Music for Classic Guitar Solo John Feeley, 2012-03-01 This book presents six contemporary guitar works by Irish composers. These works are fairly evenly divided with reference to their position in the composer's output and also to the composer's age: three of the six are early works by Farrell Bromhead and Fennessy while the remaining three were produced during the composer's more mature years. O'Leary, Sweeney and Bodley also: three generations of living composers are represented. The six works chosen vary widely in compositional style, approach to writing for the guitar and technical requirements, thus presenting a generally good overview of contemporary Irish guitar music. This collection spans the period from 1970 to 2006 and includes Gemini by Jerome de Bromhead, the first Irish solo concert work for guitar. A short introduction to each composer and a background to his/her work is included. American Folk Music and Folklore Recordings, 57

Classic Period Songs Van A. Christy, Carl Zytowski, 2003-01-03 Expertly arranged Vocal Collection for Medium-High Voice by Van A. Christy and Carl Zytowski from the Kalmus Edition series. Women and Music in Ireland Laura Watson, Ita Beausang, Jennifer O'Connor-Madsen, 2022 Explores the world of women's professional and amateur musical activity as it developed on and beyond the island of Ireland. In a story which spans several centuries, the book highlights representative composers and performers in classical music, Irish traditional music and contemporary art music whose contributions have been marginalised in music narratives. As well as investigating the careers of public figures, this edited collection brings attention to women who engaged with and taught music in a variety of domestic settings. It also shines a spotlight on women who worked behind the scenes to build infrastructures such as festivals and educational institutions which remain at the heart of the country's musical life today. The book addresses and reconsiders ideas about the intersections of music, gender and Irish society, including how the national emblem of the harp became recast as a symbol of Irish womanhood in the twentieth century. The book is divided into four parts: Part 1 surveys women musicians in Irish society of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries; Part 2 discusses women and practice in Irish traditional music; Part 3 studies gaps and gender politics in the history of twentieth-century women composers and performers; Part 4 situates discourses of women, gender and music in the twenty-first century. The book's contributors encompass musicologists, cultural historians, composers and performers.
