How to Teach Writing Through Reading the Classics Gr. 7-9 Penny Nutbrown, Learning to write is a complex process and learning to write well is not a goal that can be achieved if the learner is working without examples some clear instruction of how and why language works as it does and then opportunities to practice are necessary My goal in writing this manual was to provide young people with the preceding In this manual the basic elements of grammar and composition are laid out in a series of steps that takes the pupil from being able to identify what a word is understand the role of that word in a sentence create sound sentences and paragraphs of her own and eventually put all those skills together to be able to express herself clearly and meaningfully Throughout the pupil is provided with both opportunities to practice and play with the concepts about which she is learning and most important examples of superior writing drawn from a wide selection of quality classic English language literature It is hoped that by proceeding thus the young person will not only become more adept at writing but also develop an appreciation for good books and pursue reading for pleasure The lessons in this manual are set out in an order to assist the pupil to develop an understanding of the fundamentals of language before proceeding to matters of sentence structure grammar and paragraph writing However any exercise in this book could be used out of context depending on the needs of the pupil and or the goals of the instructor The important thing is that the pupil always is allowed to use the means of example instruction and practice to achieve the desired objectives Reading Outcomes read from a wide variety of literary texts both for information and for enjoyment use simple organizational structures ie headings layout as a means of locating specific information use punctuation ie periods commas question marks and capitals to recognize separations between ideas in a text demonstrate an understanding of such stylistic features as quotation marks and paragraphing as means of organizing actions and ideas in a narrative text Writing Outcomes use simple and compound sentences with correct punctuation and use of capitals organize sentences and paragraphs logically to enhance comprehension of the reader use a variety of resources including the computer to check spelling and points of grammar in a piece of personal writing organize writing creatively and logically for specific purposes Paperbound Book Guide for Elementary Schools ,1966

A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol.XXXV (Forty-Five Volumes); Southey-Suetonius Charles Dudley Warner,2008-07-01 Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it s not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner s quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world Highlights from Volume 35 include the poetry of Robert Southey the verse of Edmund Spenser the philosophy of Benedict Spinoza the writings of Madame de Stal the poetry of Edmund Clarence Stedman excerpts from Laurence Sterne s Tristram Shandy the writings of Robert Louis Stevenson excerpts from Harriet Beecher Stowe s Uncle Tom s Cabin and much much more Childhood's Favorites and Fairy Stories Hamilton Wright Mabie,2016-08-24 Books are as much a part of the furnishing of a house as tables and chairs and in the making of a home they belong not with the luxuries but with the necessities A bookless house is not a home for a home affords food and shelter for the mind as well as for the body It is as great an offence against a child to starve his mind as to starve his body and there is as much danger of reducing his vitality and putting him at a disadvantage in his lifework in the one as in the other form of deprivation There was a time when it was felt that shelter clothing food and physical oversight comprised the whole duty of a charitable institution to dependent children to day no community would permit such an institution to exist unless it provided school privileges An acute sense of responsibility toward children is one of the prime characteristics of American society shown in the vast expenditures for public education in all forms in the increasing attention paid to light ventilation and safety in school buildings in the opening of play grounds in large cities in physical supervision of children in schools and the agitation against the employment of children in factories and in other and less obvious ways Children are helpless to protect themselves and secure what they need for health of body and mind they are exceedingly impressionable and the future is always in their hands The first and most imperative duty of parents is to give their children the best attainable preparation for life no matter at what sacrifice to themselves There are hosts of fathers and mothers who recognize this obligation but do not know how to discharge it who are eager to give their children the most wholesome conditions but do not know how to secure them who are especially anxious that their children should start early and start right on that highway of education which is the open road to honorable success Poetry Writing Made Simple
