The Last Judgement:

The Last Judgement and Second Coming of the Lord Illustrated. A Prize Essay Elias de la Roche RENDELL,1867 The Judgement Day: Showing Where, How, and when the Last Judgement Takes Place Sabin HOUGH,1849

Experiencing the Last Judgement Niamh Bhalla,2021-09-30 Experiencing the Last Judgement opens up new ways of understanding a Byzantine image type that has hitherto been considered largely uniform in its manifestations and to a great extent frightening coercive and paralysing It moves beyond a purely didactic understanding of the Byzantine image of the Last Judgement as a visual eschatological text to be read and learned from and proposes instead an appreciation of each unique image as a dynamic site to be experienced Paintings icons and mosaics from the tenth to the fourteenth century from inside and outside of the Byzantine Empire are placed within their specific socio historical milieus their immediate decorative programmes and their architectural contexts to demonstrate that each unique image constituted a carefully orchestrated and immersive experience of judgement Each case study outlines the differences that exist in reality between these images that are often subsumed under one iconographic label making a case against condensing dynamic lived images into apparently static pictorial types Images of the Last Judgement needed the body mind and memory of the viewer for the creation of meaning and so the experience of these images was unavoidably spatial gendered corporeal mnemonic emotional rhetorical and most often liturgical Unpacking Byzantine images of judgement in light of these various facets of experience for the first time helps to elucidate the interaction of past individuals with the image and the ways in which such encounters were intended to benefit the communities that made and lived alongside them Hieronymus Bosch, C. 1450-1516 Walter Bosing,2000 Examines the life and art of Hieronymus Bosch a Netherlandish painter from the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries and includes reproductions of representative works Sermon on the last Judgement [on Matt. xxiv. 30]. (Being the first of a series.). Hardinge IVERS,1847 Vested Angels Maurice Basil McNamee,1998 Mc Namee s detailed and well illustrated new study is about eucharistic symbolism in Early Netherlandish painting It focuses on the pervading presence of the vested angel in this school of painting and its eucharistic significance These angels dressed in every possible variation of the vestements of the subministers of the traditional Solemn High Mass are represented as serving the Christ in each episode of His life The history of the vested angel is traced through numerous paintings representing scenes from the life of Christ from the Annunciation through the Last Judgement The theological basis of this study is offered in a discussion of Maurice de la Taille s Mysterium Fidei a theory of Mass that best parallels the concept of Eucharistic symbolism in Early Netherlandish painting Colour illustrations and over a hundred photographs of the original paintings help the reader to follow this fascinating analysis Apocryphal Texts and Traditions in Anglo-Saxon England Kathryn Powell,D. G. Scragg,2003 Studies and editions of Anglo Saxon apocryphal materials filling a gap in literature available on the boundaries between apocryphal and orthodox in the period Apocrypha and apocryphal traditions in Anglo

