and quick modernization This book shows that industry not only helped Argentina s economy along but spearheaded its modernization It challenges the long lasting canonical version that industry was a victim of a capital market and a state extremely hostile to manufacturing Access to financing for industrial endeavors was much easier than previously thought while the state supported industry through tariffs

Reluctant Landscapes Francois G. Richard,2018-09-21 West African history is inseparable from the history of the Atlantic slave trade and colonialism According to historical archaeologist Francois Richard however the dominance of this narrative not only colors the range of political discourse about Africa but also occludes many lesser known but equally important experiences of those living in the region Reluctant Landscapes is an exploration of the making and remaking of political experience and physical landscapes among rural communities in the Siin province of Senegal between the late 1500s and the onset of World War II By recovering the histories of farmers and commoners who made up African states demographic core in this period Richard shows their crucial but often overlooked role in the making of Siin history The book also delves into the fraught relation between the Seereer a minority ethnic and religious group and the Senegalese nation state with Siin s perceived primitive conservatism standing at odds with the country s Islamic modernity Through a deep engagement with oral documentary archaeological and ethnographic archives Richard s groundbreaking study revisits the four hundred year history of a rural community shunted to the margins of Senegal s national imagination
