Ugly Ways Tina McElroy Ansa:

Ugly Ways Tina McElroy Ansa, 1995-01-17 Three sisters return to their southern hometown after the death of their difficult demanding mother in a novel by the author of Baby of the Family In life Esther Lovejoy was an intolerable mother She raised her daughters with an iron fist browbeat her husband into submission and insisted they call her Mudear an abbreviation of Mother Dear As adults with successful careers Betty Emily and Annie Ruth have scattered across the country to avoid Mudear's influence But now it's time to lay her to rest and the Lovejoy sisters have returned to Mulberry Georgia to pay their last respects What they discover is that while Mudear may be dead she is far from gone With a large dose of compassion and a generous splash of humor Tina McElroy Ansa serves up a powerful tale of family secrets and the ways our scars make us stronger A voice that is fresh and strong and just quirky enough to stand out from the crowd The Boston Sunday Globe An entertaining read The author like a good small town gossip paints a vivid picture of three bright beautiful and emotionally scarred African American sisters Los Angeles Times

Why Any Woman Keira V. Williams, 2023-11-15 Scholars are revisiting the history of feminist activism and organizations mining it for a revisionist grassroots gender politics in the South Why Any Woman advances this line of historical inquiry by focusing on one of the most productive sites of late twentieth century southern feminisms popular culture by and about southern women The nature of popular culture is such that the challenges it poses to the gendered and racial order for instance are likely to be consumed privately in theaters or at home alone or with friends or family by more people than would ever read a feminist manifesto attend a civil rights demonstration or lobby a legislator for change In the cultural desert of the late twentieth century pre internet South during a time in which there were fewer avenues of activism and organizing other sources of feminism predominated and pop culture is where many of us turned for guidance for role models and whether or not we knew it for consciousness raising In a region and during a time of neoconservative backlash in which women's liberation was under attack southern women's pop culture offered a bridge between the second and third waves of feminism and a major challenge to contemporary antifeminist forces Why Any Woman examines key texts by and about southern women the play Crimes of the Heart the novels The Color Purple and Ugly Ways the films Thelma and Louise and Beloved the television shows Designing Women and The Oprah Winfrey Show as a means of understanding the role of regional popular culture in defining and redefining American feminisms as we approached the twenty first century Taken as a collective these texts expand how we think about the whats wheres whens and hows of feminisms in recent U S history Why any woman give a shit what people think is a mystery to me muses the blueswoman Shug Avery in Alice Walker's The Color Purple Why Any Woman features southerners who like Shug rejected and reshaped gender norms and their stories illustrate some of the ways regional pop culture has been and still is a crucial site of American feminisms

Passed On Karla FC Holloway,2002-01-30 Passed On is a portrait of death and dying in twentieth century African America Through poignant reflection and thorough investigation of the myths rituals economics and politics of African American mourning and burial practices Karla FC Holloway finds that ways of dying are just as much a part of black identity as ways of living Gracefully interweaving interviews archival research and analyses of literature film and music Holloway shows how the vulnerability of African Americans to untimely death is inextricably linked to how black culture represents itself and is represented With a focus on the death care industry black funeral homes and morticians the history of the profession and its practices Holloway examines all facets of the burial business from physicians hospital chaplains and hospice administrators to embalming chemical salesmen casket makers and funeral directors to grieving relatives She uses narrative photographs and images to summon a painful history of lynchings white rage and riot medical malpractice and neglect executions and neighborhood violence Specialized caskets sold to African Americans formal burial photos of infants and deathbed stories unveil a glimpse of the graveyards and burial sites of African America along with burial rituals and funeral ceremonies Revealing both unexpected humor and anticipated tragedy Holloway tells a story of the experiences of black folk in the funeral profession and its clientele She also reluctantly shares the story of her son and the way his death moved her research from page to person In the conclusion which follows a sermon delivered by Maurice O Wallace at the funeral for the author s son Bem Holloway strives to commemorate through observation ceremony and the calling of others to remembrance and celebration

The World Is Our Home Jeffrey J. Folks,Nancy Summers Folks,2021-10-21 Since the early 1970s southern fiction has been increasingly attentive to social issues including the continuing struggles for racial justice and gender equality the loss of a sense of social community and the decline of a coherent regional identity The essays in The World Is Our Home focus on writers who have explicitly addressed social and cultural issues in their fiction and drama including Dorothy Allison Horton Foote Ernest J Gaines Jill McCorkle Walker Percy Lee Smith William Styron Alice Walker and many others The contributors provide valuable insights into the transformation of southern culture over the past thirty years and probe the social and cultural divisions that persist The collection makes an important case for the centrality of social critique in contemporary southern fiction

Georgia Odyssey James C.

