The Routledge Companion to Eighteenth-Century Literatures in English Sarah Eron, Nicole N. Aljoe, Suvir Kaul, 2024-03-25 The Routledge Companion to Eighteenth Century Literatures in English brings together essays that respond to consequential cultural and socio economic changes that followed the expansion of the British Empire from the British Isles across the Atlantic Scholars track the cumulative power of the slave trade settlements and plantations and the continual warfare that reshaped lives in the Americas Africa and Asia Importantly they also analyze the ways these histories reshaped class and social relations scientific inquiry and invention philosophies of personhood and cultural and intellectual production As European nations fought each other for territories and trade routes dispossessing and enslaving Indigenous and Black people the observations of travellers naturalists and colonists helped consolidate racism and racial differentiation as well as the philosophical justifications of civilizational differences that became the hallmarks of intellectual life Essays in this volume address key shifts in disciplinary practices even as they examine the past looking forward to and modeling a rethinking of our scholarly and pedagogic practices This volume is an essential text for academics researchers and students researching eighteenth century literature history and culture Heteronormativity in Eighteenth-Century Literature and Culture Ana de Freitas Boe, Abby Coykendall, 2016-04-22 The resurgence of marriage as a transnational institution same sex or otherwise draws upon as much as it departs from enlightenment ideologies of sex gender and sexuality which this collection aims to investigate interrogate and conceptualize anew Coming to terms with heteronormativity is imperative for appreciating the literature and culture of the eighteenth century writ large as well as the myriad imaginaries of sex and sexuality that the period bequeaths to the present This collection foregrounds British European and to a lesser extent transatlantic heteronormativities in order to pose vital if vexing questions about the degree of continuity subsisting between heteronormativities of the past and present questions compounded by the aura of transhistoricity lying at the heart of heteronormativity as an ideology Contributors attend to the fissures and failures of heteronormativity even as they stress the resilience of its hegemony reconfiguring our sense of how gender and sexuality came to be mapped onto space how public and private spheres were carved up or gendered and sexual bodies socially sanctioned and finally how literary traditions scholarly criticisms and pedagogical practices have served to buttress or contest the legacy of heteronormativity celebrity in the long eighteenth century that reaches into the nineteenth century and beyond The anecdote erases boundaries between public and private and fictionalizing the individual in ways deeply familiar to twenty first century celebrity culture

Artificial Color Catherine Keyser, 2019 This book examines how modern US writers used the changing geographies regimens and technologies of modern food to reimagine racial classification and to question its relationship to the mutable body By challenging a cultural ideal of purity this literature proposes that racial whiteness is perhaps the most artificial color Citizens and Sodomites: Persecution and Perception of Sodomy in the Southern Low Countries (1400–1700) Jonas Roelens, 2024-02-06 The Southern Low Countries were among Europe's core regions for the repression of sodomy during the late medieval period As the first comprehensive study on sodomy in the Southern Low Countries this book charts the prosecution of sodomy in some of the region's leading cities such as Bruges Ghent and Antwerp from 1400 to 1700 and explains the reasons behind local differences and variations in the intensity of prosecution over time Through a critical examination of a range of sources this study also considers how the urban fabric perceived sodomy and provides a broader interpretive framework for its meaning within the local culture Transatlantic Women Travelers, 1688-1843 Misty Krueger, 2021-03-12 This important new collection explores representations of late seventeenth through mid nineteenth century transatlantic women travelers across a range of historical and literary works While at one time transatlantic studies concentrated predominantly on men's travels this volume highlights the resilience of women who ventured voluntarily and by force across the Atlantic some seeking mobility adventure knowledge wealth and freedom and others surviving subjugation capture and enslavement The essays gathered here concern themselves with the fictional and the historical national and geographic location racial and ethnic identities and the configuration of the transatlantic world in increasingly taught texts such as The Female American and The Woman of Colour as well as less familiar material such as Merian's writing on the insects of Surinam and Falconbridge's travels to Sierra Leone Intersectional in its approach and with an afterword by Eve Tayor Bannet this