At the Feet of Abraham Levi UC Nkwocha, 2020-11-30 This book advances an Abrahamic asymmetric mutual substitutive model of hospitality as a practical approach to establish peaceful coexistence between Muslims and Christians The merits include its helpful survey of the four models of interfaith dialogue and its clear exposition of the dialogue of life its constructive use of the philosophy of Levinas particularly in supporting its vision of asymmetrical moral responsibility among Muslim and Christians and its familiarity with an extensive philosophical literature on alterity, gift exchange and responsibility The research also demonstrates strong command of the relevant Christian and Muslim scriptures and Catholic teaching on interfaith relations in addition to a wide range of background material on African Ubuntu spirit visible in Nigerian sociocultural and religious interdependent relations Through a consistent engagement of these philosophical, ethical and cultural dimensions the Abrahamic theology of hospitality is ingeniously crafted to fill the age-old gap, mutual inability to deal with religious otherness At once the book provokes further scholarship inquiries on and around the identified concerns Its commonness and concreteness with the proposed respect for each other's faith commitment further underscores its quality Catholics in Interreligious Dialogue Anthony O'Mahony, Peter Bowe, 2006 This volume brings together a wide ranging and engaging series of studies that witness to the depth of theological reflection that the contemporary Christian monastic and scholarly community are engaged in as the religious traditions seek to understand and relate to each other in a global context Catholic

The INTRAFaith Conversation: How Do Christians Talk Among Ourselves About INTERfaith Matters? Susan Strouse, 2016-03-18 This crisp and cogent book by the Rev Dr Strouse is published at a time when both interfaith and intrafaith dialogue are critical to the vitality of spiritual life in our nation As a parish pastor in a small struggling congregation I have become increasingly aware of the insularity and isolation of many of our parishioners This seems less the result of inadequate parish education as it is the byproduct of too many people getting their information from biased TV networks so called social media or word of mouth We parish pastors need to examine our internal intra congregational conversations about diverse faith traditions and how they bear on congregational mission I was particularly impressed by the author's use of footnotes and her extensive bibliography The book is a walking talking workshop in print with its detailed reflection discussion questions and suggestions for further reading Thank you Pastor Strouse for such a comprehensive presentation of how to approach constructively this timely and important conversation Review by Richard G Eddy

The Im-possibility of Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, 2008 In the face of competing religious claims in our shrinking world many turn to dialogue as a hopeful way of fostering understanding and reducing violence But why does actual dialogue so often fail This provocative study investigates the possibilities and limits of interreligious dialogue By showing the significant obstacles for dialogue within Christianity the book also proposes ways in which these obstacles may be overcome from within Major themes include Humility Conviction Interconnection Empathy and Generosity

Pathways for Inter-Religious Dialogue in the Twenty-First Century Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Peter C. Phan, 2016-01-26 Without question inter religious relations are crucial in the contemporary age While most dialogue works on past and contemporary matters this volume takes on the relations among the Abrahamic religions and looks forward toward the possibility of real and lasting dialogue The book centers upon inter faith issues It identifies problems that stand in the way of fostering healthy dialogues both within particular religious traditions and between faiths The volume's contributors strive for a realization of already existing common ground between religions They engagingly explore how inter religious dialogue can be re energized for a new century

Particularism and Universalism in the Book of Isaiah Se-Hoon Jang, 2005 This study offers a critical assessment of the two contested issues religious pluralism and iconoclasm from a Korean perspective by looking at a number of Isaiah's central themes which can be identified as particularistic and universalistic It also seeks to elucidate the contemporary implications of Isaiah's particularistic and universalistic themes for a pluralistic world especially for Korean religious communities which have been overwhelmed by a fiery debate about these issues

about the ecumenical movement's relevance the authors demonstrate the necessity of working together for the betterment of all This book deepens our understanding of how theology peace and reconciliation studies and interfaith dialogue critically cooperate for the flourishing of earth's life The perspective of church unity amid ecclesial division is broadened to embrace interfaith and intercultural issues ecumenics becomes visible as the intellectual paradigm of our times The Intersubjective Turn Olen Gunnlaugson, Charles Scott, Heesoon Bai, Edward W. Sarath, 2017-10-11 Examines key theoretical aspects of the emerging field of second person contemplative education A first of its kind this book maps out current academic approaches in higher education to second person contemplative education which addresses contemplative experience from an intersubjective perspective Until recently contemplative studies has emphasized a predominantly first person standpoint but the expansion and embrace of second person methods provides a distinctive learning context in which collective wisdom and shared learning can begin to emerge from dialogue among students and groups in the classroom The contributors to this volume leading researchers and practitioners from a variety of institutions and departments examine the theoretical and philosophical foundations of second person contemplative approaches to instruction pedagogy and curricula across various scholarly disciplines Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Renáta Katalin Nelson, 2021-09-20 In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects In doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects Peaceworks, 2006 Cultures and Religions in Dialogue Panikkar, Raimon, 2018-12-20 World Christianity Encounters World Religions Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2018-10-23 Synthesizing the thinking of the most prominent scholars Professor Edmund Chia discusses practically everything that should be known about Christianity's encounter with other religions in this comprehensive book Topics include the invention of the idea of World Religions and World Christianity the Bible and the church's attitude toward other faiths Vatican II Asian Christianity and interfaith dialoguethe what why when and how of dialoguethe global ecumenical movementtheologies of religious pluralismcross textual hermeneuticscomparative theologyinterfaith worshipreligious syncretismmultiple religious belonginginterfaith learning in seminaries Interculturality, Rationality and Dialogue Carlos Miguel Gómez, 2012-04-10

This work is a philosophical investigation into the argumentative conditions for intercultural dialogue in Latin America Through a critical discussion of some key theories of argumentation and intercultural dialogue and a thoughtful analysis of the Latin American context of diversity this book develops an intercultural model of argumentation based on the criteria of Intercultural Reasonableness and Discursive Interpellation These criteria which have a contextual and dialogical character aim to offer the appropriate normative ground for a polylogical argumentative dialogue in which the parties can make use of their own types of language and rationality without presupposing a common standard for the rational evaluation of arguments

Twentieth Century Christian Responses to Religious Pluralism David Pitman, 2016-02-17 Twentieth Century Christian Responses to Religious Pluralism begins with the recognition that the traditional three fold typology adopted by Christians in responding to other living world religions is no longer adequate and offers a much more sophisticated and developed approach This is accomplished with particular reference to ten key Twentieth Century theologians each of whom had significant influence in the field of inter religious studies both during their lifetime and beyond The author rejects the exclusivism and triumphalism of traditional Christian approaches and argues strongly and persuasively that the future for inter religious relationships lies in what he describes as classical pluralism and in an understanding of the importance of difference for inter faith dialogue Presenting an accessible introduction to the contemporary issues and challenges facing all those engaged in the further development of inter faith relationships dialogue and partnership between the world religions Pitman argues that the future of world peace and prosperity depends on the outcome

The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye, 2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background
