The Island A Dystopian Novella The Island Series English Edition:

Islands, Identity and the Literary Imagination Elizabeth McMahon, 2016-07-09 Australia is the planet's sole island continent. This book argues that the uniqueness of this geography has shaped Australian history and culture including its literature. Further, it shows how the fluctuating definition of the island continent throws new light on the relationship between islands and continents in the mapping of modernity. The book links the historical and geographical conditions of islands with their potent role in the imaginaries of European colonisation. It prises apart the tangled web of geography, fantasy, desire and writing that has framed the Western understanding of islands both their real and material conditions and their symbolic power from antiquity into globalised modernity. The book also traces how this spatial imaginary has shaped the modern man who is imagined as being the island's mirror. The interrelationship of the island, fantasy, colonial expansion and the literary construction of place and history created a new man, the dislocated and alienated subject of post-colonial modernity. This book looks at the contradictory images of islands from the allure of the desert island as a paradise where the world can be made anew to their roles as prisons as these ideas are made concrete at moments of British colonialism. It also considers alternatives to viewing islands as objects of possession in the archipelagic visions of island theorists and writers. It compares the European understandings of the first and last of the new worlds, the Caribbean archipelago and the Australian island continent to calibrate the different ways these disparate geographies unified and fractured the concept of the planetary globe. In particular, it examines the role of the island in this process, specifically its capacity to figure a graspable globe in the mind. The book draws on the colonial archive and ranges across Australian literature from the first novel written and published in Australia by a convict on the island of Tasmania to both the ancient dreaming and the burgeoning literature of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders in the twenty-first century. It discusses Australian literature in an international context, drawing on the long traditions of literary islands across a range of cultures. The book's approach is theoretical and engages with contemporary philosophy which uses the island and the archipelago as a key metaphor. It is also historicist and includes considerable original historical research.

Perfect Worlds Douwe Wessel Fokkema, 2011 Perfect Worlds offers an extensive historical analysis of utopian narratives in the Chinese and Euro-American traditions. This comparative study discusses among other things More's criticism of Plato, the European orientalist search for utopia in China, Wells's Modern Utopia and his talk with Stalin, Chinese writers constructing their Confucianist utopia, traces of Daoism in Mao Zedong's utopianism and politics, and finally the rise of dystopian writing as a negative expression of the utopian impulse in Europe and America as well as in China. P. 4 of cover.

Shadow Of Time Jen Minkman, 2012-12-13 All Hannah needs is a nice and quiet vacation after her first year of doing an internship teaching Spanish at a high school. She joins her twin brother Ben for the summer in their mom's log cabin in Arizona. There she meets Josh again, Ben's childhood friend from the Navajo reservation. The little boy from the rez has grown up fast and Hannah can't help but feeling more for him than just friendship. But fate apparently has something else in store for her And it s not peace and quiet Night after night Hannah is plagued by strange nightmares about the past of Navajo Nation and terrifying shadows chasing her They seem to come closer and why is Josh always present in her dreams Sometimes the past has a way of catching up with you UPDATED VERSION FULL STORY NO CLIFFHANGERS

Suzanne Collins Marcia Amidon Lusted,2012-08-01 The Hunger Games trilogy spread like wildfire says Annmarie Powers a teacher in Croton on Hudson N Y in a statement to USA TODAY the Nation s No 1 Newspaper The teacher explained that the books written by author Suzanne Collins deal with themes that teens are consumed with fairness relationships plenty of violence and blood greed hypocrisy subservience and rebellion Collins came up with the storyline one night while channel surfing Images of televised news coverage of the U S led war in Iraq blurred in her mind with scenes from a reality show and sparked an exciting idea What about a story that focused on teens in a fight to the death battle televised live from start to finish Published in 2008 The Hunger Games riveted teens and adults alike Followed by Catching Fire in 2009 and Mockingjay in 2010 each volume became an instant bestseller The books evolved into major motion pictures and Collins went behind the cameras to advise movie makers as her stories were translated onto the big screen Discover the literary and personal influences that helped Collins create one of the most challenging visions of human nature and rebellion

Cubanthropy Iván de la Nuez, 2023-11-07 Cuban art critic and curator Iván de la Nuez explores the effects of the policies that have tried to constrain or liberate Cuba in recent decades in these sparkling essays of cultural criticism Essays on Cuba and the Cuban diaspora on racism and Big Data Guantánamo and Reggaeton soccer and baseball Obama and the Rolling Stones Europe and Donald Trump de la Nuez approaches his criticism with singularity of purpose In Cubanthropy he does not set out to explain Cuba to the world but rather to put the world into a Cuban context Nothing explains our vexed world quite like Cuba and no one anywhere writes more brilliantly more prophetically more impossibly than Iván de la Nuez As in all of his finest work Cubanthropy delivers you beyond your old horizons into a realm of startling possibilities Do not miss this extraordinary book or this extraordinary warlock of a writer Junot Díaz author of This Is How You Lose Her Cubanthropy may just be the smartest writing on Cuba and beyond I've read in ages Insightful unsparing funny and with an unerring eye for the paradoxical Iván de la Nuez has written the definitive compilation on 21st century Cuba Essential reading for all who care about how the past present and future are disturbingly converging on the island and off Cristina García author of forthcoming Vanishing Maps

