The Republic of Monkeys Jean-Francois Kouadio,2018-12-29 How can poverty be eradicated How can Africa be industrialised How can corruption be fought How armed conflicts be settled Why are so many Africans maladjusted once back from western universities How can religious fundamentalism and fanaticism be contained Do we really fight xenophobia and tribalism How deeply do we comprehend the principles of the social contract How do we hold back and eradicate pandemic diseases How do we contain bad citizenship and insecurity The sole aim of these stories is to point out some of the daily behaviours Africans should rid ourselves of in the process of building better functioning societies The Lutheran

Witness ,1884 A confutation of the Rhemists translation, glosses and annotations on the New Testament Thomas Cartwright,1618 The Shadow of a Year John Gibney,2013-02-15 In October 1641 a rebellion broke out in Ireland Dispossessed Irish Catholics rose up against British Protestant settlers whom they held responsible for their plight This uprising the first significant sectarian rebellion in Irish history gave rise to a decade of war that would culminate in the brutal re conquest of Ireland by Oliver Cromwell It also set in motion one of the most enduring and acrimonious debates in Irish history Was the 1641 rebellion a justified response to dispossession and repression Or was it an unprovoked attempt at sectarian genocide John Gibney comprehensively examines three centuries of this debate The struggle to establish and interpret the facts of the past was also a struggle over the present if Protestants had been slaughtered by vicious Catholics this provided an ideal justification for maintaining Protestant privilege If on the other hand Protestant propaganda had inflated a few deaths into a vast and brutal massacre this justification was groundless Gibney shows how politicians historians and polemicists have represented and misrepresented 1641 over the centuries making a sectarian understanding of Irish history the dominant paradigm in the consciousness of the Irish Protestant and Catholic communities alike
