I. Individual traditions. Buddhism. 'Mysticism and scripture in Theravāda Buddhism' Ninian Smart, 2009 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster The Emptying God John B. Cobb, Christopher Ives, 2005-10-11 Masao Abe is widely acknowledged as a leader in the worldwide dialogue on Buddhism A profound scholar of Buddhism and of Christian theology his critical and constructive reflections culminate in the seminal essay that is the cornerstone of this volume Seven eminent scholars respond to the challenge of Abe's construal of Kenotic God and Dynamic Sunyata Abe demonstrates powerfully the dynamism of the Buddhist appreciation of the divine Emptiness at the heart of Being His essay suggests how the doctrine of sunyata can provide a needed corrective to the reified understanding of God prominent in Jewish and Christian traditions Abe opens the way for new and deeper engagement of these traditions with the wisdom of Buddhism Leading Christian and Jewish theologians Thomas J J Altizer Eugene Borowitz John B Cobb Jr Catherine Keller Schubert M Ogden J rgen Moltmann and David Tracy respond to Abe s challenge From perspectives as diverse as American feminism post Holocaust Judaism process thought and hermeneutics they reply to Abe s proposals for considering God to be intrinsically self emptying Abe responds to these essays in a conclusion Provocative and illuminating The Emptying God shows how interfaith dialogue at its very best provides materials for the mutual transformation of all traditions

RELIGIOUS SYNCRETISM IN AFRICAN CHRISTIANITY ISIAIAH OLUWAJEMIRIYE OLATOYAN,2024-04-18 Christianity among the African people whether on the soil of Africa or in diaspora is perceived and defined differently by different people For instance among African traditional religious people and Muslims Christianity is a foreign religion that must not be allowed to thrive in Africa To several Africans who profess Jesus Christianity is good but it is not adequate and effective enough to handle all human needs Still among some Western Christians and missionaries African Christianity is superficial and lacks total commitment to Christ Of course the Africans are a cultural people with profound religious inclinations Their traditional religion ATR has tremendously shaped their worldviews and socioeconomic and political activities Consequently when traditional Africans are converted to Christianity they do not break ties with their traditional religions completely The examination of relevant biblical texts on syncretism however reveals that God condemns the worship of many gods and places a curse on anyone who offers sacrifices to carved images and bows to them in worship Therefore this work investigates the root cause of religious syncretism among African people In the attempt to find answers to why the average African Christian finds it difficult if not impossible to abandon his her traditional religious belief systems completely to embrace Christianity the author concludes that unless the issues surrounding the African forgotten and secret covenants are exposed and decisively addressed in the light of biblical teaching syncretism will continue to be a stigma on the fabric of African Christianity Therefore to overcome the threats of syncretism in African Christianity there is a need to establish a sound theological and missiological framework that can address the problems associated with the African worldviews and belief systems This task must be carried out under the searchlight of Scriptures A Worldly Christian Dyron B. Duagharity,2022-01-01 Stephen Neill 1900 1984 was a towering figure of twentieth century global Christianity but was in many ways a broken man who faced profound and crippling struggles A Worldly Christian charts the extraordinary but often tragic life of a global Christian pioneer par excellence in a church that diversified dramatically during his lifetime Privileged to live in radically different cultural contexts over the course of his life Neill excelled by turns as a missionary and bishop in India an ecumenist in Geneva a professor in Hamburg and Nairobi and a prolific author of some seventy books and hundreds of articles upon his retirement to the UK Throughout this varied career he shared his tremendous knowledge of the world Christian movement with scholars clergy and laypersons alike Many will find his story compelling from Christian scholars to all those who have cherished his influential body of work and benefit from his legacy Slave Religion Albert J.