Students to Soldiers John F. Morris, 2025-04-29 An expansive study of the brutal rites of initiation at elite institutions that shaped young men into military leaders Informed by his own experience as a cadet at West Point John Morris offers the first transnational history of student life at elite military preparatory institutions in Europe and America and the unofficial underground rituals practices and codes that formed a crucial part of the education there Comparing British public schools the monarchical cadet schools in Imperial Germany Austria and Russia and the US Military Academy over the course of the nineteenth and into the twentieth century and the world wars Morris presents critical insights on the unsanctioned methods employed to transform young students into leaders of men Extracurricular traditions including but not limited to severe hazing Morris argues shaped the officers in training much more than their official courses of study He also shows how romantic and sexual relations between boys facilitated the cultivation of hypermasculinity at these institutions Students to Soldiers offers a fascinating glimpse into the lives of the budding military elites of Europe and America both unpacking the arcane rituals that eventually became codified into honored traditions and analyzing their influence over the long term      The Boy From The Woods Jen Minkman,2013-12-01 Julia has been in love with Michael for years He s the hottest guy in school and she can t believe her luck when they finally hit it off during Senior Prom Her dream doesn t last though after a few dates he callously dumps her out of the blue Summer vacation starts with Julia feeling heart broken and miserable But then she rescues Michael in the woods when he has a motorcycle accident in a heavy thunderstorm From that point onward her life is turned upside down Michael has changed completely after the blow to the head that nearly killed him and he wants her back But why is he so different And will she be able to trust him this time around Can the boy who broke your heart ever win it back again      A History of British, Irish and American Literature

Hans-Peter Wagner,2021-10-04 The third revised and enlarged edition contains discussions of British Irish and American literary works up to 2020 Focussing on outstanding writings in prose poetry drama and non fiction the book covers the time from the Anglo Saxon period to the 21st century The feature that makes this literary history unique among its rivals is the coverage of television web series as a particular form of postmodern drama The chapters on recent drama now contain detailed analyses of the development of TV and web series from Britain Ireland and America with extensive discussions of those series now considered classics In addition there are several major innovative features To begin with each century is introduced by a survey of the socio political and cultural backgrounds in which the literary works are embedded Furthermore extensive visual material more than 160 engravings cartoons and paintings has been integrated This visual aspect as well as the introductory sections on art for each century give the reader an excellent idea of the symbiosis between visual and literary representations Further innovative aspects include discussions of non fictional works from literary criticism and theory travel writing historiography and the social sciences analyses of such popular genres as crime fiction science fiction fantasy the Western horror fiction and children s literature footnotes explaining technical and historical terms and events a detailed glossary of literary terms chronological tables for British Anglo Irish and American literatures an updated cut off date 2020 extensive bibliography containing suggestions for further reading      Black British Literature Mark Stein,2004

In this fascinating book Mark Stein examines black British literature centering on a body of work created by British based writers with African South Asian or Caribbean cultural backgrounds Linking black British literature to the bildungsroman genre this study examines the transformative potential inscribed in and induced by a heterogeneous body of texts Capitalizing on their plural cultural attachments these texts portray and purvey the transformation of post imperial Britain Stein locates his wide ranging analysis in both a historical and a literary context He argues that a cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach is essential to understanding post colonial culture and society The book relates black British literature to ongoing debates about cultural diversity and thereby offers a way of reading a highly popular but as yet relatively uncharted field of cultural production With the collapse of its empire with large scale immigration from former colonies and with ever increasing cultural diversity Britain underwent a fundamental makeover in the second half of the twentieth century This volume cogently argues that black British literature is not only a commentator on and a reflector of this makeover but that it is simultaneously an agent that is integral to the processes of cultural and social change Conceptualizing the novel of transformation this comprehensive study of British black literature provides a compelling analytic framework for charting these processes      Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger,2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only form analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world      2025-26 UP TGT/PGT English Practice Book YCT Expert Team , 2025 26 UP TGT PGT English Practice Book 432 795 E This book contains 30 sets of the practice book 15 sets of TGT and 15 sets of PGT

Theorising Literary Islands Ian Kinane,2016-11-16 Theorising Literary Islands is a literary and cultural study of both how and why the trope of the island functions within contemporary popular Robinsonade narratives It traces the development of Western isomania or our obsession with islands from its origins in Daniel Defoe s Robinson Crusoe right up to contemporary Robinsonade texts focusing predominantly on American and European representations of fictionalized Pacific Island topographies in contemporary literature film television and other media Theorising Literary Islands argues that the ubiquity of island landscapes within the popular imagination belies certain ideological and cultural anxieties and posits that the emergence of a Western popular culture tradition can largely be traced through the development of the Robinsonade genre and through early European and American fascination with the Pacific region      Teaching Migration in Literature, Film, and Media Masha Salazkina,Yumna Siddiqi,2025-06-14 People migrate to seek opportunities to unite with family and to escape war persecution poverty and environmental disasters A phenomenon that has real lived effects on individuals and communities migration also carries symbolic ideological significance Its depiction in literature film and other media powerfully shapes worldviews identities attitudes toward migrants and a political landscape that is both local and global It is imperative then to connect the disciplinary and theoretical tools we have for understanding migration and to put them in conversation with students experiences Featuring a wide range of classroom approaches this volume brings together topics that are often taught separately including tourism slavery drug cartels race whiteness settler colonialism the Arab Spring assimilation and disability Readers are introduced to terminology and legal frameworks and to theories of migration in relation to Black studies ethnic studies Asian American studies Latinx studies border studies postcolonial studies and Indigenous studies      Reading Young Adult Literature: A Critical Introduction Carrie Hintz,Eric L.
