The Man of the House Stephen McCauley, 2012-07-31 Stephen McCauley's much loved novels The Object of My Affection and The Easy Way Out prompted The New York Times Book Review to dub him the secret love child of Edith Wharton and Woody Allen Now McCauley stakes further claim to that title and more with a rich and deftly funny novel that charts the unpredictable terrain of family friends and fathers Thirty five year old Clyde Carmichael spends too much time at things that make him miserable teaching at a posh but flaky adult learning center devouring forgettable celebrity biographies and obsessing about his ex lover Gordon Clyde's other chief pursuit is dodging his family his maddeningly insecure sister and his irascible father who may or may not be at death's door Clyde's in danger of becoming as aimless as Marcus his handsome and unswervingly straight roommate who's spent ten years on one dissertation and far too many fizzled relationships Enter Louise Morris Clyde's old friend and Marcus's onetime lover is a restless writer and single mother who shows up with Ben her son and a neurotic dog in tow The looming question of Ben's paternity nudges Clyde back into the orbit of his own father and propels our endearing hero into the kind of bittersweet emotional terrain that McCauley captures so well

Nightwalking Matthew Beaumont, 2025-07-22 A captivating literary portrait of London explored at night by some of the city's most iconic writers throughout history Cities like cats will reveal themselves at night wrote the poet Rupert Brooke Before the age of electricity the nighttime city was a very different place to the one we know today home to the lost the vagrant and the noctambulant Matthew Beaumont recounts an alternative history of London by focusing on those of its denizens who surface on the streets when the sun's down If nightwalking is a matter of going astray in the streets of the metropolis after dark then nightwalkers represent some of the most suggestive and revealing guides to the neglected and forgotten aspects of the city In this brilliant work of literary investigation Beaumont shines a light on the shadowy perambulations of poets novelists and thinkers Chaucer and Shakespeare William Blake and his ecstatic peregrinations and the feverish ramblings of opium addict Thomas De Quincey and among the lamp lit literary throng the supreme nightwalker Charles Dickens We discover how the nocturnal city has inspired some and served as a balm or narcotic to others In each case the city is revealed as a place divided between work and pleasure the affluent and the indigent where the entitled and the desperate jostle in the streets With a foreword and afterword by Will Self Nightwalking is a fascinating literary exploration of the writers who traverse the city at night and the people they meet

The Man of Last Resort & The Strange Schemes of Randolph Mason Melville Davisson Post, 2017-10-16 Randolph Mason is a brusque New York lawyer who is highly skilled at turning legal loopholes and technicalities to his clients advantage He is depicted as an utterly amoral

character who advises criminals how to commit wrongdoings without breaking the letter of the law The best known of these stories is The Corpus Delicti in which Mason's client murders a blackmailing lover and dissolves her dismembered corpse in acid Despite circumstantial evidence Mason secures his client's acquittal on the grounds that nobody has been found and there are no eyewitnesses to the woman's death as required by New York law at the time Post deflected criticism of such sensational stories by affirming that he was publicly exposing weaknesses in the law that needed to be rectified Melville Davisson Post 1869-1930 was an American author born in West Virginia Table of Contents The Strange Schemes of Randolph Mason The Corpus Delicti Two Plungers of Manhattan Woodford's Partner The Error of William Van Broom The Men of the Jimmy The Sheriff of Gullmore The Animus Furandi The Man of Last Resort The Clients of Randolph Mason The Governor's Machine Mrs Van Barton Once in Jeopardy The Grazier The Rule Against Carper     The Man of the Wilderness D. Larry Gregg, Sr., 2023-09-15 For centuries the First Jewish War Against Rome 66-70 C.E. and the subsequent fall of Masada has been synonymous with implacable courage against overwhelming odds This is the story of the courageous attempt of one determined man to live with integrity and die with honour First century Romans Jews and Christians the wise the mad the corrupt and the saintly meet in this inspiring tale of intrigue romance warfare and triumph     Red Grooms and the Heroism of Modern Life Red Grooms, Joyce Henri Robinson, 1998-01-01 Red Grooms is a cross between Marcel Duchamp and P.T. Barnum Working in a brash freewheeling style Grooms has explored the raucous spectacle of life around him since his career began in the 1950s This catalogue which accompanied an exhibition of the same name at the Palmer Museum of Art brings together forty of his works to demonstrate that even his most whimsical creations have serious implications Many of the mixed media constructions in Red Grooms and the Heroism of Modern Life reflect upon America's love affair with sports business and celebrity The mixture of parody and homage in Grooms's portraits of such stars as Pablo Picasso and Fats Domino charges all his depictions of American popular culture from bulky football players and haggard shoppers to a brightly colored Ferris wheel In her essay for this catalogue Joyce Henri Robinson contends that Grooms should be considered a contemporary counterpart to Charles Baudelaire's Parisian flaneur Much like this famed character she observes Grooms approaches the world around him as a spectacle filled with novel forms of heroism In this regard the key work in the catalogue is an installation centered upon a full scale version of a New York City bus Grooms's Bus tempers revelation of the gritty realities of urban life with humor and flashes of poetry
