The Lovers Dictionary A Love Story In Definitions:

The Lover's Dictionary David Levithan, 2011-01-21 How does one talk about love Is it even possible to describe something at once utterly mundane and wholly transcendent that has the power to consume our lives completely while making us feel part of something infinitely larger than ourselves Taking a unique approach to this age old problem the nameless narrator of David Levithan's The Lover's Dictionary constructs the story of a relationship as a dictionary Through these sharp entries he provides an intimate window into the great events and quotidian trifles of coupledness giving us an indelible and deeply moving portrait of love in our time Computer Lawyer Proref, The Lover's Dictionary David Levithan, 2011 How does one talk about love Primitive Love and Love-stories Henry T. Finck, 1899 The Lover's Tongue Mark Morton, 2009 This delightful book includes over 100 mini essays explaining the origins and historical development of words in our language that pertain to love and sex Do you know for example what a 78 is Here's a hint like the old 78 rpm records the term refers to a man who is well on the fast side Diligently researched The Lover's Tongue is written in a light hearted style A dictionary of a different kind this book is the perfect gift for that special someone or for the connoisseur of language and history in your life The Chivalric Romance and the Essence of Fiction Dani Cavallaro, 2015-12-28 Ranging from Chretien de Troyes to Shakespeare this study proposes that the chivalric romance is characterized by a centerless structure self conscious fictionality and a propensity for irony The form is tied to historical reality yet represents the archetype of imaginative literature declaring its fictional status without claiming to embody fixed truths Through use of irony the chivalric romance precludes conclusive interpretations inviting readers to inhabit multifold fantasy worlds while uncompromisingly showing that an ideal world is only a fiction Thus the reader is enjoined to confront the suspension of truth in their own lives Away With Words Katrina Grella, 2016-04-27 Away With Words chronicles the progression of a relationship between Miles and Deidra Carlton an unlikely couple who fall in love with the way each chooses to proclaim their love for one another Miles uses words and their etymologies to communicate while Deidra photographs flowers to reveal her emotions that relate to Victorian era meanings Miles' arrogant devotion for words and Deidra's passion for photography creates a nearly unspoken bond between the two where their love for each other seems to grow beyond a definition or the perfect angle Their love does not conform to the margins of the novel playing with Hybrid and Experimental Fiction The lover's dictionary Lover, 1903 How to Fix Exploding Brains? Ram Arora, 2009-11-11 All living organisms are like biological robots Their physical actions organic capabilities and senses are firmly and very narrowly limited and so programmed in the DNA Brain the master controller of the living system is as susceptible to external and internal stresses as all other bodily components The brain is also abode of the mind and the mind is the embodiment of thoughts The scientific observation that brain and mind die simultaneously is irrefutable Wherein the brain the mind parks itself is a mystery The brain is more intricate than the universe and the mind exceeds the brain in complexity Billions of neurons and trillions of synapses keep on firing acting reacting storing and communicating to and from sensory organs as long as the structure of the brain is not damaged diseased or dead Brain when overloaded with its electric charge due to intense mental activity can explode like a bomb Five people are known to have died when their brains blew up because of the condition called Hyper Cerebral Electrosis HCE The most recent death occurred when psychic Barbara Nicole s skull burst Chess Champion Nikolai Titov s head suddenly blew apart when he was concentrating on his move The brain endures many mini explosions without shattering HCE kills rarely but sickens very often All evil emotions cause stronger HCE than pleasant thoughts do The Virgin and her Lover Bo Utas,Tomas Hägg,2004-01-01 Starting from the authors discovery that the Persian epic poem V miq and Adhr by Un ur 11th century AD derives from the ancient Greek novel of M tiokhos and Parthenop the book contains critical editions of the Greek and Persian fragments and testimonia with English translation and comments The exciting story of the modern recovery of the two texts is told and the transformations of the productive theme of The ardent lover and the virgin are traced from Greek novel to Persian poem and through later Persian and Turkish literature Of particular importance is the authors attempt to reconstruct the common plot and individual variations adding a new work to the limited corpus of ancient novels and shedding new light on the genre of Persian epic poetry Dictionary of Biblical Imagery Leland Ryken,James C. Wilhoit,Tremper Longman III,2010-05-11 This reference work explores the images symbols motifs metaphors figures of speech and literary patterns found in the Bible With over 800 articles by over 100 expert contributors this is an inviting enlightening and indispensable companion to the reading study contemplation and enjoyment of the Bible

