direction of South Asia's canon formation and left a lasting impression on our understanding of Buddhist art River's Call Melody Carlson, 2012-02-01 Anna Larson's daughter Lauren is confused, brokenhearted and misguided. It's the turbulent 1960s and feeling alienated from her mother, Lauren chooses to stay with her paternal grandmother. However, repelled by the woman's manipulative and spiteful ways, Lauren returns to her mother, the river, and the Inn at Shining Waters. There, Lauren begins to appreciate the person her mother is becoming and she loves the river. However, romantic interests throw a wrench into the works and Lauren, jealous and angry, returns to her grandmother yet again. But as time passes, Lauren, now a mother to her own defiant teenager, faces a new crisis, one that puts the entire family at risk. Colorful characters, entrancing setting, and a twisting yet natural plot carried me along. A lovely read. Lyn Cote, Author of Her Abundant Joy Oral History and the Holocaust in Slovakia Monika Vrzgulová, 2024-12-18 Nearly thirty years ago, Monika Vrzgulová took part in the very first oral history research project aimed at Holocaust survivors in Slovakia. That project transformed her professionally as well as her personal life. The Holocaust as a scholarly subject and the oral history method have stayed with her to this day. This book summarizes her findings and the experience she has acquired researching Holocaust memory, combining memory studies, oral history, autoethnography, and reflexive writing methods. It presents data from two international research projects which took part in Slovakia too and are available to experts and the public online. The insights gained from this research are contextualised with the social situation in a country that is trying to come to terms with its past after the fall of Communism.

Health Without Bodies Kim Hendrickx, 2023-11-22 Health Without Bodies invites readers on an ethnographic exploration of the boundary between food and medicine. Food-related health claims are governed in the EU as voluntary statements on food labels to help consumers make informed choices. This poses an interesting problem when claims refer to health: one can no longer ignore that consumers have bodies. Asking how these claims have become possible as a new kind of truth statement on the market, this book reveals the contours of a fundamental tension between what is expected from consumers in a liberal market economy and how food and the body come to trouble those expectations. In doing so, it illuminates why the difference between food and medicine is such a sensitive issue and why seemingly trivial health claims have been subject to so much debate and political control. Afterword by Isabelle Stengers Philosophy as Experimentation, Dissidence and Heterogeneity José Miranda Justo, Elisabete M. de Sousa, Fernando M. F. Silva, 2021-09-24 Contemporary philosophical research interconnects classical domains of philosophy: the arts, literature, and social sciences. This collection of essays explores the operational role of experimentation, dissidence, and heterogeneity in this process. It offers fundamentals for the criticism of monolithical tendencies often put forward under the banner of the Speculative Turn or New Realism by means of exploring the contribution and influence of authors such as J. G. Hamann, Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, and Guy Debord. These philosophers, historically placed within the margins of the philosophical mainstream, were decisive in the emergence of the philosophical thought and practices of Deleuze, Wittgenstein, and Bataille, as shown here. The reader will also find re-evaluations of the contributions of Vico Spinoza or Kant to posterity next to new readings of authors like Foucault Hadot Benjamin and Adorno with regards to their significant experimental and dissident positions A Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Landed Gentry of Ireland Bernard Burke,1899 Pediatric Psychosocial Oncology: Textbook for Multidisciplinary Care Annah N. Abrams,Anna C. Muriel,Lori Wiener,2015-11-16 This textbook walks clinicians through the psychosocial issues and challenges faced by children and adolescents with cancer and their families Through a developmental lens the text provides guidance and resources that will enable clinicians to understand the physical and emotional impact of the disease from diagnosis onwards to work with families in distress and to diagnose and treat a range of behavioral psychological and psychiatric issues The book also addresses the burgeoning fields of social media complementary therapies palliative care and survivorship Among the variety of useful resources supplied are assessment tools websites and additional reading materials The psychosocial issues that arise for children and their families during the course of treatment are an important yet often overlooked aspect of pediatric oncology care The reader will find that Pediatric Psychosocial Oncology Textbook for Multidisciplinary Care covers these issues at the forefront of clinical care in a direct and approachable way integrating research literature with practical clinical guidance A Genealogical and Heraldic Dictionary of the