The Man Of Feeling:

The Man of Feeling Henry Mackenzie, 2022-09-16 Henry Mackenzie's The Man of Feeling is a quintessential example of the 18th century sentimental novel which emphasizes the value of emotion over reason. Mackenzie's prose eloquently reflects the philosophical and literary movement of sentimentalism prevalent in his era which championed sensitivity and moral sentiment as inherent virtues. The novel presents the episodic adventures of its protagonist Harley whose excessively sensitive nature defines his interactions with a world that often contradicts his idealistic virtues. This literary mosaic woven through a series of vignettes forms a poignant exploration of virtue, benevolence and humanity in contrast to a society marked by selfishness and insincerity.

Henry Mackenzie 1745-1831 a Scottish lawyer and writer was profoundly influenced by the Enlightenment. However he was equally enmeshed with the burgeoning Romanticism of the time. His work including The Man of Feeling reflects his engagement with the era's moral philosophy and aesthetics. It suggests Mackenzie's own preoccupation with the cultivation of sensibility and reflects autobiographical elements particularly his introspective nature and socio-cultural observations. The Man of Feeling is a compelling read for those interested in the evolution of the novel and the study of sentimentality as a cultural phenomenon. Mackenzie's narrative invites readers to delve into the depths of human emotion and the struggle between innate goodness and societal pressure. This novel is recommended for enthusiasts of classic literature looking to experience the emotional perceptiveness and moral reasoning characteristic of the late 18th century as expressed through one of its poignant literary voices.
