Carver McGriff, 1998 Preachers must understand the teaching techniques of parable and hyperbole not to mention having a good background in systematic theology in order to understand what the Bible s writers really meant But our responsibility is also to reduce the complexities of Bible study to such simplicities that our many listeners ranging from busy young professional people to aging men and women of failing health to youngsters facing a variety of new temptations can take away a saving word from the Preface E Carver McGriff provides the tools preachers need for their daunting task with some of the most timely and thought provoking research on the lectionary texts ever made available Included for each scriptural lesson in the lectionary are A listing of the applicable Revised Common Roman Catholic and Episcopal lectionary texts A description of the Psalm of the day A prayer for the day Commentary that is more than academic exegesis McGriff brings to the forefront those points in the lessons that relate most poignantly to our contemporary reality Suggested sermon titles for each of the three texts for each Sunday Themes and suggested directions for preaching on each text Several additional illustrations to enliven your preaching Known in the Indianapolis community as a preacher with extraordinary gifts it is no surprise at all that this work by Carver McGriff brings remarkable insights to those who look for integrity in their preaching Carver looks at the texts with a freshness that is sure to stimulate the thought process Careful use of these suggestions will bring serendipities to preacher and congregation George H Tooze Senior Minister First Baptist Church Indianapolis Indiana One of America s premiere preachers E Carver McGriff returned home after earning two Purple Hearts during World War II to earn a degree in business administration from Butler University Following a career as a salesman and business owner McGriff entered Garrett Theological Seminary where he was voted Best Preacher by the faculty and graduated with distinction During his 26 year ministry at St Luke s Methodist Church in Indianapolis McGriff spearheaded his congregation s remarkable growth in membership from 900 to 4 400 with average Sunday attendance increasing from 300 to over 1 850 McGriff received an honorary degree from the University of Indianapolis and the Outstanding Alumnus award from Butler University and was voted the Distinguished Alumnus of the year by Christian Theological Seminary McGriff was also honored in 1993 by the Governor of Indiana with the Sagamore of the Wabash His sermons have been distributed nationwide by the United Methodist Publishing House

Postils for Preaching John Rollefson, 2017-03-31 Postils for Preaching repristines an old term for commentaries on the appointed texts by assisting preachers in their time honored calling of preaching the Word Postilla some think probably refers to the reflecting after this meaning upon the texts that preachers must do in the context of the lives of their congregations and larger communities These essays do not aim to be sermons but sermon starters goads and incitements to consider the assigned texts with serious imagination and good humor all in the context of the church year and its inter textual connections The intention of this publication is to dip into a lifetime of that exegetical and homiletical bag of tricks as Jesus himself obliquely recommended when he noted how every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old Matt 13 52 Please consider these postils a thesaurus treasury from
