Richards (Classic Reprint) Caroline L. Hunt, 2016-08-03 Excerpt from The Life of Ellen H Richards Gathered together under the shadow of their great sorrow they told each other what Mrs Richards had done for them Each had a characteristic saying of hers to repeat or an anecdote illustrating her unfailing helpfulness to relate but chiefly they spoke of how her call to them had always been in the direction of the large outgiving life Strangely enough the outlook even at that time so soon after her death was not backward but forward They asked even then what they could do to carry on the work that she had laid down As the evening wore on the suggestion was made that one way of doing this would be by giving permanent form to what had been said there so informally and the hope was expressed that they and others who had known the inspiration of her personal influence might have an opportunity to show her to the world as they had seen her About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      The Life of Ellen H.
