Charlotte Perkins Gilman Carol Farley Kessler, 1995-03-01 The focus of Carol Farley Kessler's work is how Charlotte Perkins Gilman developed as a writer and how she imagined a full blown utopia for women This book which offers a fresh reading of Gilman's fiction fills a void in Gilman scholarship in feminist utopian scholarship and in American literary studies Kessler provides three journeys through Gilman's life A Biographical Exploration discusses facets of her life having a substantial impact upon her utopian writing Four themes influence this development the legacy of ancestral expectations her relationships to father mother and daughter the experience of two marriages and a divorce and her friendships with women Gilman and her Prancing Young Utopia presents three stages in the development of Gilman's utopian writing First she imagined neighborhoods writing alternately fiction and nonfiction Second she tested in fiction the expression of utopian principles explained in her nonfiction Finally she created the whole society in her 1915 satire Herland All of the foregoing writing represents Gilman's effort to imagine in fiction solutions that she recommended in her 1898 feminist treatise Women and Economics Writing to Empower Living connects Gilman's biography to her utopian writing as both personal expression and public activism The writing can be understood as equipment for living Ten hard to locate utopian short stories and chapters from four novels conclude the volume Charlotte Perkins Gilman Professor Larry Ceplair, Charlotte Perkins

Gilman, 1991 Presents a collection of articles, essays and lectures by the American feminist writer from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The Collected Works of Charlotte Perkins Gilman Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2015-06-23

Charlotte Perkins Gilman, a leading feminist thinker of her age, is best known for her novella The Yellow Wallpaper, which is a chilling description of post partum depression. This volume also contains Why I Wrote The Yellow Wallpaper, Herland, a novel set in a society consisting solely of women, Women and Economics: A Study of the Economic Relation Between Men and Women as a Factor in Social Evolution, and a selection of her verse. A Journey from Within Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 1995 Hill puts the letters into biographical and historical context in an introductory essay that also explains their theoretical and historical importance. The edited and annotated letters then follow in chapters, each preceded by an introductory essay. The book concludes with a biographical sketch of the remaining thirty-five years of Gilman's life together with an assessment of the letters' historical and biographical significance. BOOK JACKET The Later Poetry of Charlotte Perkins Gilman Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 1996 Her highly acclaimed first edition of verse In This Our World (1893) earned her instant celebrity and was followed by such groundbreaking works as Women and Economics (1898) and The Home (1903). At the time of her death, Gilman was in the process of preparing a second volume of her poetry for publication. Although she grew increasingly weak during the final stages of her three-year battle with breast cancer, Gilman's resolve to see her second book of poetry in print never diminished. Modern Architecture and an International Sensibility Naina Gupta, 2025-05-30

Modern Architecture and an International Sensibility: A Curious Cross Atlantic Constellation presents an alternative history of internationalism and modernism with a focus on the role of architecture and spatial practices. Beginning at the tail end of the peace movements, the turn of the twentieth century, and ending with the Nuremberg trials, the book highlights the part played by individual agency, social reform, and architecture in moulding a working, everyday definition of what it meant to be international during this time. By viewing internationalism through the lens of the individual and the body, both as initiator and subject, it is repositioned as an integral part of everyday life rather than simply understood to be concerned with geopolitical relations between nations and their institutions. The book furthers a research methodology that is multidisciplinary and transnational. It will therefore be of interest to researchers and students of architecture and international history.
