Michiganensian ,1991 Green Psychology Ralph Metzner,1999-06-01 A visionary ecopsychologist examines the rift between human beings and nature and shows what can be done to bring harmony to both the ecosystem and our own minds Shows that the solution to our ecological dilemma lies in our own consciousnesses It is becoming more and more apparent that the causes and cures for the current ecological crisis are to be found in the hearts and minds of human beings For millennia we existed within a religious and psychological framework that honored the Earth as a partner and worked to maintain a balance with nature But somehow a root pathology took hold in Western civilization the idea of domination over nature and this led to an alienation of the human spirit that has allowed an unprecedented destruction of the very systems which support that spirit In Green Psychology Ralph Metzner explores the history of this global pathology and examines the ways that we can restore a healing relationship with nature His search for role models takes him from shamanic ceremonies with the Lacandon Maya of Mexico to vision quests in the California desert from the astonishing nature mysticism of Hildegard von Bingen to the Black Goddesses and Green Gods of our pagan ancestors He examines the historical roots of the split between humans and nature showing how first sky god worshipping cultures then monotheisms and finally mechanistic science continued to isolate the human psyche from the life giving Earth His final chapters present a solution showing that disciplines such as deep ecology and ecofeminism are creating a worldview in which the mind of humanity and the health of the Earth are harmoniously intertwined

History of Psychiatry and Medical Psychology Edwin R. Wallace, John Gach, 2010-04-13 Most of the prefatory issues are extensively elaborated upon in the Prolegomenon which also contains the complete references to the texts and authors discussed below Nevertheless the Preface would be grossly incomplete without touching on some of these issues books and scholars Too many of this book's chapters e.g. Moras Marx's D B Weiner's examine and reference important earlier as well as contemporary general histories of psychiatry and specialized monographs in German French Italian and Spanish Also in his 1968 Short History of Psychiatry discussed below Ackerknecht pp xi xii references important nineteenth and earlier twentieth century psychiatric histories in English French and German Such citations will of course not be repeated here Finally thanks to several publishers re editions of dozens of classical psychiatric texts one can consult their bibliographies as well See Prolegomenon for references to these splendid series In a rough and ready sense medical history began in classical Greece for example On Ancient Medicine While traditionally included in the Hippocratic corpus this text seems more likely to have been written by a non or even anti Hippocratic doctor Moreover the Hippocratic and other schools were hardly as secular as we now suppose On Epilepsy for example does not so much declare the prevalent denotation of it as the sacred disease erroneous as it does that it is no more nor less sacred than any other disease
