did find their assignments an opportunity to ponder the international meanings and possibilities of US literature For many of those figures courting foreign publics inspired a reevaluation of the scope and form of their own literary projects Testifying to the inadvertent yet integral role of cultural diplomacy in the worlding of US letters works like The Mansion 1959 Life Studies 1959 Cultural Exchange 1961 1967 Tripmaster Monkey His Fake Book 1989 and Three Days Before the Shooting 2010 reimagine US literature in a mobile global and distinctly political register U.S. Officials and the Fall of the Shah Jean-Charles Brotons, 2012-07-10 Unlike the dominant trend in cognitive approach to foreign policy the approach in this book is not guided by reflections in psychology Like part of Jervis's work it is inspired by reflections concerning the philosophy of science yet not by Kuhn's or those of its most well known critics but by some more recent and formal reflections known as the AGM theory The AGM theory proposed in the 1980's by Alchourrón Gärdenfors and Makinson is the core of a most dynamic branch of logic focusing on belief change It has produced impressive formal results with echoes in artificial intelligence database management and decision and game theory This book shows how it can be used in political science The book includes three parts Part One is a twenty page review of the AGM theory avoiding a number of pitfalls inaccuracies and misunderstandings that are common elsewhere Part Two is a review of U S Iranian relations under the reign of the last shah focusing on the last years of monarchy and including an unconventional interpretation of U S intelligence performance in 1978 The essential part is Part Three where an AGM model is tested and intriguing results obtained in connection with U S perceptions of the Iranian revolution Narratives of Migrant and Refugee Discrimination in New Zealand Angela McCarthy, 2022-08-31 This book explores the question of whether the conceptualisation of New Zealand as a welcoming nation is accurate Examining historical and contemporary narratives of migrant and refugee discrimination it considers the economic social political cultural and historical contexts from which discrimination emerges and its repercussions Alert to race and ethnicity gender age class religion and inter ethnic migrant conflict this volume traverses an array of discriminatory practices including xenophobia racism and sectarianism and responses to them With rich evidence fascinating new insights and engagement comparatively and transnationally with global themes of exploitation exclusion and inequalities Narratives of Migrant and Refugee Discrimination in New Zealand will appeal to scholars across the humanities and social sciences with interests in migration and diaspora studies race and ethnicity and refugee studies     Advancing Social Justice Through Clinical Practice Etiony Aldarondo,2007 Advancing Social Justice Through Clinical Practice is a comprehensive volume that bridges the gap between the psychosocial realities of clients and the dominant clinical practices The book s contributors include social workers family therapists clinical psychologists community psychologists and counseling psychologists Its accessible writing style makes it valuable to students studying the field     University Bulletin University of California, Berkeley,1963     The Handbook of Sexuality in Close Relationships John H. Harvey,Amy Wenzel,Susan Sprecher,2004-04-26 Although sexuality is an integral part of close romantic relationships research linking these two constructs has been less systematic than other areas pertaining to close relationships To date researchers in communication sociology family studies psychology and psychiatry have made significant advances in both of these fields The editors goal is to integrate this research into one volume They bring together major scholars from the diversity of fields working on close relationship topics to examine past contributions and new directions in sexuality The emphasis is on theoretical integration and stimulation methodological rigor and critical analysis This volume explores early sexual experiences and their impact on late life sexuality how life s stresses impact sexuality and satisfaction with closeness the affect of postpartum depression on sexuality and the relationship between control power anger as well as revenge and sexual processes in couples The Handbook of Sexuality in Close Relationships is intended for students and researchers in the disciplines of social clinical developmental and health psychology family studies counseling and interpersonal family and health communication An excellent reference in advanced courses in close relationships taught in psychology communications sociology anthropology and family studies the material in Part V will also appeal to clinical psychologists health professionals and policymakers     General Series National Bureau of Economic Research,1951
