idea of building a chapel on the barren island The prisoners band together to create an extraordinary building out of little more than salvaged odds and ends and homemade paints Whilst Emilio s chapel will remain long after the POW camp has been left to the sheep will his love for Rosa survive the hardships of war and separation For Rosa is no longer the girl that he left behind She is being drawn further into the Italian resistance movement and closer to danger as friendships and allegiances are ever complicated by the war Human perseverance and resilience are at the heart of this strong debut and the small Italian chapel remains as it does in reality on the island of Lamb s Holm as a symbol of these qualities
