Ivan the Terrible Alexander Filjushkin, 2008-08-30 An in depth look at the military strategy of the first Russian ruler to invade Europe Ivan s campaigns against the Livonian Confederation were initially very successful In 1558 Russian soldiers occupied Dorpat and Narva and laid siege to Reval creating vital trade routes over the Baltic Sea At the Battle of Ergema the Russians defeated the knights of the Livonian Order fueling Ivan s dreams of a Russian Empire However as Erik XIV of Sweden recaptured Reval and the Poles joined forces with the Lithuanians the war began to turn against Ivan In 1571 an army of 120 000 Crimean Tatars crossed the River Ugra crushed the Russian defenses and burned Moscow to the ground As Ivan became increasingly paranoid and violent he carried out a number of terrible massacres It is thought that more than forty thousand were killed when the Russians sacked the town of Novgorod in 1570 and many were tortured and murdered in front of Ivan and his son This book describes the organization and equipment of the tsar s army and the forces of his enemies the Poles Lithuanians Tatars and Livonian Knights The narrative examines all of Russia s military campaigns in Eastern Europe and Western Siberia during the period of 1533 to 1584 in the first specialist study of Ivan the Terrible s military strategy to be published in English

Burt, 2016-04-30

Medieval and Early Modern Film and Media contextualizes historical films in an innovative way not only relating them to the history of cinema but also to premodern and early modern media. This philological approach to the pre history of cinema engages both old media such as scrolls illuminated manuscripts the Bayeux Tapestry and new digital media such as DVDs HD DVDs and computers. Burt examines the uncanny repetitions that now fragment films into successively released alternate cuts and extras footnote tracks audiocommentaries and documentaries that re structure and reframe historical films thereby presenting new challenges to historicist criticism and film theory. With a double focus on recursive narrative frames and the cinematic paratexts of medieval and early modern film this book calls our attention to strange sometimes opaque phenomena in film and literary theory that have previously gone unrecognized.