essential collection will prove indispensable as it provides fresh new perspectives on transatlantic texts and women's travel therein across the long eighteenth century applications of narrative theory and a point of departure for new scholarship Same-Sex Desire and the Environment in Norwegian Literature, 1908-1979 Per Esben Svelstad,2024-05-07 This book explores how ideas of nature and the nonhuman play an important part in literary depictions of same sex desire in twentieth century Norwegian literature Critically probing dichotomies such as pastoral urban and human animal the chapters show how literary fiction constructs represents and interprets experiences of same sex love and attraction traditionally conceived as unnatural Providing in depth studies of a variety of texts this book demonstrates the merits of bridging the gap between the de naturalizing project of gender and queer theory on the one hand and on the other the ecocritical centering of material nonhuman environments

The Cambridge Companion to Sappho P. J. Finglass, Adrian Kelly, 2021-04-29 A detailed up to date survey of the most important woman writer from Greco Roman antiquity Examines the nature and context of her poetic achievement the transmission loss and rediscovery of her poetry and the reception of that poetry in cultures far removed from ancient Greece including Latin America India China and Japan The Circuit of Apollo Laura Runge, Jessica Cook, 2019-05 Historicizes British women's relationships with other women through the medium of commemorative writing over the course of the long eighteenth century Featuring archival discoveries the contributions in this volume trace female networks friendships rivalries and competition and uncover the material record of women s honor The Cambridge Companion to Lesbian Literature Jodie Medd, 2015 The Cambridge Companion to Lesbian Literature examines literary representations of lesbian sexuality identities and communities from the medieval period to the present In so doing it delivers insight into the variety of traditions that have shaped the present landscape of lesbian literature Before Queer Theory Dustin Friedman, 2019-09-03 A reimagining of how the aesthetic movement of the Victorian era ushered in modern queer theory Late Victorian aesthetes were dedicated to the belief that an artwork s value derived solely from its beauty rather than any moral or utilitarian purpose Works by these gueer artists have rarely been taken seriously as contributions to the theories of sexuality or aesthetics But in Before Queer Theory Dustin Friedman argues that aestheticism deploys its art for art s sake rhetoric to establish a nascent sense of sexual identity and community Friedman makes the case for a claim rarely articulated in either Victorian or modern culture that intellectually creatively and ethically being gueer can be an advantage not in spite but because of social hostility toward nonnormative desires Showing how aesthetes among them Walter Pater Oscar Wilde Vernon Lee and Michael Field harnessed the force that Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel called the negative Friedman reveals how becoming self aware of one s sexuality through art can be both liberating and affirming of humanity s capacity for subjective autonomy Challenging one of the central precepts of modern gueer theory the notion that the heroic subject of Enlightenment thought is merely an effect of discourse and power Friedman develops a new framework for understanding the relationship between desire and self determination He also articulates an innovative queer notion of subjective autonomy that encourages reflecting critically on one s historical moment and envisioning new modes of seeing thinking and living that expand the boundaries of social and intellectual structures Before Queer Theory is an audacious reimagining that will appeal to scholars with interests in Victorian studies queer theory gender and sexuality studies and art history Fate and Fortune in European Thought, ca. 1400–1650 Ovanes Akopyan,2021-04-26 If the universe were conceived to fulfill a certain divine plan or to manifest God s will and glory what would the place of an individual be within this plan What is more if from the very beginning of its existence and through divine providence it were predestined to be driven toward a certain end how could people adjust their individual lives to the incognizable universal design and react to the obscure future fraught with both luck and failure These questions which have occupied humanity for centuries formed a remarkable element of early modern European thought This collection of essays presents new insights into what shaped and constituted reflections on fate and fortune between roughly 1400 and 1650 both in word and image This volume argues that these ideas were emblematic of a more fundamental argument about the self society and the universe and shows that their influence was more widespread geographically and thematically than hitherto assumed Contributors Damiano Acciarino Ovanes Akopyan Elisabeth Blum Paul Richard Blum Jo Coture Guido Giglioni Dalia Judovitz Sophie Raux Orlando Reade and John Sellars
