Time, the City, and the Literary Imagination Anne-Marie Evans, Kaley Kramer, 2020-11-18 Time the City and the Literary Imagination explores the relationship between the constructions and representations of the relationship between time and the city in literature published between the late eighteenth century and the present This collection offers a new way of reading the literary city by tracing the ways in which the relationship between time and urban space can shape literary narratives and forms The essays consider the representation of a range of literary cities from across the world and consider how an understanding of time and time passing can impact on our understanding of the primary texts Literature necessarily deals with time both as a function of storytelling and as an experience of reading In this volume the contributions demonstrate how literature about cities brings to the forefront the relationship between individual and communal experience and time In Search of the Afropolitan Eva Rask Knudsen, Ulla Rahbek, 2016-07-18 In Search of the Afropolitan explores human encounters and moments that speak to the challenges of being a 21st century African of the world Against the background of an engaging evaluation of the heated debate on Afropolitanism and what constitutes an Afropolitan the authors turn to literature and its intrinsic capacity for unfolding the human figure of the African as inherently complex and multidimensional Through a detailed probing of the Afropolitan in literary narratives the book enters into conversations about self understanding and the signification of Africa in the contexts of global mobility The book conceives of Afropolitanism as a flexible space of inquiry that curbs the inclination to set the definition of the ism in stone Instead it attempts to distil through close up character analyses a multifarious sense of what it means to be Afropolitan in the contemporary moment In that sense the encounters we come across in the literary narratives produce unexpected ontological negotiations on what it means to be African in the world today As a special feature of In Search of the Afropolitan the authors conversations with prominent writers thinkers and critics provide a lively context for the ongoing debate on Afropolitanism and the Afropolitan OE [publication],1966 Moving On Jane Morris, D. de'Souza George, 2019-05-28 Staging the Amistad collects in print for the first time plays about the Amistad slave revolt by three of Sierra Leone's most influential playwrights of the latter decades of the twentieth century Charlie Haffner Yulisa Amadu Pat Maddy and Raymond E D de Souza George Until the late 1980s when the first of these plays was performed the 1839 shipboard slave rebellion and the return of its victors to their homes in what is modern day Sierra Leone had been an unrecognized chapter in the country's history. The plays recast the tale of heroism survival and resistance to tyranny as a distinctly Sierra Leonean story emphasizing the agency of its African protagonists For this reason Haffner Maddy and de Souza George counterbalance the better known American representations of the rebellion which center on American characters and American political and cultural concerns The first public performances of these plays constituted a watershed moment Written and staged immediately before and after the start of Sierra Leone's decade long conflict they brought the Amistad rebellion to public consciousness Furthermore their turn to a uniquely Sierra Leonean history of heroic resistance to tyranny highlights the persistent faith in nation state nationalism and the dreams of decolonization Bicycle War Billy Kahora, 2020-03-24 Each of the realistic worlds Billy Kahora brings us in the short stories and novella that make up The Cape Cod Bicycle War and Other Stories explores the tensions and transitions of characters moving between youthful folly and a precarious adulthood In the title story immigrant workers with varying ambitions work at a Wendy's in wintry Cape Cod Sharing one house they must also share or rather compete for bicycles crucial transportation which are in short supply In other stories a young man caught between a broken family and political violence befriends an aged gorilla in a Nairobi zoo a pastor struggles to come to terms with the arrest of his brother who is suspected of terrorism and a dissolute bank employee on a serious bender returns to work to face a review board The Cape Cod Bicycle War and Other Stories is Billy Kahora's long awaited debut collection Stories in this volume have appeared in Granta and McSweeney's and have been shortlisted for the Caine Prize for African Writing The Extinction of Menai Chuma Nwokolo, 2018-03-07 In the early 1980s a pharmaceutical company administers an unethical drug trial to residents of the Niger Delta village of Kreektown When children die as a result of the trial the dominoes of language extinction and cultural collapse begin to topple Decades later the end looms for the Menai people Continents apart twin brothers separated at birth an excommunicated daughter living an urbane life with her doctor husband and an infamous vigilante are among the indelible characters whose lives are shaped by this collective tragedy Not least of these is the spiritual leader Mata Nimito who retraces his people s ancient migration on his quest to preserve the soul of the Menai and resolve the consequences of a centuries old betrayal In The Extinction of
