Family Literacy Programs Under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and the Workforce,1999      Lifetime Effects Lawrence J. Schweinhart,2005      Why Youth is Not Wasted on the Young David F. Bjorklund,2009-02-04 Why Youth is Not Wasted on the Young examines the nature of childhood through an evolutionary lens and argues that childhood is an essential stage of development with its own unique purposes separate from those of adulthood a time of growth and discovery that should not be rushed Written by a renowned developmental psychologist Examines the role that our period of immaturity plays on the social emotional and educational needs of today s children Challenges common perceptions of children as simply adults in training      Handbook of Research on the Education of Young Children Bernard Spodek,Olivia N. Saracho,2014-01-27 The Handbook of Research on the Education of Young Children is the essential reference on research on early childhood education throughout the world This singular resource provides a comprehensive overview of important contemporary issues as well as the information necessary to make informed judgments about these issues The field has changed significantly since the publication of the second edition and this third edition of the handbook takes care to address the entirety of vital new developments A valuable tool for all those who work and study in the field of early child      Budget of the United States Government United States. Office of Management and Budget,2014      Success in Early Intervention Arthur J. Reynolds,2000-01-01 This book is a valuable source of information on the long term effects of early intervention programs on the education of children living in economically disadvantaged areas and in other contexts Early intervention programs such as Head Start enjoy popular and legislative support but until now policymakers and practitioners have lacked hard data on the long term consequences of such locally and federally mandated efforts Success in Early Intervention focuses on the Child Parent Center CPC program in Chicago the second oldest after Head Start federally funded early childhood intervention program Begun in 1967 the program currently operates out of twenty four centers which are located in proximity to the elementary schools they serve The CPC program s unique features include mandatory parental involvement and a single sustained educational system that spans preschool through the third grade Central to this study is a 1986 cohort of nearly twelve hundred CPC children and a comparison group of low income children whose subsequent activities challenges and achievements are followed through the age of fifteen The lives of these children amply demonstrate the positive long term educational and social consequences of the CPC program
