The Litvak Legacy:

The Litvak Legacy Mark N. Ozer, 2009 Between the 1880s and the 1920s a million Litvak Jews migrated throughout the world from Lita their home in the western edge of the Russian Empire This book is the story of the legacy of that migration The questions answered are Where did they come from How did they get to where they are What are some of the lasting values they we share the world over In what way do we differ depending on the countries in which various members of my family have lived One common response in a course based on this material was I now know why my family was the way it was The book will enable you to better know why you are the way you are and enable your children and grandchildren to understand their background It is my thesis that there is a distinctive Litvak cultural heritage that can be traced through the maintenance of that culture through the several generations and the significant impact it has had on the countries in which the immigrants settled The Jewish inhabitants of Lita were called Litvaks Litvakes in Yiddish to distinguish them from non Jewish Lithuanians as well as from other Jews In their home they formed a distinct culture that differed in its variant of their language of Yiddish as well as the character of their religion As followers of the Vilna Gaon in the late 18th century in opposition to the spread of Hassidism Litvaks maintained a unique commitment to rabbinical Judaism and intellectual study They were also unusual in the degree to which arduous and sharp witted Talmudic study was widespread The religious tradition continued to evolve in Lita In response to the challenges of both Hassidism and the Haskalah Enlightenment the ethically oriented musar movement became widespread within the Lithuanian yeshivot Orthodox Judaism evolved out of traditional Judaism However relatively few of the traditionally religious chose to emigrate In the late 19th century particularly centered in Vilna Lita was a major source of the Jewish responses to modernity such as socialism and the recognition of the Yiddish language as well as modern Hebrew and Zionism Lita was the greenhouse of secularism The literary and political responses to the breakdown of the Jewish social structure retained the traditional spirit of intensity and sharp wittedness The quest for bringing about a better world via socialism and Zionism partook of the religious impulse while denying it The language battles between Yiddish and Hebrew were joined to these ideologies The characteristic Litvak intellectual strand was expressed in the flowering of secular literary and historical studies that partook of the intensity previously devoted to the sacred writings As the Russian Empire containing Lita was broken up following World War I its inhabitants found themselves living either in Latvia Poland the Russian and Belorussian Republics of the Soviet Union or in the newly independent Lithuania The entire area now divided had a common cultural entity e that can be called Litvakia When the new boundaries were drawn many of the inhabitants stayed in place and were subject to the Holocaust The Great Migration from Lita occurred in the period of the latter third of the 19th century and in the 20th century prior to the First World War but extended through World War II Even beyond the Holocaust Shoah the few survivors continued to bear witness to its memory Section One deals with the evolution of the core in Lita from 1840 to its destruction during the Shoah Focus is on the relationship between the developments following 1880 and the ideas carried by the emigrants to the Diaspora from Lithuania mainly ending in the 1920s Section Two deals with those ideas carried to the English speaking world and their subsequent evolution mainly in the United States but also in comparison with the United Kingdom Canada and South

Richard Freund's Legacy of Ideas, Research and Teaching about the Holocaust Philip Reeder, 2023-10-25 This book highlights the Holocaust related research of the historian archeologist and professor Rabbi Richard A Freund Richard was a pioneering force in non invasive archaeology wherein geophysical techniques adapted from the oil and gas industry are used at Holocaust sites to collect data used in concert with testimony and archival research to write or rewrite the history of the Holocaust The chapters authors span the breadth of Holocaust studies and science and include geophysicists who are experts in applying geophysical techniques in a historical context geographers skilled in mapping and spatial analysis filmmakers and film students archaeologists that focus on the Holocaust and academics specializing in Judaic studies Jewish life and the Holocaust It is comprehensive but non technical and is a resource for anyone interested in melding science with history and uncovering the often lost or hidden aspects of the Holocaust Anatole Litvak Michelangelo Capua, 2015-02-13 During his 40 year career director producer Anatole Litvak 1902 1974 made films of all genres in Russia Germany England France and the United States His rootless background was cited by critics lamenting his lack of consistent style but it also added to his mystique as a chameleon like realisateur Litvak directed Hollywood greats like Edward G Robinson John Garfield Kirk Douglas Ingrid Bergman Vivien Leigh Sophia Loren Anthony Perkins Olivia de Havilland Yul Brynner Burt Lancaster Barbara Stanwick and many others He was twice nominated for Best Director by the Academy of Motion Picture Art and Sciences for The Snake Pit 1948 and for Decision Before Dawn 1951 These films along with Mayerling 1936 Sorry Wrong Number 1946 and Anastasia 1956 are considered classics but his pictures don t offer many clues about Litvak the man Apart from passing references to his wartime service as combat documentarian he never discussed his life in print allowing only brief interviews relating exclusively to his work This biography fills that void providing the first detailed portrait of an artist described by film historian Richard Schickel as an adept adaptable and prolific man the kind of director that Hollywood likes best Irena Veisaitė Yves Plasseraud, 2015-09-01 Irena Veisaitė is held in deep esteem throughout her country This volume is an attempt to relate the difficult journey of her remarkable life against the backdrop of the complex history of Lithuania and its Litvaks Lithuanian Jews After being rescued by Christian Lithuanian families and having survived the Holocaust Irena Veisaitė devoted herself to study and creative work She was a memorable lecturer respected theatre critic associate film director and also founder and chairman of the Open Society Fund Soros Foundation which made an invaluable contribution to the process of democratisation in Lithuania Irena Veisaitė made it her life s work to speak up for dialogue and mutual understanding and believes that even in the most difficult circumstances it is possible to preserve one s humanity Having lived through some of the major atrocities of the twentieth century her insistence on the need for tolerance has inspired many Hospital, Heal