Empowering Contemporary Fiction in English Ralf Hertel,Eva-Maria Windberger,2021-03-08 Empowerment as a concept is making its impact on the field of literary studies This volume shows its intricate relation to contemporary fiction in English applying a broad range of approaches such as feminist transcultural and intersectional studies Dealing with genres as diverse as dystopia science fiction TV adaptations the historical novel and immigrant fiction this collection offers the first in depth study of empowerment in literature How and to which end do texts endow characters with power In which ways can fiction become a tool of authorial self empowerment And which effects do such narratives have on readers With this book empowerment is put on the map of literary studies as a new highly relevant critical concept stimulating fresh perspectives on contemporary fiction Contributors Peter Childs Britta Maria Colligs Sarah Dillon Paul Hamann Rose Ralf Hertel David Malcolm Diana Thiesen Eleanor Ty Eva Maria Windberger The Lover's Dictionary Containing a Vast Amount of Information of Interest to Those in Love ... G. R. M. Devereux,1903 The Book-lover ,1899 Disclosing Intertextualities ,2016-08-29 For the first time this volume brings together essays by feminist Americanist and theater scholars who apply a variety of sophisticated critical approaches to Susan Glaspell s entire oeuvre Glaspell s one act play Trifles and the short story that she constructed from it A Jury of Her Peers have drawn the attention of many feminist critics but the rest of her writing the short stories plays and novels is largely unknown The essays gathered here will allow students of literature women's studies and theater studies an insight into the variety and scope of her oeuvre Glaspell's political and literary thinking was radicalized by the turbulent Greenwich Village environment of the first decades of the twentieth century by progressive era social movements and by modernist literary and theatrical innovation The focus of Glaspell studies has till recently been dominated by the feminist imperative to recover a canon of silenced women writers and in particular to restore Glaspell to her rightful place in American drama Transcending the limitations generated by such a specific agenda the contributors to this volume approach Glaspell's work as a dialogic intersection of genres texts and cultural phenomena a method that is particularly apt for Glaspell who moved between genres with a unique fluidity creating such modernist masterpieces as The Verge or Brook Evans This volume establishes Glaspell's work as an intersection of textual surfaces resulting for the first time in the complex aesthetic appreciation that her varied life's work merits

Mixed Feelings Katja Garloff, 2016-11-15 Since the late eighteenth century writers and thinkers have used the idea of love often unrequited or impossible love to comment on the changing cultural social and political position of Jews in the German speaking countries In Mixed Feelings Katja Garloff asks what it means for literature and philosophy to use love between individuals as a metaphor for group relations This question is of renewed interest today when theorists of multiculturalism turn toward love in their search for new models of particularity and universality Mixed Feelings is structured around two transformative moments in German Jewish culture and history that produced particularly rich clusters of interfaith love stories Around 1800 literature promoted the rise of the Romantic love ideal and the shift from prearranged to love based marriages In the German speaking countries this change in the theory and practice of love coincided with the beginnings of Jewish emancipation and both its supporters and opponents linked their arguments to tropes of love Garloff explores the generative powers of such tropes in Moses Mendelssohn G E Lessing Friedrich Schlegel Dorothea Veit and Achim von Arnim Around 1900 the rise of racial antisemitism had called into question the promises of emancipation and led to a crisis of German Jewish identity At the same time Jewish Christian intermarriage prompted public debates that were tied up with racial discourses and concerns about procreation heredity and the mutability and immutability of the Jewish body Garloff shows how modern German Jewish writers such as Arthur Schnitzler Else Lasker-Schöler and Franz Rosenzweig wrest the idea of love away from biologist thought and reinstate it as a model of sociopolitical relations She concludes by tracing the relevance of this model in post-Holocaust works by Gershom Scholem Hannah Arendt and Barbara Honigmann
