The Little Suicides:

The Suicidal State Madoka Kishi, Professional in Residence Department of English Madoka Kishi, 2024 Through mapping the entwinement between the turn of the century nativist discourse race suicide and the frequent representation of suicide in Progressive Era literature The Suicidal State asks what kind of agency subjectivity and intimacies suicide could forge in its undoing of the selfhood Prefiguring the twenty first century white nationalist discourse replacement theory race suicide imagined the white race s declining birthrate as a sign of its imminent extinction sparking anti immigrant sentiment and legislation Suicidal figures in period literature this book argues symptomatically enact race suicide to short circuit the imperatives of racial reproduction and self preservation instead gesturing toward new erotic relationalities and pleasures

Utopia's Suicide John Paul, 2013-12-12 Having one foot in North America and one in Europe the author inevitably compares these two continents their surroundings their people and their modus vivendi The interpretation of happenings on these continents as they relate to one life s adventure is the scope of this work which is before everything else a collage of personal biography illuminated by flashes of the remarkable historical moments preceding the emigration There are moreover interpretations of impressions colored with romantic enchanting mysticism and alternatively subjective impressions of immigrants who came to America to find a better life and expected to some extent to find a promised land on a platter In either case impressions are based on predispositions of what immigrants from the old country envisioned American to be like However gratia is not a prerequisite it does not exist in the meaning of emi nor immi gratia Is this memoir an unprejudiced evaluation and objective notation of experiences as they were or a biased overflow of emotions ridicule and sarcasm or delight and adornment What is the difference between autobiography memoir and diary versus a fictitious rather historical novel in the first place A degree of deviation from factual reality A conglomerate relatively dry when transferred onto paper this cacophony without regard to categorization may enlighten the mind of one American or one potential immigrant by informing or reforming the picture of the mirage of a once magical New World or the romanticism of the Old One

Every Minute Is a Suicide Bruce McDougall, 2014-10-15 At once a coming of age tale and a baffling tragedy Every Minute Is a Suicide follows a son s journey into middle age from boyhood in the aftermath of his father s mysterious disappearance In spare but poignant prose these nineteen stories capture the disappointment that follows on the false promises of childhood as the boy navigates painful family Sunday dinners and his first dance an Ivy League education dead end jobs and self sabotaged love affairs He longs for acceptance but feels at odds with friends lovers family and himself His sorrow and confusion culminate in a profound spiritual crisis in the dark frigid months of a Yukon winter With clarity and a keen eye leavened by dry wit these stories explore the struggle to make sense of the world and to find one s place in it

The Rat Bastards Book 14: Suicide River Len Levison, 2011-11-16 The Japs are staging a surprise attack But a bigger bloodier surprise is waiting for them Whoever controls New Guinea can turn the tide of the war That s why the Japs are

Tales of Suicide Luigi Pirandello,1988 Suicide the act of killing oneself voluntarily and intentionally is clearly one of the most important themes developed by Pirandello during his long literary career Although he never focused on self destruction as an end in itself he made ample use of it to dramatise his tragic view of the human condition Indeed this theme recurs with astonishing frequency in his short stories play and novels It even appears sporadically in his poetry

The Banality of Suicide Terrorism Nancy Hartevelt Kobrin,2010-03-31 Terrorist organizations have been able to market mass murder under hysteria's banner of alleged martyrdom But when it comes to understanding Islamic suicide terrorism in particular there is much more to it than martyrdom In this groundbreaking book Nancy Kobrin dismantles the psychological dynamics of suicide terrorism to help the reader gain a new perspective on one of the most destructive forces the world has witnessed to date Until now no one has explained why the mother child relationship is central to understanding Islamic suicide terrorism The Banality of Suicide Terrorism exposes the very ordinariness of one of the deepest yet most poorly understood causes of the suicide bomber's motivation a profound terror of abandonment that is rooted in the mother child relationship According to Kobrin this terror is so great in the would be suicide terrorist that he or she must commit suicide and mass murder in the process in order to fend off that terror of dependency and abandonment Suicide terrorists seek a return to the bond with the mother of early childhood known as maternal fusion by means of a death fusion with their enemies who subconsciously represent the loved and hated maternal figure The terrorist's political struggle merely serves as cover for this emotionally terrifying inner turmoil which can lead down the path of ultimate destruction

Psychosocial Interventions for Suicide Prevention Raffaella

Calati, Jorge Lopez-Castroman, 2020-01-22 The Medical and Surgical Reporter ,1881 Rethinking Suicide Craig J. Bryan, 2022 Rethinking Suicide presents a discussion and critical evaluation of conventional wisdom and traditional assumptions about suicide arguing that suicide prevention efforts have largely failed because they disproportionately emphasize mental health focused solutions especially access to treatment and crisis services Suicide and the Holocaust David Lester, 2005 The purpose of this important book is to explore the phenomena of the low suicide rate in the concentration camps during the Holocaust and why its survivors seem to become increasingly susceptible to suicide as they grow older This unique book explores this heretofore unexplored area of history by the case study method utilising the detailed biographies of famous survivors People kill themselves usually because they are in deep despair with no hope for the future Surely the people in the concentration camps especially those that were clearly extermination camps would have been in deep despair with no hope for the future But since they supposedly did not commit suicide at a high rate they must not have been in such state This puzzle of human behaviour is examined under the microscope of a well known world expert on suicide The London Lancet ,1860 Population Density in Local Jails, 1988 Christopher A. Innes, 1990