Raboteau,2004-10-07 Twenty five years after its original publication Slave Religion remains a classic in the study of African American history and religion In a new chapter in this anniversary edition author Albert J Raboteau reflects upon the origins of the book the reactions to it over the past twenty five years and how he would write it differently today Using a variety of first and second hand sources some objective some personal all riveting Raboteau analyzes the transformation of the African religions into evangelical Christianity He presents the narratives of the slaves themselves as well as missionary reports travel accounts folklore black autobiographies and the journals of white observers to describe the day to day religious life in the slave communities Slave Religion is a must read for anyone wanting a full picture of this invisible institution ECISM 2017 11th European Conference on Information Systems Management ,2017-09-14 Piety and Power Lamin Sanneh,2015-03-04 In Piety and Power an African scholar provides a unique perspective on historical patterns of religious interaction in West Africa and their meaning for world Christianity and Islam today Sanneh s topics range from Muhammad s significance for Christians to an examination of a nineteenth century ecumenical opening between the two faiths in Freetown to an overview of the relation between religion and politics that directly challenges many Western assumptions about Africa and Islam Other treatments of Christian Muslim encounter in Africa are often framed in terms of European colonial and missionary history In contrast Piety and Power places the inter faith issues firmly in an African social setting Sanneh explores the impact of Islam Christianity and European mission and colonialism in terms of African adaptations and expressions An autobiographical essay on Sanneh s own education in an African Qu ran school gives readers a rare and revealing look at the power and influence of Islamic institutions in their African adaptations Imagining Judeo-Christian America K. Healan Gaston,2019-11-13 Judeo Christian is a remarkably easy term to look right through Judaism and Christianity obviously share tenets texts and beliefs that have strongly influenced American democracy In this ambitious book however K Healan Gaston challenges the myth of a monolithic Judeo Christian America She demonstrates that the idea is not only a recent and deliberate construct but also a potentially dangerous one From the time of its widespread adoption in the 1930s the ostensible inclusiveness of Judeo Christian terminology concealed efforts to promote particular conceptions of religion secularism and politics Gaston also shows that this new language originally rooted in arguments over the nature of democracy that intensified in the early Cold War years later became a marker in the culture wars that continue today She argues that the debate on what constituted Judeo Christian and American identity has shaped the country s religious and political culture much more extensively than previously recognized Sufi Women, Embodiment, and the 'Self' Jamila Rodrigues,2022-12-30 This book is an ethnographic case study of Sufi ritual practice and embodied experience amongst female members of the Naqshbandi community Drawing on fieldwork in Cape Town South Africa and Lefke Cyprus 2013 2014 the author examines women s experiences within a particular performance of Sufi tradition The focus is on the ritual named hadra involving the recital of sacred texts music and body movement where the goal is for the individual to reach a state of intimacy with God The volume considers Sufi practice as a form of embodied cultural behavior religious identity and selfhood construction It explains how Muslim women s participation in hadra ritual life reflects religious and cultural ideas about the body the body s movement and embodied selfhood expression within the ritual experience Sufi Women Ritual Embodiment and the Self engages with studies in Sufism symbolic anthropology ethnography dance and somatic studies Contributing to discussions of religion gender and the body the book will be of interest to scholars from anthropology sociology religious ritual studies Sufism and gender studies and performance studies Quarterly Index to Africana Periodical Literature ,2001 Critical

Geographies of Childhood and Youth Peter Kraftl,John Horton,Faith Tucker,2012-03-21 This original book explores the importance of geographical processes for policies and professional practices related to childhood and youth Contributors from a wide range of disciplinary backgrounds explore how concepts such as place scale mobility and boundary making are important for policies and practices in diverse contexts Chapters present both comprehensive cutting edge academic research and critical reflections by practitioners working in diverse contexts giving the volume wide appeal The focus on the role of geographical processes in policies and professional practices that affect young people provides new critical insights into contemporary issues and debates The contributions show how local and national concerns remain central to many youth programmes they also highlight how youth policies are becoming increasingly globalised Examples are taken from the UK the Americas and Africa The chapters are informed by and advance contemporary theoretical approaches in human geography sociology anthropology and youth work and will be of interest to academics and higher level students in those disciplines The book will also appeal to policy makers and professionals who work with young people encouraging them to critically reflect upon the role of geographical processes in their own work The Asiatic Journal ,1835