Sanctified Sex Noam Sachs Zion, 2021-08 Sanctified Sex draws on two thousand years of rabbinic debates addressing competing aspirations for loving intimacy passionate sexual union and sanctity in marriage What can Judaism contribute to our struggles to nurture love relationships What halakhic precedents are relevant and how are rulings changing The rabbis of course seldom agree Underlying their arguments are perennial debates What kind of marital sex qualifies as ideal sacred self control of sexual desire or the holiness found in emotional and erotic intimacy Is intercourse degrading in its physicality or the highest act of spiritual mystical union And should women or men or both wield ultimate say about what transpires in bed Noam Sachs Zion guides us chronologically and steadily through fraught terrain seminal biblical texts and their Talmudic interpretations Talmud tales of three unusual rabbis and their marital bedrooms medieval codifiers and mystical commentators ultra Orthodox rabbis clashing with one another over radically divergent ideals and finally contemporary rabbis of varied denominations wrestling with modern transformations in erotic lifestyles and values Invited into these sanctified and often sexually explicit discussions with our ancestors and contemporaries we encounter innovative Jewish teachings on marital intimacy ardent lovemaking techniques and the art of couple communication vital for matrimonial success

Jewries at the Frontier Sander L. Gilman, Milton Shain, 1999 Traversing far flung Jewish communities in South Africa Australia Texas Brazil China New Zealand Quebec and elsewhere this wide ranging collection explores the notion of frontier in the Jewish experience as a historical geographical reality and a conceptual framework As a compelling alternative to viewing the periphery only as a locus of dispossession and exile from the homeland this work imagines a new Jewish history written as the history of the Jews at the frontier In this new history governed by the dynamics of change confrontation and accommodation marginalized experiences are brought to the center and all participants are given voice By articulating the tension between the center periphery model and the frontier model Jewries at the Frontier shows how the productive confrontation between and among cultures and peoples generates a new multivocal account of Jewish history

Lost and Found Aušra Paulauskienė, 2007 Ausra Paulauskiene's book Lost and Found: The Discovery of Lithuania in American Fiction targets American as well as European scholars in the fields of literature ethnic studies and immigration The author discovers obscure texts on Lithuania and alerts Western and Eastern academia to their significance as well as the reasons for their neglect For the first time Abraham Cahan's autobiography The Education of Abraham Cahan and Ezra Brudno's autobiographical novel The Fugitive receive an extensive coverage while Goldie Stone's My Caravan of Years and Margaret Seebach's That Man Donaleitis receive their first scholarly consideration ever The author argues that misrepresentations misattributions and exclusions of Lithuanian legacy in the U S were produced by major political events of the twentieth century

Ecologies of Witnessing Hannah

Pollin-Galay, 2018-07-31 An innovative reassessment of Holocaust testimony revealing the dramatic ways in which the languages and places of postwar life inform survivor memory This groundbreaking work rethinks conventional wisdom about Holocaust testimony focusing on the power of language and place to shape personal narrative Oral histories of Lithuanian Jews serve as the textual base for this exploration Comparing the remembrances of Holocaust victims who remained in Lithuania with those who resettled in Israel and North America after World War II Pollin Galay reveals meaningful differences based on where survivors chose to live out their postwar lives and whether their language of testimony was Yiddish English or Hebrew The differences between their testimonies relate to notions of love justice community and how the Holocaust did violence to these aspects of the self More than an original presentation of yet unheard stories this book challenges the assumption of a universal vocabulary for describing and healing human pain