Saxon England have been often referred to but little studied This collection fills a gap in the study of pre Conquest England by considering what were the boundaries between apocryphal and orthodox in the period and what uses the Anglo Saxons made of apocryphal materials The contributors include some of the most well known and respected scholars in the field The introduction written by Frederick M Biggs one of the principal editors of Sources of Anglo Saxon Literary Culture expertly situates the essays within the field of apocrypha studies The essays themselves cover a broad range of topics both vernacular and Latin texts those available in Anglo Saxon England and those actually written there and the uses of apocrypha in art as well as literature Additionally the book includes a number of completely new editions of apocryphal texts which were previously unpublished or difficult to access By presenting these new texts along with the accompanying range of essays the collection aims to retrieve these apocryphal traditions from the margins of scholarship and restore to them some of the importance they held for the Anglo Saxons Contributors DANIEL ANLEZARK FREDERICK M BIGGS ELIZABETH COATSWORTH THOMAS N HALL JOYCE HILL CATHERINE KARKOV PATRIZIA LENDINARA AIDEEN O LEARY CHARLES D WRIGHT Contemplations on the Ocean, Harvest, Sickness, and the Last Judgement ... A new edition Richard PEARSALL, 1804 The Love That Moves the Sun Paul Dominiak , 2024-08-30 The season of Advent traditionally involved meditation upon the Four Last Things heaven hell death and judgement This ancient but nearly lost sacred art of contemplation encouraged Christians to evaluate who they were what they treasured and how they ought to live in view of the world to come The Love That Moves the Sun revives this ancient practice and marries it with contemporary concerns Each chapter considers one of the Last Things in relation to a modern crisis from the climate emergency rise of populism and racial injustice to the economic inequalities of class In a time of compound crises retrieving the sacred art of contemplating the Last Things gives a vision of hope and direction in a chaotic world of uncertainty The first advent began with an angelic messenger announcing the coming of Christ to Mary The Love That Moves the Sun enables us to hear a fresh annunciation in our own time calling us to join in with God's salvation of a groaning creation and the hope of a new earth where justice dwells Bosch Virginia Pitts Rembert, 2023-12-28 Hieronymus Bosch was painting frightening yet vaguely likable monsters long before computer games were ever invented often including a touch of humour His works are assertive statements about the mental illness that befalls any man who abandons the teachings of Christ With a life that spanned from 1450 to 1516 Bosch experienced the drama of the highly charged Renaissance and its wars of religion Medieval tradition and values were crumbling paving the way to thrust man into a new universe where faith lost some of its power and much of its magic Bosch set out to warn doubters of the perils awaiting any and all who lost their faith in God His favourite allegories were heaven hell and lust He believed that everyone had to choose between one of two options heaven or hell Bosch brilliantly exploited the symbolism of a wide range of fruits and plants to lend sexual overtones to his themes which author Virginia Pitts Rembert meticulously deciphers to provide readers with new insight into this fascinating artist and his works A Medieval Architect

Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians John-Paul Himka,2018-10-11 Few subjects in Christianity have inspired artists as much as the last judgment Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians examines images of the last judgment from the fifteenth century to the present in the Carpathian mountain region of Ukraine Poland Slovakia and Romania as a way to consider history free from the traditional frameworks and narratives of nations Over ten years John Paul Himka studied last judgment images throughout the Carpathians and found a distinctive and transnational blending of Gothic Byzantine and Novgorodian art in the region Piecing together the story of how these images were produced and how they developed Himka traces their origins on linden boards and their evolution on canvas and church walls Tracing their origins with monks he follows these images increased popularity as they were commissioned by peasants and shepherds whose tastes so shocked bishops that they ordered the destruction of depictions of sexual themes and grotesque forms of torture A richly illustrated and detailed account of history through a style of art Last Judgment Iconography in the Carpathians will find a receptive audience with art historians religious scholars and slavists

Jewish and Christian Apocalypses F. Crawford Burkitt, 2007-03-01 This book contains the three Schweich Lectures from 1913 Burkitt believes the fundamental idea that underlines the great series of Jewish Apocalypses to be the idea of the imminent judgment to come He attempts to exhibit this idea in connection with the historical setting and the ultimate cause of its manifestation Burkitt holds that what gives rise to the Apocalypses vitality is the great struggle between religion and civilization

Art and the Augustinian Order in Early Renaissance Italy Anne Dunlop, 2016-12-05 The rise of the mendicant orders in the later Middle Ages coincided with rapid and dramatic shifts in the visual arts The mendicants were prolific patrons relying on artworks to instruct and impress their diverse lay congregations Churches and chapels were built and new images and iconographies developed to propagate mendicant cults But how should the two phenomena be related How much were these orders actively responsible for artistic change and how much did they simply benefit from it To explore these questions Art and the Augustinian Order in Early Renaissance Italy looks at art in the formative period of the Augustinian Hermits an order with a particularly difficult relation to art As a first detailed study of visual culture in the Augustinian order this book will be a basic resource making available previously inaccessible material discussing both well known and more neglected artworks and engaging with fundamental methodological questions for pre modern art and church history from the creation of religious iconographies to the role of gender in art
