The Life And Prayers Of Saint Paul:

The Life and Prayers of Saint Paul Wyatt North,2013-07-01 There are a great many men and women who have forever influenced and changed the course of Christian history but one might ask whether any have made such a profound impact as Saint Paul the Apostle It is through the ardent work of Paul that we know the path to Salvation one which leads us and binds us to God through the love of Christ When Jesus revealed himself directly to Paul and called Paul into his service that set Paul apart from other disciples who had come into the faith since the crucifixion Paul was not merely chosen to be a disciple he had been appointed by Jesus himself

The Prayers of St. Paul W. H. Griffith Thomas,2019-12-06 In The Prayers of St Paul W H Griffith Thomas delves into the rich spiritual tapestry woven throughout the apostle Paul's epistolary prayers This scholarly work employs a meticulous exegetical approach analyzing the theological implications and liturgical resonance of Paul's supplications within their historical context With a clear and accessible prose style Thomas invites readers to explore the transformative power of prayer as presented in the New Testament illuminating how these prayers provide insights into early Christian thought and the profound relationship between believers and the divine W H Griffith Thomas a prominent theologian and scholar of the early 20th century was deeply influenced by his own pastoral experiences and scholarly pursuits in biblical studies His academic background underscored by a firm commitment to the Reformed tradition informed his exploration of spiritual themes Thomas sought to bridge the gap between academic theology and practical faith making his analyses both deeply insightful and applicable to contemporary readers seeking deeper understanding of Paul's spiritual legacy Readers seeking a profound exploration of prayer's role in the life of early Christians will find The Prayers of St Paul an invaluable resource Thomas's insightful interpretations invite personal reflection and spiritual growth making this work essential for anyone desiring to deepen their understanding of Pauline theology and its relevance in today's faith journey

The Prayers of St. Paul. Being an Analysis and Exposition of the Devotional Portion of the Apostle's Writings William Burt Pope,2024-06-08 Reprint of the original first published in 1876 The Prayers of St. Paul W. H. Griffith Thomas,2017-06-12 GRACE AND HOLINESS Now God Himself and our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ direct our way unto you And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another and toward all men even as we do toward you To the end He may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God even our Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints 1 Thess iii 11 13 There are few more precious subjects for meditation and imitation than the prayers and intercessions of the great Apostle He was a man of action because he was first and foremost a man of prayer To him both aspects of the well known motto were true To pray is to labour and To labour is to pray There is no argument for or justification of prayer nor even an explanation It is assumed to be the natural and inevitable expression of spiritual life Most of the Apostle's prayers of which we have a record are concerned with other people rather than with himself and they thus reveal to us indirectly but very really what St Paul felt to be the predominant needs of the spiritual life In this series of studies we propose to look at some of these prayers and to consider their direct bearing upon our own lives Taking the Epistles in what is generally regarded to be their chronological order we naturally commence with the prayer found in 1 Thess iii 11 13 In this passage we have what is not often found a prayer for himself associated with prayer for others 1 His Prayer for Himself ver 11 Let us notice Who it is to Whom he prays God Himself and our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ The association of Christ with God as One to Whom prayer is addressed is of course very familiar to us but it ought never to be forgotten that when the Apostle penned these words the association was both striking and significant For consider these words were written within twenty five years of our Lord s earthly life and ascension and yet here is this quiet but clear association of Him with the Father thus testifying in a very remarkable and convincing way to His Godhead as the Hearer of prayer And this fact is still more noticeable in the original for St Paul in this verse breaks one of the familiar rules of grammar whether of Greek or English It is well known that whenever there are two nouns to a verb the verb must be in the plural and yet here the Greek word direct is in the singular notwithstanding the fact that there are two subjects the Father and Christ The same feature is to be found in 2 Thess ii 17 It is evident from this what St Paul thought of our Lord Jesus Christ and it is in such simple indirect testimonies that we find the strongest and most convincing proofs that the early Church believed in the Deity of our Lord Let us consider what it is for which he prays Direct our way He asks for guidance There had been certain difficulties in the way of his return to Thessalonica He had been hindered and now asks that God would open the way for him to go back to his beloved friends
