Penal Code Laws In Nigeria:

Islamic Criminal Law in Northern Nigeria Gunnar J. Weimann, 2010 Annotation In 2000 and 2001 twelve northern states of the Federal Republic of Nigeria introduced Islamic criminal law as one of a number of measures aiming at reintroducing the shari'a. Immediately after its adoption defendants were sentenced to death by stoning or to amputation of the hand. Apart from a few well publicised trials however the number and nature of cases tried under Islamic criminal law are little known. Based on a sample of trials the present thesis discusses the introduction of Islamic criminal law and the evolution of judicial practice within the regions historical cultural political and religious context. The introduction of Islamic criminal law was initiated by politicians and supported by Muslim reform groups but its potential effects were soon mitigated on higher judicial levels and aspects of the law were contained by local administrators. This title can be previewed in Google Books <http://books.google.com/books/vid/ISBN9789056296551> Principles of Criminal Liability in Nigerian Law T. Akinola Aguda, Isabella E. Okagbue, 1990 Family and Succession Law in Nigeria Nwudego Nkemakonam Chinwuba, 2022-11-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this concise exposition and analysis of the essential elements of law with regard to family relations marital property and succession to estates in Nigeria covers the legal rules and customs pertaining to the intertwined civic status of persons the family and property. After an informative general introduction the book proceeds to an in depth discussion of the sources and instruments of family and succession law the authorities that adjudicate and administer the laws and issues surrounding the person as a legal entity and the legal disposition of property among family members. Such matters as nationality domicile and residence marriage divorce and cohabitation adoption and guardianship succession and inter vivos arrangements and the acquisition and administration of estates are all treated to a degree of depth that will prove useful in nearly any situation likely to arise in legal practice. The book is primarily designed to assist lawyers who find themselves having to apply rules of international private law or otherwise handling cases connected with Nigeria. It will also be of great value to students and practitioners as a quick guide and easy to use practical resource in the field and especially to academicians and researchers engaged in comparative studies by providing the necessary basic material of family and succession law. Islamic Law Practice and Procedure in Nigerian Courts Abubakar, Adamu, 2017-05-01 Islamic Law Practice and Procedure in Nigerian Courts is about the rules of practice procedure and evidence in trials of civil and criminal cases before Area Courts Sharia Courts Upper Area Courts Upper Sharia Courts Sharia Courts of Appeal Court of Appeal and indeed Supreme Court of Nigeria in matters concerning application of Islamic law and practice. Abortion law reform in Africa: A reproductive health and rights perspective Charles Ngwena, Ebenezer Durojaye, Satang Nabaneh, Nkatha Murungi, 2025-05-26

Despite notable legal and policy advancements in post colonial Africa unsafe abortion remains a pressing public health concern Abortion Law Reform in Africa A Reproductive Health and Rights Perspective spearheaded by the late Professor Charles Ngwena offers a vital and timely examination of this ongoing challenge This collection of essays moves beyond a mere analysis of legal texts unpacking the deep rooted barriers that continue to limit access to safe abortion services in Africa The authors critically assess the real world impact of current reforms highlighting their shortcomings in providing accessible rights based care They offer concrete strategies aimed at strengthening legal and policy frameworks to promote reproductive autonomy improve reproductive health outcomes and advance gender equality for women and girls confronting unwanted pregnancies Through a compelling exploration of how restrictive laws push countless women towards unsafe procedures often with fatal or debilitating consequences the volume underscores that meaningful reform demands more than legislative change It calls for addressing the broader social economic and cultural determinants that restrict access to abortion care By advocating for the implementation of progressive instruments such as the African Women's Protocol this book stands as a powerful call to action for African policymakers and stakeholders to facilitate access to safe abortion care services It urges the adoption of comprehensive and transformative measures that can truly secure women's rights to safe abortion and prevent needless suffering and death

Human Rights Manual and Sourcebook for Africa Keir Starmer, Theodora A. Christou, 2005

At a time when the issue of human rights in Africa is making many advances Human Rights Sourcebook and Manual for Africa introduces easy to use jurisprudence The first section covers key principles and human rights norms which are detailed in straightforward language The second section is devoted to the death penalty detailing the relevant provisions from both international and regional instruments and offering a comparative commentary as to how the principles and relevant rights relate to the death penalty The third section summarizes key case law from international regional and domestic African courts and tribunals The case summaries detail the facts and decisions and include a headnote of relevant concepts for quick reference The fourth section focuses on thirteen African countries yet the reports are a useful comparative resource for all countries From conducting the research and compiling the material for this final section it is apparent that nothing like this has been attempted before in Africa Much of the work emanates from primary research and investigation conducted by local research teams in the individual countries Investigative research includes visiting prisons physically counting the individuals on death row and interviewing the detainees to obtain their age and the length of time they had been on death row
