Scotichronicon Vol 7 1320 1390 Scotichronicon:

An Antidote to the English Norman Macdougall, 2001 The Auld Alliance originated as an offensive and defensive treaty made by John King of Scots and Philip IV of France directed against Edward I of England in 1295. Remarkably this original treaty of Paris Dunfermline was frequently renewed throughout the course of the next two and a half centuries becoming latterly a cornerstone of Scottish foreign policy. Combining narrative and analysis this book covers the uncertain beginnings of the Alliance moving on to the major military commitment of the Scots to the French side in the Hundred Years War 1337-1453 with England the subsequent settlement of Scots in France in the fifteenth century the close naval and military links between James IV and Louis XII of France in the early sixteenth century and the climax and end of the Alliance following the marriage of Francis II of France to Mary Queen of Scots 1558. Scotia, 1996 Books in Scotland, 1996 Political Representation: Communities, Ideas and Institutions in Europe (c. 1200 - c. 1690), 2018-08-20 Political Representation Communities Ideas and Institutions in Europe c 1200 c 1690 a scholarly collection on representation in medieval and early modern Europe opens up the field of institutional and parliamentary history to new paradigms of representation across a wide geography and chronology as testified by the volume's studies on assemblies ranging from Burgundy and Brabant to Ireland and Italy. The focus is on three areas: institutional developments of representative institutions in Western Europe; the composition of these institutions concerning interest groups and individual participants; and the ideological environment of representatives in time and space. By analysing the balance between bottom up and top down approaches to the functioning of institutions of representation by studying the actors behind the representative institutions linking prosopographical research with changes in political dialogue and by exploring the ideological world of representation this volume makes a key contribution to the historiography of pre-modern government and political culture.