Life Must Go On Bea Lurie, 2025-06-03 The remarkable story of Sol Lurie a child survivor of six concentration camps during the Holocaust who continues to be a beacon of hope After a bucolic childhood in Kovno Lithuania Sol was just eleven when the Nazis invaded and he and his family were forced to move into the Kovno Ghetto The Kovno Ghetto was one of the only ghettos to later become a concentration camp and Sol was among just a few Jewish survivors from Kovno In this inspiring story of tenacity character faith love and forgiveness we follow young Sol through heartbreak and fear torment and torture Through Sol's eyes we learn the history of the communities in Eastern Europe especially Lithuania which has long been a gap in the wider history of the Holocaust Along the way we meet the righteous few who helped save young Sol's life After being imprisoned in five other concentration camps for a total of four years Sol was liberated from Buchenwald on his fifteenth birthday To this day he still joyfully celebrates every year the day he was born and liberated Despite the horrors of youth Sol never lost his determination to live life to the fullest He embarked on a new life in the United States and would thrive as a husband father grandfather business owner and an inspiration for the thousands who have heard Sol share his incredible story and the lessons he has to share We can all learn from Sol at a time when divisiveness reigns Despite all that he suffered and all those he lost Sol's courage and positive attitude continues to inspire as he actively seeks out and see the good in others He wholeheartedly believes in bashert a Yiddish word that means destiny which gave him his mission to educate others to love not to hate Life Must Go On is a moving and vital new addition to the history of the Holocaust and the chorus of survivor stories that resonate throughout the generations

Living Faiths in South Africa Martin Prozesky, John W. De Gruchy, 1995 Written by scholars with a specialist knowledge of their fields this volume explores the diversity of South Africa's faiths It covers such subjects as African traditional religions Christianity Islam the Jewish community and Hinduism amongst others

Eighteen Words to Sustain a Life David Patterson, 2023-06-26 In the Jewish tradition going back to Jacob many fathers have written down whatever wisdom they might have attained in their lives in order to pass along that wisdom to their heirs It is called an ethical will Written as a testimony and a testament in an epistolary format this book is a compendium of the wisdom of a father who has spent a lifetime studying the teachings of the Jewish tradition as well as literary and philosophical traditions of the West The insights taken from those traditions which explore the life of the soul are intended for anyone who has a soul The book is organized around eighteen words that form the foundations of human life The number eighteen is taken from the Hebrew word for life chai which has a numerical value of eighteen Among the words at the heart of these reflections are faith goodness responsibility meaning gratitude prayer love and others

Love and Terror in the God Encounter David Hartman, 2011-03-25 The intellectual legacy of one of the twentieth century's greatest religious thinkers explained by a leading theologian of our day It is only through experiencing the contradictions in human existence through being overwhelmed by the divine presence through the finite human being feeling terror stricken by the infinite majesty of God that one can develop an authentic religious personality David Hartman From Chapter 6 Rabbi Joseph B Soloveitchik 1903-1993 profoundly influenced modern Orthodox Judaism in the United States and Judaism as a whole by opening up a discourse between the tradition of Torah study and Western philosophical thought The future of both religious Zionism in Israel and of Orthodoxy in America hangs to a great extent on how we interpret his intellectual legacy Dr David Hartman's penetrating analysis of Rabbi Soloveitchik's work reveals a Judaism committed to intellectual courage integrity and openness A renowned theologian and philosopher Hartman meticulously explores the subtlety and complexity of Rabbi Soloveitchik's theological thought exposing a surprising intersection of halakhic tradition and modern Western theology a confrontation that deepens and expands our spiritual understanding Hartman's provocative interpretation bears witness to the legitimacy of remaining loyal to the Judaic tradition without sacrificing one's intellectual freedom and honesty      Jews and Zionism Gideon Shimoni,1980      Hollywood's Unofficial Film Corps Michael Berkowitz,2025-01-14 It has long been known that Hollywood was actively involved in shaping US public opinion during World War II Less well documented are the ways in which Washington sought to work behind the scenes subtly obliterating the boundaries between studio and government films Michael Berkowitz studies the contributions of humorist and best selling author Leo Rosten The Joys of Yiddish The Education of H Y M A N K A P L A N and writer producer and screenwriter Budd Schulberg On the Waterfront A Face in the Crowd in order to examine the elusive story of Jewish Hollywood's role in World War II Hollywood's Unofficial Film Corps shows that Rosten Schulberg and others including Garson Kanin George Cukor Stanley Kramer and Jules Buck created movies that were both entertaining and politically expeditious for US war aims At the same time in an effort to unify the American public they avoided focusing on the fate of European Jews even while addressing racism and antisemitism in the United States Jewish themes were often downplayed and Jewish directors writers and other contributors frequently went uncredited As Berkowitz writes Rosten's cohort changed feature films forever Thanks to his research we now have a better understanding of how and why      South African Jewry ,1965      Jewish Affairs ,2005      Studies in Contemporary Jewry Jonathan Frankel,Peter Y.