Landed Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland Bernard Burke,1862 The Routledge History of the Senses Andrew Kettler,Will Tullett,2025-06-26 The Routledge History of the Senses presents readers with an overview of the field As well as pointing to directions for the future of the discipline it illustrates the extent to which the subject offers a considerable space for the exploration of diverse historical topics through the lens of sensory experience The handbook brings together essays and case studies from some of the leading academics on the history of the senses Together they not only chart topics and arguments in existing scholarship but introduce fresh methodologies for future analyses Specifically the chapters collectively show that the senses of the historical body often portray the intensity of the invasion of capital upon the functions of the mind throughout global history As a global history this work arrives at a time when many sensory historians are looking for a touchstone for moving beyond the often heavily Western frameworks that dominate the existing literature on the historical senses Not only will this book appeal to students and scholars of the history of senses visual studies art history food studies and many of the social sciences but individual chapters also offer useful reading material for a wide range of history modules and contemporary topics Original Letters, Illustrative of English History Henry Ellis,1827 Original Letters, Illustrative of English History Sir Henry Ellis,1827 Original Letters, Illustrative of English History ,1827 Cowboy Yard Sale - Mining Diamonds Opal Nicks,2025-04-21 Two Hearts One Last Chance and a Town Full of Surprises Anna thought she d left her haunting fears and the charming cowboy Jess behind after her Fourth of July road trip But the pull of Cady Springs with its majestic mountains and warm community proves irresistible When she returns for another visit old sparks reignite and she s forced to confront the trust issues that have kept her guarded Jess has his own ghosts to battle including a former lover determined to stir up trouble Yet when Anna walks back into his life he knows she s worth fighting for Amid the excitement of the Cowboy Yard Sale and under the starry Colorado skies they begin to imagine a future together But love isn t easy especially with the past threatening to overshadow their budding romance As Anna and Jess navigate misunderstandings risk taking and the interference of others they must decide if their connection is worth the leap of faith Can they overcome their fears and let love take root in the heart of Cady Springs Cowboy Yard Sale Mining Diamonds is a steamy heartfelt second installment in Opal Nicks Cowboys of Cady Springs series filled with emotional depth swoon worthy romance and the enduring bonds of friendship If you love second chance love stories with rugged cowboys small town charm and a dash of drama this book is for you A no cheating no cliffhanger HEA guaranteed story that can be read as a standalone or as part of the series

Covert Plants Prudence Gibson,Baylee Brits,2018 Covert Plants contributes to newly emerging discourses on the implications of vegetal life for the arts and culture This stretches to changes in our perception of nature and to the adapting roles of botany evolutionary ecology and environmental aesthetics in the humanities Its editors and contributors seek various expressions of vegetal life rather than the mere representation of such and they proceed from the conviction that a rigorous approach to thinking with and through vegetal life must be interdisciplinary At a time when urgent calls for restorative care and reparative action have been sounded for the environment this essay volume presents a range of academic and creative perspectives from evolutionary biology to literary theory philosophy to poetry which respond to the perplexing problems and paradoxes of vegetal thinking Representations of vegetal life often include plant analogies and plant imagery These representations have at times obscured the diversity of plant behavior and experience Covert Plants probes the implications of vegetal life for thought and how new plant science is changing our perception of the vegetal around us and in us How can we think speak and write about plant life without falling into human nature dyads or without tumbling into reductive theoretical notions about the always complex relations between cognition and action identity and value subject and object A full view of this shifting perspective requires a stereoscopic lens through which to view plants but also simultaneously to alter our human centered viewpoint Plants are no longer the passive object of contemplation but are increasingly resembling subjects stakeholders or actors As such the plant now makes unprecedented demands upon the nature of contemplation itself Moreover the aesthetic political and legal implications of new knowledge regarding plants ability to communicate sense and learn require intensive cross disciplinary investigation By doing this we can intervene into current attitudes to climate change and sustainability and hopefully revise for the better human philosophies ethics and aesthetics that touch upon plant life
