Trusting in the Pensions Promise Great Britain: Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman, 2006-03-14 This report sets out the results of the Ombudsman s investigation into over 200 complaints about the security of final salary occupational pension schemes and alleged delays in the winding up of certain such schemes and the involvement of public bodies in this matter Chapter 1 explains the Ombudsman s role and jurisdiction and the background to the investigation Chapter 2 details the complaints and the Government s initial response chapter 3 sets out the results of further enquiries to help understand the context of the complaints The fourth chapter provides the evidence that the investigation has disclosed through consideration of departmental files official publications and other documentary sources Chapters 5 and 6 contain the findings and the recommendations The seventh chapter gives the Ombudsman s assessment of the Government response appendix D to the report and the final chapter is the Ombudsman s conclusion The Ombudsman makes three findings of maladministration by public bodies i official information about the security that members of final salary schemes could expect from the minimum funding requirement MFR was sometimes inaccurate often incomplete largely inconsistent and therefore potentially misleading ii the response by DWP to the actuarial profession's recommendation that disclosure should be made to pension scheme members of the risks of wind up and the risks to accrued pension rights iii the decision in 2002 by DWP to approve a change to the MFR basis This maladministration was a significant contributory factor in the creation of the financial losses suffered by individuals amounting to injustice Recommendations include restoration of the core pension and non core benefits and some consolatory payments to those fully covered by the recommendations an apology to scheme trustees for the effects of the maladministration and a review with the pensions industry to improve the time taken to wind up schemes The Government however is minded not to comply with all of the recommendations and so the Ombudsman reports to both Houses of Parliament that she has identified injustice caused by maladministration which the Government does not propose to remedy Aging, 1988 The
