What They Couldn't:

What Doesn't Kill You Virginia DeBerry, Donna Grant, 2009-01-06 I really thought I had a handle on life then it broke off Opinionated straight talking and witty Tee is a fly forty something Divorced since her daughter Amber was young Tee has been handling her business supporting herself after her would be songwriter husband took off for L A and she's done all right Organized responsible hardworking and loyal Tee went from being the first employee of a start up purveyor of organic lotions to the right hand of the president of what became a major player in the home and personal fragrance market But then everything changes First she's outplaced from her longtime job and doesn't tell anyone Then she gives her daughter the wedding of her dreams and after overindulging in champagne Tee wakes up in bed with the younger best man For the first time in twenty five years Tee doesn't know who she is or what she's going to do every day Deep in denial she continues to live her life as if nothing has changed After a series of financial mistakes miscalculations and missteps compound her already shaky situation she's soon teetering on the edge of bankruptcy That's when Tee decides that it's time for her to wake up and face reality Beyond making money Tee never really decided what she wanted to do with her life Then she just stopped thinking about it and invested her hopes in someone else's dream Now it's her chance to invest in herself Can she step out on faith to follow her own dream

The Church I Couldn't Find Charles Alexander, 2013-04-04 After a year of searching Charles and Verna could not find a church primarily operating on basic first century principles Most churches are not traditional enough After thirty five years as a pastor my denomination had steered me in an ineffective and unbiblical direction We had become chaplains to the culture rather prophets within it Few churches seem to have a process and possibly the knowledge in how to make effective disciples Development of five apostolic principles is encouraged They really work The first century church was not perfect but remarkably diverse in maintaining apostolic accountability and encouragement How may churches develop autonomy unity and cooperation in close geographical areas First century worship is difficult to find A service is produced here that hopefully includes all essential principles Dependent on the process of the group event the group based church proves to be the best way to achieve apostolic goals and to provide an easy way to minister in unity with other churches Many personal experiences illustrate the point Practical and effective development in the author's experience has resulted in the building of three new churches and a wide ministry of teaching
