The Lost City Of The Condor:

At Home and Abroad V.S. Pritchett, 2011-10-28 Admirers of The Spanish Temper Marching Spain and his wonderfully evocative books on London Dublin and New York will need no reminding that V S Pritchett is one of the very great travel writers of our time possessed of an astonishingly accurate eye and a marvellous ability to conjure up the essence of a place and of the people who live there Written for the most part in the 1950s and 1960s the essays brought together in At Home and Abroad cover South and North America Spain Ireland Portugal London Greece the Pyrenees Germany the English countryside and above all the Mediterranean first published in book form in 1990 the year of Sir Victor's ninetieth birthday they are a delight in themselves and a timely reminder of or introduction to this most subtle and perceptive of writers

The Lost Inca Gold Chain of Machu Picchu Gary F. Swagart, 2000-11-30 In The Lost Gold Chain of Machu Picchu Gary Swagart provides a logical explanation for the establishment of Machu Picchu its abandonment after being occupied for several centuries the manner in which the rocks could have been fitted into the walls of Machu Picchu and Cuzco as they were and the way the large rocks were moved and placed by the Incas and Pre Incas He provides a very logical reason why no gold was found at Machu Picchu when it was excavated He provides a very logical reason for the existence of the Nazca Lines Mr Swagart provides a very logical description of the rise of the Inca Civilization why it banners displayed a rainbow and why it functioned so well He provides a very logical explanation of the canals on the plain about Lake Titicaca and the demise of the agricultural system that had existed there He provides a logical reason for the existence of sweet potatoes and other Peruvian plants on remote Pacific islands the great stone statues on Easter Island and the physical resemblance of many residents of South Pacific islands to Incas He explains the creation and subsequent loss of the fabulous three ton gold chain
