The Journal Of Art Crime Fall 2014 Volume 1:

Organized Crime on Page and Screen David Geherin, 2024-10-25 Thanks to writers like Mario Puzo filmmakers like Francis Ford Coppola and Martin Scorsese and actors like Al Pacino and James Gandolfini American and Sicilian Mafia characters are well known figures in contemporary popular culture Other powerful organized crime groups appearing in popular media include the Neapolitan Camorra and Mexican drug cartels This book takes a close look at all these examples of organized crime by examining the different ways these organizations and their members have been portrayed in many of our most popular novels movies and TV series and how the gangster figure has evolved from its earliest depictions in a trio of Hollywood films in the 1930s up to the present day Artwashing the Past David W.J. Gill, 2024-10-01 Artwashing the Past Context Matters contributes to the wider discussion about the appropriate due diligence process that should be conducted prior to the acquisition of cultural objects The chapters were written as museums in Europe and North America were facing a series of claims on recently acquired objects in their collections in the light of the photographic dossiers that had been seized from dealers in Switzerland and Greece They engage with some of the recent debates over cultural property that include the Ka Ka Nefer mummy mask currently in the St Louis Art Museum and the Leutwitz Apollo acquired by the Cleveland Museum of Art Two of the essays reflect on the recent and controversial metal detecting finds in England the so called Crosby Garrett helmet and the Lenborough Hoard Korean War Comic Books Leonard Rifas, 2021-04-30 Comic books have presented fictional and fact based stories of the Korean War as it was being fought and afterward Comparing these comics with events that inspired them offers a deeper understanding of the comics industry America's forgotten war and the anti comics movement championed by psychiatrist Fredric Wertham who criticized their brutalization of the imagination Comics both newsstand offerings and government propaganda used fictions to justify the unpopular war as necessary and moral This book examines the dramatization of events and issues including the war's origins germ warfare brainwashing Cold War espionage the nuclear threat African Americans in the military mistreatment of POWs and atrocities Challenges, risks and threats for security in Europe Andreas Kellerhals, Tobias Baumgartner, 2019-12-06 This publication brings together talks from the 11th Network Europe conference The conference explored the conditions for security in 21st century Europe and the key elements of an appropriate security architecture Discussions focused on major security challenges such as cybercrime and migration as well as institutional aspects including the concept of a European army and the role of neutral states in an evolving security landscape The publication features contributions from Vadym Barskyy Tobias Baumgartner Jelena Ceranic Viorel Cibotaru Aleksei Dolzhikov Alena F Douhan Darina Dvornichenko Itay Fishhendler Andreas Kellerhals Verena Murschetz Przemyslaw Saganek Jrgen Scheffran and Attila Vincze Network Europe was founded in 2003 by the Europa Institute at the University of Zurich with support from the Swiss government It serves as a forum for scholarly exchange on legal and political aspects of European integration bringing together researchers from across Europe International Law of Underwater Cultural Heritage Kim Browne, Murray Raff, 2023-01-01 This book brings together three distinct areas of International Law namely Environmental Heritage and Ocean Law to address the international legal protection of historically significant wrecks with particular focus on the environmental hazards they may pose The confluence of Heritage Law and the Law of the Sea with International Environmental Law represents an important development in international governance strategies for the twenty first century in particular those legal and administrative regimes that concern the world s oceans and underwater cultural heritage protection Importantly connections between international legal regimes such as the 1982 Law of the Sea and institutions like the International Maritime Organisation IMO and United Nations Education Scientific Cultural Organisation UNESCO can play a crucial part in governance strategies that involve the regulation of marine pollution and historic shipwrecks

Racism in the Neoliberal Era Randolph Hohle, 2025-08-22 Racism in the Neoliberal Era explains how simple racial binaries like black white are no longer sufficient to explain the persistence of racism capitalism and elite white power The neoliberal era features the largest Black middle class in US history and extreme racial marginalization Racial languages change the meaning of public and private political economy s two fundamental terms Randolph Hohle focuses on how the origins and expansion of neoliberalism depended on a racial language of white private black public The language of neoliberalism explains how the white racial frame operates like a web of racial meanings that connect social groups with economic policy geography and police brutality When America was racially segregated elites consented to political pressure to develop and fund white public institutions The Black civil rights movement eliminated legal barriers that prevented racial integration The elite white response to Black civic inclusion was to deregulate the Voting Rights Act and banking policy Elites gave themselves tax cuts and implemented austerity measures on government programs to aid the poor They privatized neighborhoods schools and social welfare creating markets around poverty They oversaw the mass incarceration and systemic police brutality against people of color Citizenship was recast as a privilege instead of a right Neoliberalism is the result of an elite white meta strategy to maintain political and economic power This new edition is thoroughly revised and updated to take account of the further history and debates over neoliberalism in the Trump and Biden eras and the significant social and political discussions around race and racism policing housing health care and citizenship as they interconnect with the American neoliberal economic and political system The new edition will be a vital textbook for students instructors and researchers in sociology politics race and economics

