Theologically how do people of different faiths find liberation in their separate gods simultaneously? Stephen Kaplan answers this question with his new book Different Paths, Different Summits. He presents a model for religious pluralism that does not fall victim to the criticisms of pluralist models. Religious positions do not need to be transcended in order for varying faiths to be both honored and liberating simultaneously. Kaplan skillfully depicts three different realities: a theistic ultimate reality, a monistic ultimate reality, and a process non-dualism along with their beliefs. His model allows for each to exist simultaneously, mutually interpenetrating and distinct.     Great Authors of Children's Books Britannica Educational Publishing, 2014-01-01 Few stories have the power to stay with us the way the tales we hear in childhood do.