Cobb,2010-01-25 Georgia Odyssey is a lively survey of the state's history from its beginnings as a European colony to its current standing as an international business mecca from the self imposed isolation of its Jim Crow era to its role as host of the centennial Olympic Games and beyond from its long reign as the linchpin state of the Democratic Solid South to its current dominance by the Republican Party This new edition incorporates current trends that have placed Georgia among the country's most dynamic and attractive states fueled the growth of its Hispanic and Asian American populations and otherwise dramatically altered its demographic economic social and cultural appearance and persona The constantly shifting cultural landscape of contemporary Georgia writes James C Cobb presents a jumbled panorama of anachronism contradiction contrast and peculiarity A Georgia native Cobb delights in debunking familiar myths about his state as he brings its past to life and makes it relevant to today Not all of that past is pleasant to recall Cobb notes Moreover not all of today's Georgians are as unequivocal as the tobacco farmer who informed a visiting journalist in 1938 that we Georgians are Georgian as hell That said a great many Georgians both natives and new arrivals care deeply about the state's identity and consider it integral to their own Georgia Odyssey is the ideal introduction to our past and a unique and often provocative look at the interaction of that past with our present and future

The Grasp That Reaches beyond the Grave

Venetria K. Patton,2013-01-01

Explores black women writers treatment of the ancestor figure The Grasp That Reaches beyond the Grave investigates the treatment of the ancestor figure in Toni Cade Bambara's The Salt Eaters Paule Marshall's Praisesong for the Widow Phyllis Alesia Perry's Stigmata and A Sunday in June Toni Morrison's Beloved Tananarive Due's The Between and Julie Dash's film Daughters of the Dust in order to understand how they draw on African cosmology and the interrelationship of ancestors elders and children to promote healing within the African American community Venetria K Patton suggests that the experience of slavery with its concomitant view of black women as natively dead has impacted African American women writers emphasis on elders and ancestors as they seek means to counteract notions of black women as somehow disconnected from the progeny of their wombs This misperception is in part addressed via a rich kinship system which includes the living and the dead Patton notes an uncanny connection between depictions of elder ancestor and child figures in these texts and Kongo cosmology These references suggest that these works are examples of Africanisms or African retentions which continue to impact African American culture

Shaded Lives

Beretta E. Smith-Shomade,2002 In Shaded Lives Beretta Smith Shomade sets out to dissect images of the African American woman in television from the 1980s She calls their depiction binaristic or split African American women although an essential part of television programming today are still presented as distorted and deviant By closely examining the television texts of African American women in comedy music video television news and talk shows Oprah Winfrey is highlighted Smith Shomade shows how these voices are represented what forces may be at work in influencing these images and what alternate ways of viewing might be available Teaching African American Literature Maryemma Graham, Sharon Pineault-Burke, Marianna White Davis, 2013-12-16 This book is written by teachers interested in bringing African American literature into the classroom Documented here is the learning process that these educators experienced themselves as they read and discussed the stories pedagogical The Power of the Porch Trudier Harris, 1996 In ways that are highly individual says Harris yet still within a shared oral tradition Zora Neale Hurston Gloria Naylor and Randall Kenan skillfully use storytelling techniques to define their audiences reach out and draw them in and fill them with anticipation Considering how such dynamics come into play in Hurston's Mules and Men Naylor's Mama Day and Kenan's Let the Dead Bury Their Dead Harris shows how the power of the porch resides in readers as well who in giving themselves over to a story confer it on the writer Against this background of give and take anticipation and fulfillment Harris considers Zora Neale Hurston's special challenges as a black woman writer in the thirties and how her various roles as an anthropologist folklorist and novelist intermingle in her work In Gloria Naylor's writing Harris finds particularly satisfying themes and characters A New York native Naylor came to a knowledge of the South through her parents and during her stay on the Sea Islands she wrote Mama Day A southerner by birth Randall Kenan is particularly adept in getting his readers to accept aspects of African American culture that their rational minds might have wanted to reject Although Kenan is set apart from Hurston and Naylor by his alliances with a new generation of writers intent upon broaching certain taboo subjects in his case gay life in small southern towns Kenan's Tims Creek is as rife with the otherworldly and the fantastic as Hurston's New Orleans and Naylor's Willow Springs Contemporary Literature in the African Diaspora Bernard W. Bell, 1997 Black Writers Sharon Malinowski, 1994 This text presents comprehensive coverage of more than 400 of the most studied black authors from the Harlem Renaissance social and political activists and foreign black writers of interest to American Audiences