The Orsay murder club Christos Markogiannakis,2018-10-25 Welcome to the Orsay a former train station turned into a sumptuous museum It is from here that Christos Markogiannakis invites you to embark on a very special journey a journey through history and mythology crossing paths with mass murderers stalkers cursed families cannibals and serial killers Murder is present on every floor in every corner exposing itself through numerous masterpieces as a gruesome form of art Applying the principles of criminology and art history The Orsay Murder Club investigates and interprets a choice of some 30 works of art through a criminartistic lens Created by prestigious artists such as Moreau C zanne Carpeaux and Rodin they all have a thing in common they represent murder Each work will be treated as a crime scene and will lead to a fascinating investigation inspired by the principles of legal and forensic experts Into what category does the murder fall What are the factual and historical issues Who are the victims What portrait can be drawn of the perpetrator s What is their profile their background their motive Reaching our final destination the truth will depend on the often unexpected answers found for these questions

The International Criminal Court and Türkiye Şehmus Kurtuluş,2025-09-24 The establishment of the International Criminal Court ICC is a landmark development in the field of international criminal law marking a significant step forward in the pursuit of global justice Having gained the recognition of 125 states the ICC stands as the world s first and only permanent international tribunal capable of trying individuals for the gravest crimes of international concern This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the challenges and opportunities associated with becoming a member of the ICC using Türkiye as a case study to explore broader issues relevant to other states that have not yet joined the Court It argues that the concerns behind Türkiye s reluctance to sign the founding treaty of the ICC are not substantial enough to justify avoiding the Court s jurisdiction and that non accession does not guarantee immunity from ICC oversight While primarily focused on Türkiye the book offers insights that could inform the decisions of other non signatory states particularly those with similar reservations about the Court It demonstrates that the advantages T rkiye stands to gain by joining the ICC are largely applicable to other non signatory states as well Through this analysis the book underscores the ICC s critical role as a global institution and its invaluable contribution to advancing international criminal justice Presenting a valuable overview of the world s first and only permanent international criminal court the work will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policymakers working in the fields of International Law and International Relations Corporate Human Rights Violations Stefanie Khoury,David Whyte,2016-12-08 This book develops an analysis of the historical political and legal contexts behind current demands by NGOs and the United Nations Human Rights Council to hold corporations accountable for their human rights violations Based on an analysis of the range of mechanisms of accountability that currently exist it argues that those demands are a response to the failure of neo liberal policies that have dominated the practice of politics and law since the emergence of this debate in its current form in the 1970s Offering a new approach to understanding how struggles for hegemony are refracted through a range of legal challenges to corporate human rights violations the book offers a fresh perspective for understanding how those struggles are played out in the global sphere In order to analyse the prospects for using human rights law to challenge the right of corporations to author human rights violations the book explores the development of a range of political initiatives in the UN the uses of tort law in domestic courts and the uses of human rights law at the European Court of Human Rights and at the Inter American Court of Human Rights This book will be essential reading for all those interested in how international institutions and NGOs are both shaping and being shaped by global struggles against corporate power The Politics of the Police Benjamin Bowling,Robert Reiner,James W. E. Sheptycki,2019 The Politics of the Police offers a geographical and historical overview of the law and politics of the police This fifth edition covers a wider range of empirical and theoretical issues encompassing a transnational scope and reflecting the growing diversity of policing forms in today s globalized world Human Trafficking and Exploitation Belachew Gebrewold,Johanna Kostenzer,Andreas Th. Müller,2017-09-22 Human trafficking is a serious human rights violation that leads to the gross exploitation of its victims who are coerced into forced labor and slavery across the globe As the current migration movement and refugee situation reaches crisis point in Europe the risk of human trafficking from the Mediterranean Sea through Italy into Central and Western Europe has become a critical emergency Focusing on human trafficking along this route into Europe this book discusses the systematic exploitation of victims and the subsequent violation of human rights within an international context providing an overview of the causes regulation and prevention of the issue Academic researchers practitioners and policy makers are brought together to provide both theoretical perspectives and practice based approaches for addressing the issue of human trafficking As well as scholarly contributions from experts in the field the book also includes experiences and strategies of policy makers and practitioners from governmental and non governmental organizations along with the real life scenarios and practice reports Human Trafficking and Exploitation should be considered essential reading for academics policy makers advocates and activists interested in preventing human trafficking and protecting human rights It will also be of interest to those with research interests within the broader themes of law politics and international relations and social and health policy Towards a Four-Tiered

Model of Mediation Hugo Luz dos Santos,2023-02-13 Underpinned by a hybrid methodology ranging from social sciences to human sciences this book parses mediation in four perspectives which stands as an unparalleled methodological approach so far Mediation has long been tethered to piecemeal and haphazard approaches which have flatly failed to capture the gist of the uniqueness of this often poorly latched on and poorly understood dispute resolution mechanism This book argues that in order to fully grasp the richness of such dispute resolution mechanism mediation must be parsed in four tiers The first tier is the social dynamics of mediation The second tier is the cultural dynamics of mediation The third tier is the legal dynamics of mediation The fourth tier is the cross border and cross cultural dynamics of mediation Taken together the four tiers that premise the four tiered model of mediation seek to unlock the finding in view of which law and social reality are tightly interlocked In this vein it is the underlying social reality of a given jurisdiction that should dictate the design of a pre suit court connected mandatory mediation with an easy opt out a central claim of both social dynamics of mediation the first tier of the four tiered model of mediation and legal dynamics of mediation the third tier of the four tiered model of mediation
