Surviving Sexual Brokenness Thom Hunter, 2010-11-17 A man with his wife at the table on the other side of the restaurant is polite but distracted A woman at work stares out her office window with a blank expression her mind far away A father wraps his arm around his daughter in the church pew his eyes are on the pulpit but his mind wanders What about the college student on the soccer field or in the library The doctor prepping for surgery The realtor showing the house next door The mailman on your front porch Your Sunday school teacher perhaps even your preacher These people may be dominated by some form of sexual brokenness from pornography to adultery to unwanted homosexual temptation They share a secret they hope and pray will never be revealed The urge to act out in their brokenness is destroying them because it conflicts with a life they have already chosen They don't know how to live with it they don't know how to be rid of it They may not know what caused it they only want to cure it Am I just a misplaced homosexual Did God make me this way Why won't He change me Surrounding them are the ones who sense something is amiss but have no clue what to do or where to find help They may be confused by the teachings of the church love the sinner hate the sin This seemingly Biblical response can actually send the message to the struggler that he is in fact unlovable because his identity seems inseparable from his sin

Surviving Sexual Brokenness examines the roots and the roadblocks and provides understanding encouragement hope and help through Biblical truth and Christian compassion for the freedom seeker and those who travel alongside alongside a daily life in Burma which is largely unchanged today Author and narrator Anne starts the book with stories of the myths and legends lying behind the country's past and recounts many memories from her childhood in Burma She also gives a key insight into its politics history and geography and reproduces a vivid first hand account of the devastating trek from Burma to India to escape the Japanese occupation written in the mid 1940s Her husband shared her interest in Burma having served there in the Indian army and some of his memories are included As Aung San Suu Kyi takes her rightful seat in parliament and Myanmar re-emerges onto the world stage after many decades of exclusion Bewitched by Burma gives a unique insight into the country's complex past The book will appeal equally to today's travellers and business people to families of servicemen who served there and to those interested in the early life of the church and even in the introduction of Girlguiding

Foreword Reviews INDIES Book of the Year Award in Grief Grieving Finalist 2023     Army, 1976     War Letters Of Edmond Genet : The First American Aviator Killed Flying The Stars And Stripes Edmond Charles Clinton Genet, 2014-06-13

Edmond Genet from Ossining New York was the first American flier to die in the First World War after the United States declared war against Germany shot down by anti aircraft artillery on April 17 1917 Genet was the great great grandson of Edmond Charles Genet also known as Citizen Genet the French Ambassador to the United States shortly before the French Revolution who is mostly remembered for being the cause of an international incident known as the Citizen Genet Affair Edmond Genet sailed for France at the end of January 1915 to join the French Foreign Legion while still technically on leave from the US Navy He never arranged to be formally relieved of his responsibility to the Navy before joining the Lafayette Escadrille on January 22 1917 This decision weighed heavily on him as time wore on since he could be classified as a deserter because the US was not yet formally in the war and his involvement in the Escadrille was therefore not an official assignment by the US military He was particularly celebrated since it was known that he was the descendant of Citizen Genet As the prospect of American Involvement in the war grew he became both increasingly worried and hopeful that his participation in the Escadrille would not be affected by the American entry into the war and sought the help of prominent Americans in France to help him straighten out his status Ironically he died shortly after the formal entry of the US into the war before the issue of his status could be dealt with Although other Americans had died as part of the Escadrille he was the first one to do so after the US formally declared war on the Central powers This made him the first official American casualty of the war despite the fact that the US had not yet had time to organize or send any actual troops to Europe He was 20 years old at the time of his death Wiki     Alfgar the Dane A. Embodied Expression in Popular Music Timothy Koozin, 2024-03-18 Theory in popular music has historically tended to approach musical processes of rhythm harmony counterpoint and form as abstractions without very directly engaging the intimate connection between the performer and instrument in popular music performance Embodied Expression in Popular Music illuminates under researched aspects of music theory in popular music studies by situating musical analysis in a context of embodied movement in vocal and instrumental performance Author Timothy Koozin offers a performance based analytical methodology that progresses from basic idiomatic gestures to gestural combinations and interactions with large scale design to broader interpretive strategies that engage with theories of embodiment the musical topic and narrative The book examines artistic practices in popular song that draw from a vast range of stylistic sources including rock blues folk soul funk fusion and hip hop as well as European classical and African American gospel musical traditions Exploring the interrelationships in how we create hear and understand music through the body Koozin demonstrates how a focus on body instrument interaction can illuminate musical structures while leveling implied hierarchies of cultural value He provides detailed analysis of artists creative strategies in singing and playing their instruments probing how musicians represent subjectivities of gender race and social class in shaping songs and whole albums Tracing connections from foundational blues gospel and rock musicians to current rap artists he clarifies how inferences of musical topic and narrative are part of a larger creative process in strategically positioning musical gestures By engaging with songs by female artists and artists of color Koozin also challenges the methodological framing of traditional theory scholarship As a contribution to work on embodiment and meaning in music this study of popular song explores how the situated and engaged body is active in listening performing and the formation of musical cultures as it provides a means by which we understand our own bodies in relation to the world     The Living Church ,1963
