The Kid Across the Hall
Reid Saaris, 2023-09-05 Growing up Reid was confused and disturbed by the radically different opportunities his best friend received After a childhood spent together Jamie and Reid found themselves on opposite sides of a high school hallway that separated kids based on a misunderstanding of their supposed potential The gap between the two friends widened as Reid's classes enabled him to pursue an elite college degree across the country studying educational opportunity and teaching Then Reid became a teacher at an under resourced South Carolina high school where efforts to serve the incredible students were stymied by internal segregation and administrative ambivalence He was disabused of the Hollywood myth that a good teacher could simply save the day when each false start with his students forced him to reckon with how much he didn't know After Reid assigned students a project to create a positive change they pushed him to figure out how he too could make a bigger difference While an individual's efforts are no match against entrenched systems Reid learned firsthand that a community of people powered by data can effect change This lesson motivated him to found Equal Opportunity Schools EOS a nationwide nonprofit dedicated to finding the students who were overlooked discouraged or otherwise missing from higher level classes As EOS became more successful partnering with major philanthropies universities and even the White House Reid grappled with his role as a leader Only through the efforts of first his students in South Carolina and later his team at EOS would he come to understand and begin to overcome the limitations of his vision Informed by extensive new data on educational opportunity in America The Kid Across the Hall is a powerful story of learning and unlearning of leading and learning to follow

Four-Legged Therapy Dept Ltd, 2018-10-04 Four Legged Therapy is a delightfully illustrated collection of ten stories that recognise the therapeutic value of having animals in our lives A charming exploration of how pets can support our minds and bodies in everyday life From grumpy cats fat dogs and muddy ducks to goats in a classroom and rescue hens in a care home this book recognises animals as the unsung heroes that save lives and make life worth living Animals offer companionship love and fun They teach us the gift of kindness and acceptance They can connect us to the world slow down time and sharpen our senses in a kind of informal meditation They can be good listeners offering reassurance and devotion that steadies our self esteem They ask us for routine and consistency to show a kind of resilience that is good for us Your dog's utter faith in your humanity will make you feel like more and more of a human every day
