Cole and British Sociology* Matt Dawson,2024-12-01 This book explores G D H Cole s significant yet often overlooked role in the history of British Sociology from 1920 1960 Eager to achieve a sense of scientific legitimacy following its institutionalisation in the early 1900s British sociology had no space for a scholar like Cole who saw sociology as an innately normative and political project which in his case was dedicated to the development of socialism Conceptualising Cole s relationship to sociology as one of semi alienation suggesting an openness to the principles of the discipline yet disagreement with the form it takes in the current day Dawson shows how Cole made a number of important sociological contributions which were grounded in an early form of structuration theory including the production of one of Britain s first sociology textbooks and an early monograph on the sociology of class A passionate advocate for what sociology could be Cole was a promoter of the sociological Marx and interrogator of Durkheim as part of his desire to develop sociology in Britain including at his own institute of the University of Oxford Cole also produced a distinctive corpus of public and creative sociology expressed in newspaper articles poems and songs Drawing on archival research Dawson reintegrates Cole into the history of British Sociology and in so doing offers valuable insight into sociology s history and its contemporary form emphasising a normative critical and public form of the discipline British Museum Catalogue of printed Books ,1881

Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1869 Memoirs of British Generals Distinguished During the Peninsular War John William Cole, 1856 Germans in the Civil War Walter D. Kamphoefner, Wolfgang Helbich, 2009-09-15 German Americans were one of the largest immigrant groups in the Civil War era and they comprised nearly 10 percent of all Union troops Yet little attention has been paid to their daily lives both on the battlefield and on the home front during the war This collection of letters written by German immigrants to friends and family back home provides a new angle to our understanding of the Civil War experience and challenges some long held assumptions about the immigrant experience at this time Originally published in Germany in 2002 this collection contains more than three hundred letters written by seventy eight German immigrants men and women soldiers and civilians from the North and South Their missives tell of battles and boredom privation and profiteering motives for enlistment and desertion and for avoiding involvement altogether Although written by people with a variety of backgrounds these letters describe the conflict from a distinctly German standpoint the editors argue casting doubt on the claim that the Civil War was the great melting pot that eradicated ethnic antagonisms Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1902 The Spectator ,1856 Churchill's Army Stephen Bull, 2016 A fascinating and informative account of every facet of life in the UK army during the Second World War English Mechanic and World of Science ,1869 The Oxford Handbook of British and Irish War Poetry Tim Kendall, 2007-02-22 The Handbook ranges widely and in depth across 20th century war poetry incorporating detailed discussions of some of the key poets of the period It is an essential resource for scholars of particular poets and for those interested in wider debates Contributors include some of the most important international poetry critics of our time
