The Protocols of Ambiguity B. B. Jacobson, 2014-07-24 On the seventh night of a Holy Ghost revival a six year old boy has just received the Gift He is autonomous he is content and he is speaking in tongues He s been told the Gift would lead and guide him into all truth While instability confusion and rage surround his family and home the boy grows older and must experience unthinkable acts of violence and the uncertainty of moving from place to place The troubled boy seeks refuge in books and learning but oceans of questions flood his mind and he is forced to reckon with a world of myriad coexisting coequal truths As years pass he begins to receive visitations Unwilling to seek council regarding these occurrences deeper questions emerge Is it possible that there be a solitary absolute truth Is that truth so obvious that it is obscured only by its sheer enormity Author B B Jacobson takes you on a remarkable journey into the life of an unassuming boy in this coming of age story of how the power of a calling exceeds the affect of circumstance The Protocols of Ambiguity is a modern day statement that reveals the potency of a planted seed it defies the mainstream and lays the challenge at the feet of the avant garde to return to the root Annual of the Southern Baptist Convention Southern Baptist Convention, 1939 Becoming Christian Bill J.
